Antioch High balances budget

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

"Our goal was to have a balanced budget for the 2003 fiscal year," said Bill Ahlers, business manager for Antioch Community High School. "When you take building construction out of the expenditures, and deferred reimbursements out of the receipts, we have that."

Projected receipts total $32.3 million and expenditures total $55.7 million. "We got the money for the construction two years ago, and that accounts for the difference," said Ahlers.

Ahlers explained that there is an increase of $375,184 in receipts over expenditures because reimbursements from the state of Illinois totaling $254,969 were deferred from 2002 to 2003, as well as $120,183 in lease equipment purchase reimbursements.

Receipts are up nearly $1.5. An increase in local property taxes from $13.9 million in 2001-02 to $15.7 million in 2002-03 more than offset the decrease in state aid from $1.8 million to $650,711 for the same years respectively.

Expenditures are also expected to rise with the total up $768,517 over the previous year. According to Ahlers, more money is being spent on salaries, benefits and purchased services.

Purchased services sees the highest increase in expenditures with more going out for security and police liaison; food service; operational costs at Allendale and Gateway; special education housing costs; and an increase in property insurance premiums.

Ahlers said the fund balance is an amount adequate to allow the district to make it through the school year without having to resort to borrowing money on a short-term basis to cover cash flow inadequacies.

55-acre annexation get majority votes

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

Village attorney Don Anderson explained that statute requires a "supermajority" vote for both the ordinance directing the execution of an annexation agreement and an annexation agreement itself. Two such ordinances before the board of directors of the village of Antioch with regard to the annexation of 55 acres to be part of the Neumann Homes development were approved with supermajority votes.

Trustee Barbara Porch was again the singular no vote on the board. She asked rhetorically to confirm that a public hearing had been held, and then asked the purpose of a public hearing.

Questions over how the property within Neumann Homes' Deercrest and Clublands developments will be assessed if special service areas (SSA) are approved caused the board of directors of the Village of Antioch to defer voting on the proposed establishing ordinance.

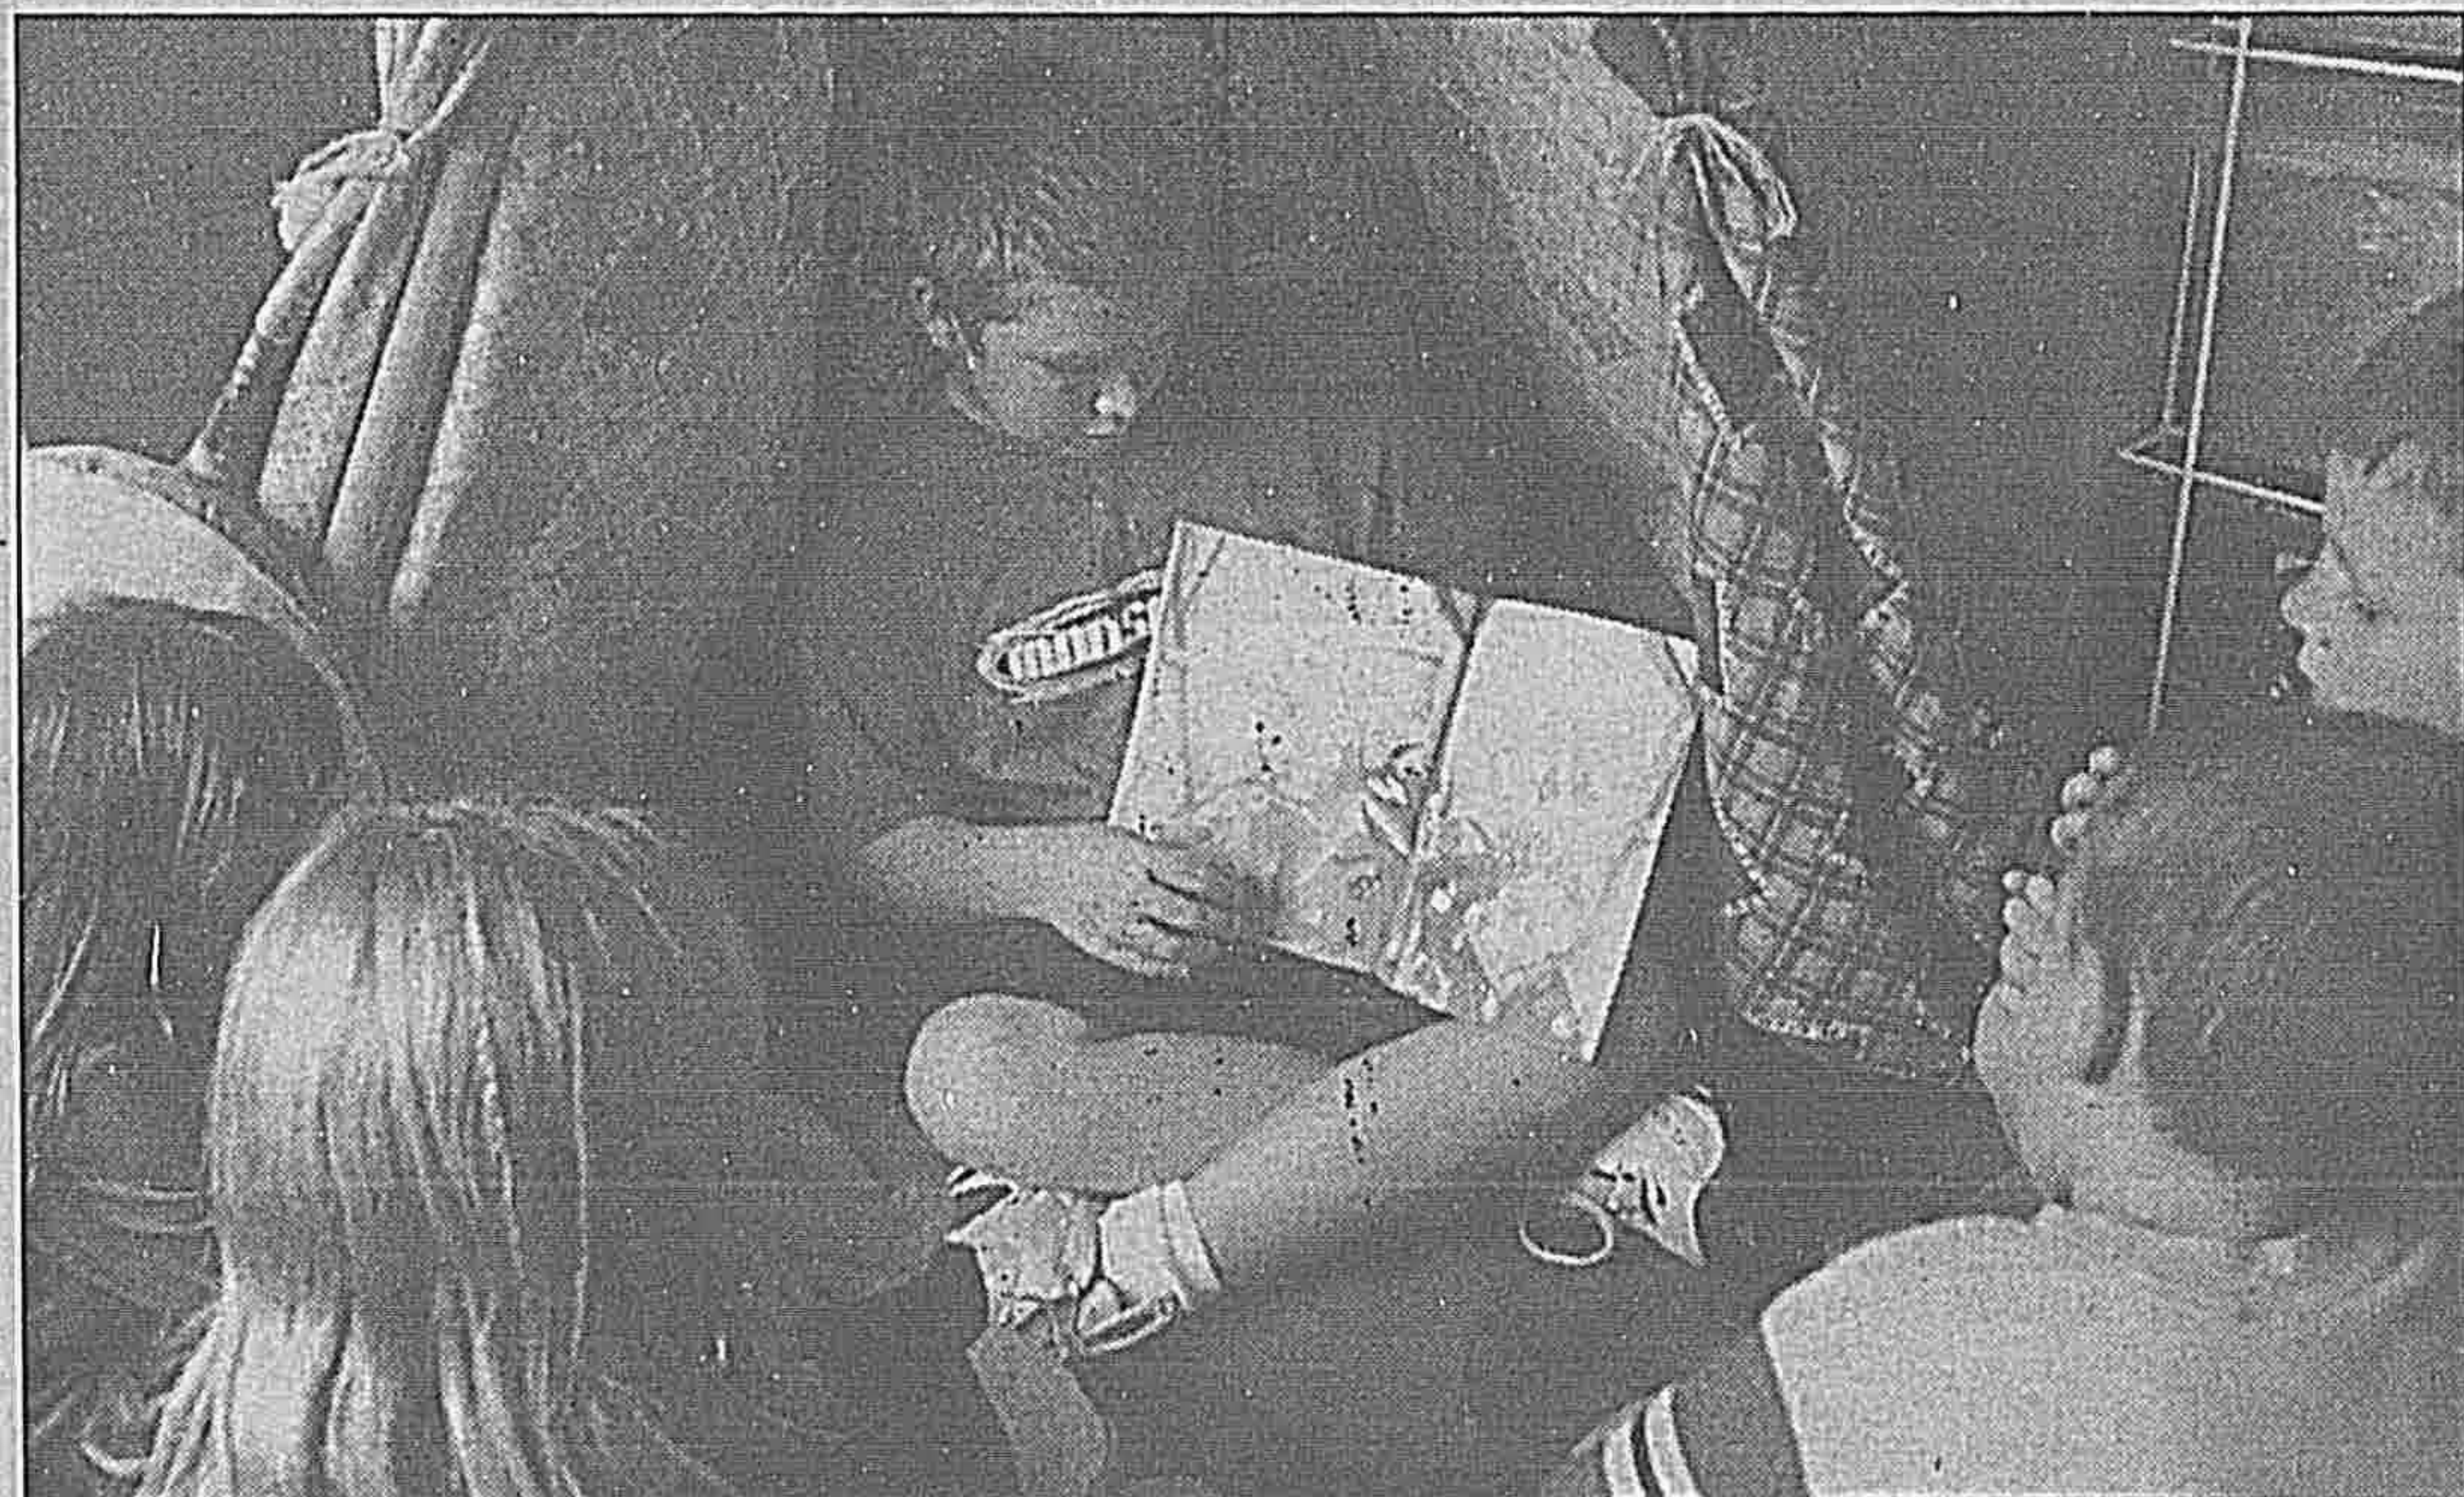

A special meeting will be held

Friday, Sept. 27 at 7 p.m. in the apparatus bay of the main fire station on Orchard to further discuss the matter and possibly take action then.

"We're not trying to hold things up," said Dorothy Larson, trustee and mayor pro-tem. "We just need to make sure that everything is in order before we take action."

Kretchmer presents Wal-Mart financial analysis

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

Many Antioch residents and local business owners have been long awaiting the results of Valerie S. Kretchmer Associates financial analysis of the impact the proposed Wal-Mart could have on the Village of Antioch. Kretchmer will make her presentation before the combined planning and zoning board at its meeting on Thursday, Sept. 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the Antioch Upper Grade School on Highview Drive.

Additionally, Kretchmer's report is available at the clerk's office at Village Hall and at the Lake Villa Library as the Antioch Library is temporarily closed due to construction. Bob Silhan, director of planning and zoning for the Village of Antioch, said that Smith Engineering has also completed its traffic analysis though no formal presentation will be made.

"This report is also available at the clerk's office and at the Lake Villa Library," said Silhan. "Jim Keim (village engineer) will be on hand to

ComEd seeks approval to on property use

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

Commonwealth Edison went before the combined planning and zoning board to seek approval for a special use on property it has owned since 1928.

Ken Clark, ComEd's attorney, made the presentation. "We want to put the property back to what it was he said. Previously this property was used for large transformers that are now on a new site off of Route 83."

The parcel is a little over an acre and situated south of Route 173, east of Route 59 and west of Hillside. The parcel has three different zoning areas with the bulk being B-3 (commercial) with small sections of R-2 and R-3 (both residential).

Clark said the utility is hoping to use the property for a reporting station for maintenance and emergencies. It would largely be unmanned though five crews of two people each would come and go for equipment and supplies.

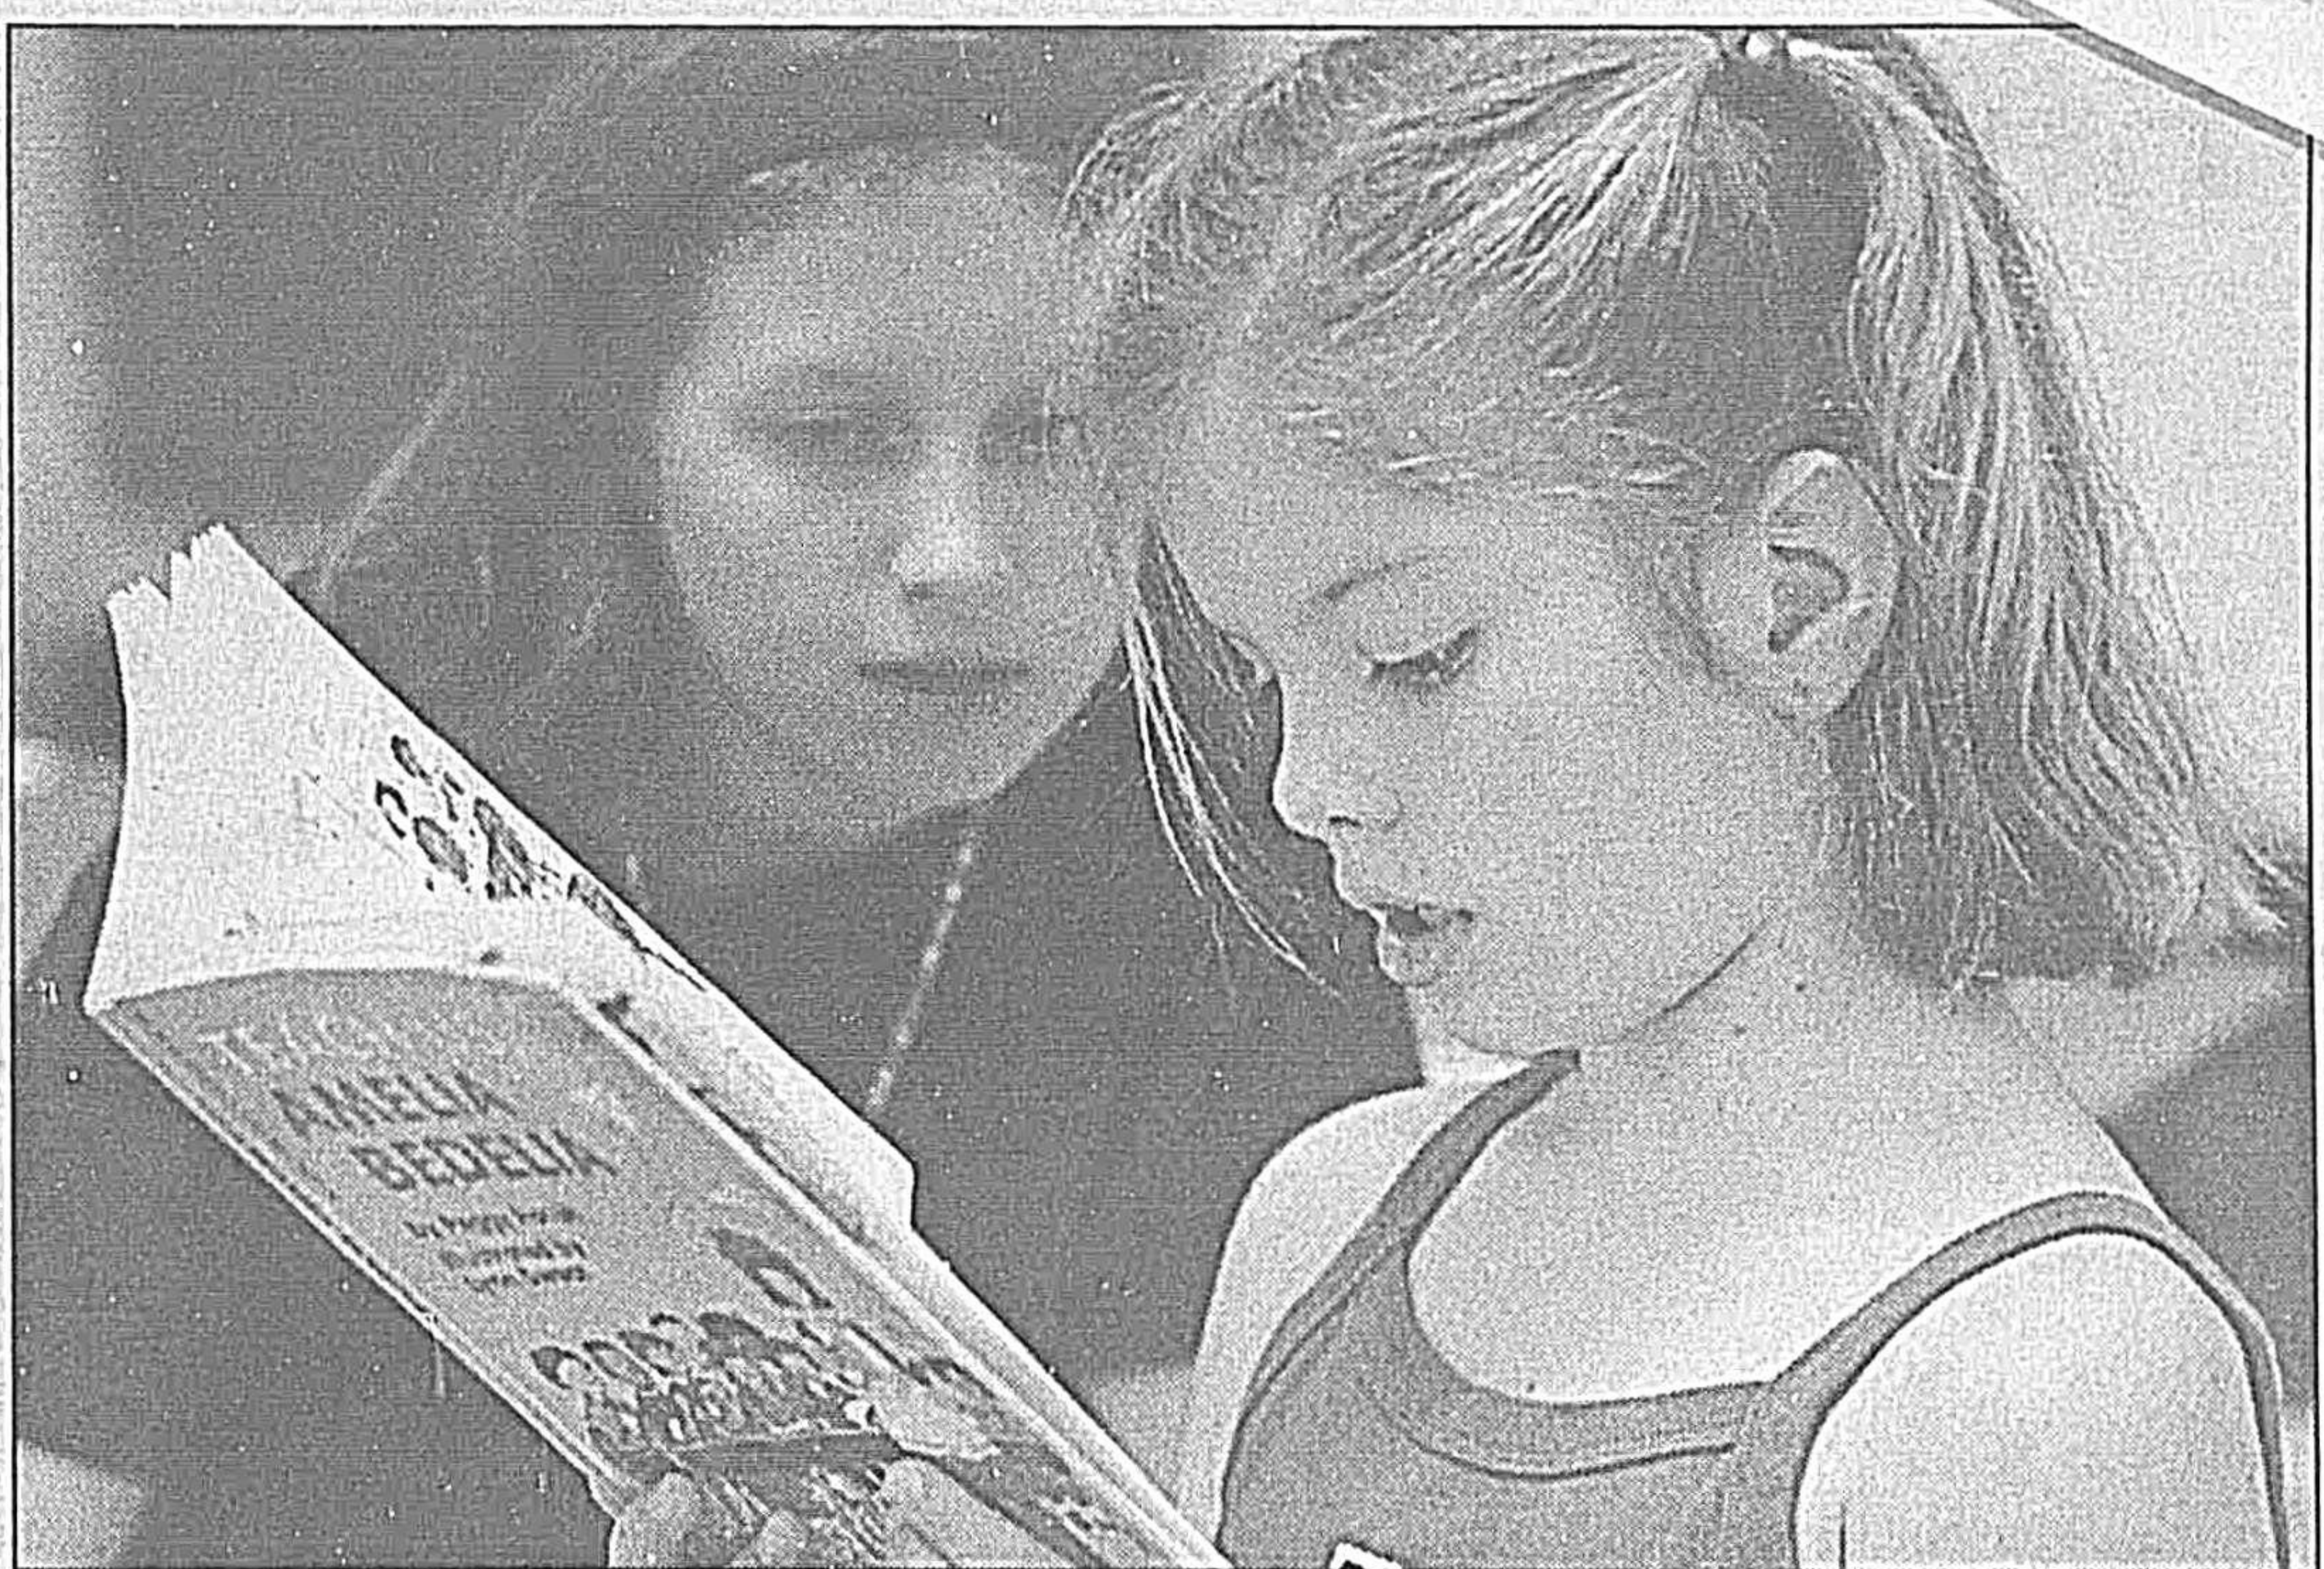

"This is largely a passive use," he said.

A small office is proposed for the site as well as eight containers, 15-20 feet long, for storage. The site would be surrounded by 8-foot high cyclone fencing with barbed wire at the top for security. Antioch's S and S Landscaping would do "heavy landscaping" to make the appearance attractive from the road.

Clark said the ultimate goal in using this site is to reduce the duration of outages. He explained that currently crews have to come from Libertyville to service this area.

Objections from the board were over the visual appearance of the site.

Village attorney Don Anderson reminded the board that it is a technical advisory board, and that its purpose is to determine whether the plan fits within municipal ordinances. "The question is whether this particular use should be granted, because the property owner is asking for something that is an allowable use," he said.

Exchange offers parents solutions to teen issues

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

To help parents better deal with the issues of raising teenagers, Antioch Community High School has created a five-week "Parent Exchange" program. The program was created through the Student Assistance Program at the school and is open to the parents of students attending ACHS.

The program is designed to provide parents with an opportunity to discuss topics of mutual concern and to examine potential solutions to these issues. While the majority of topics to be discussed will be generated by those who attend, it is anticipated that some of the discussion issues may include academic success; dating and relationships; communicating with teachers; curfew; and the use of drugs and alcohol.

"This is the child of a course I've been teaching called 'Active Parenting to Teens,'" said Tim Noonan, a counselor at the this school and exchange facilitator along with Peg Larson. "While this has gone over well in the past, parents asked for something in a less formal setting."

The program will begin on Oct. 28 and will meet for five consecutive weeks. All of the meetings will be held on Monday night from 7-9 p.m. at the ACHS media center/library. There is no fee, but the course is limited to 12 parents.

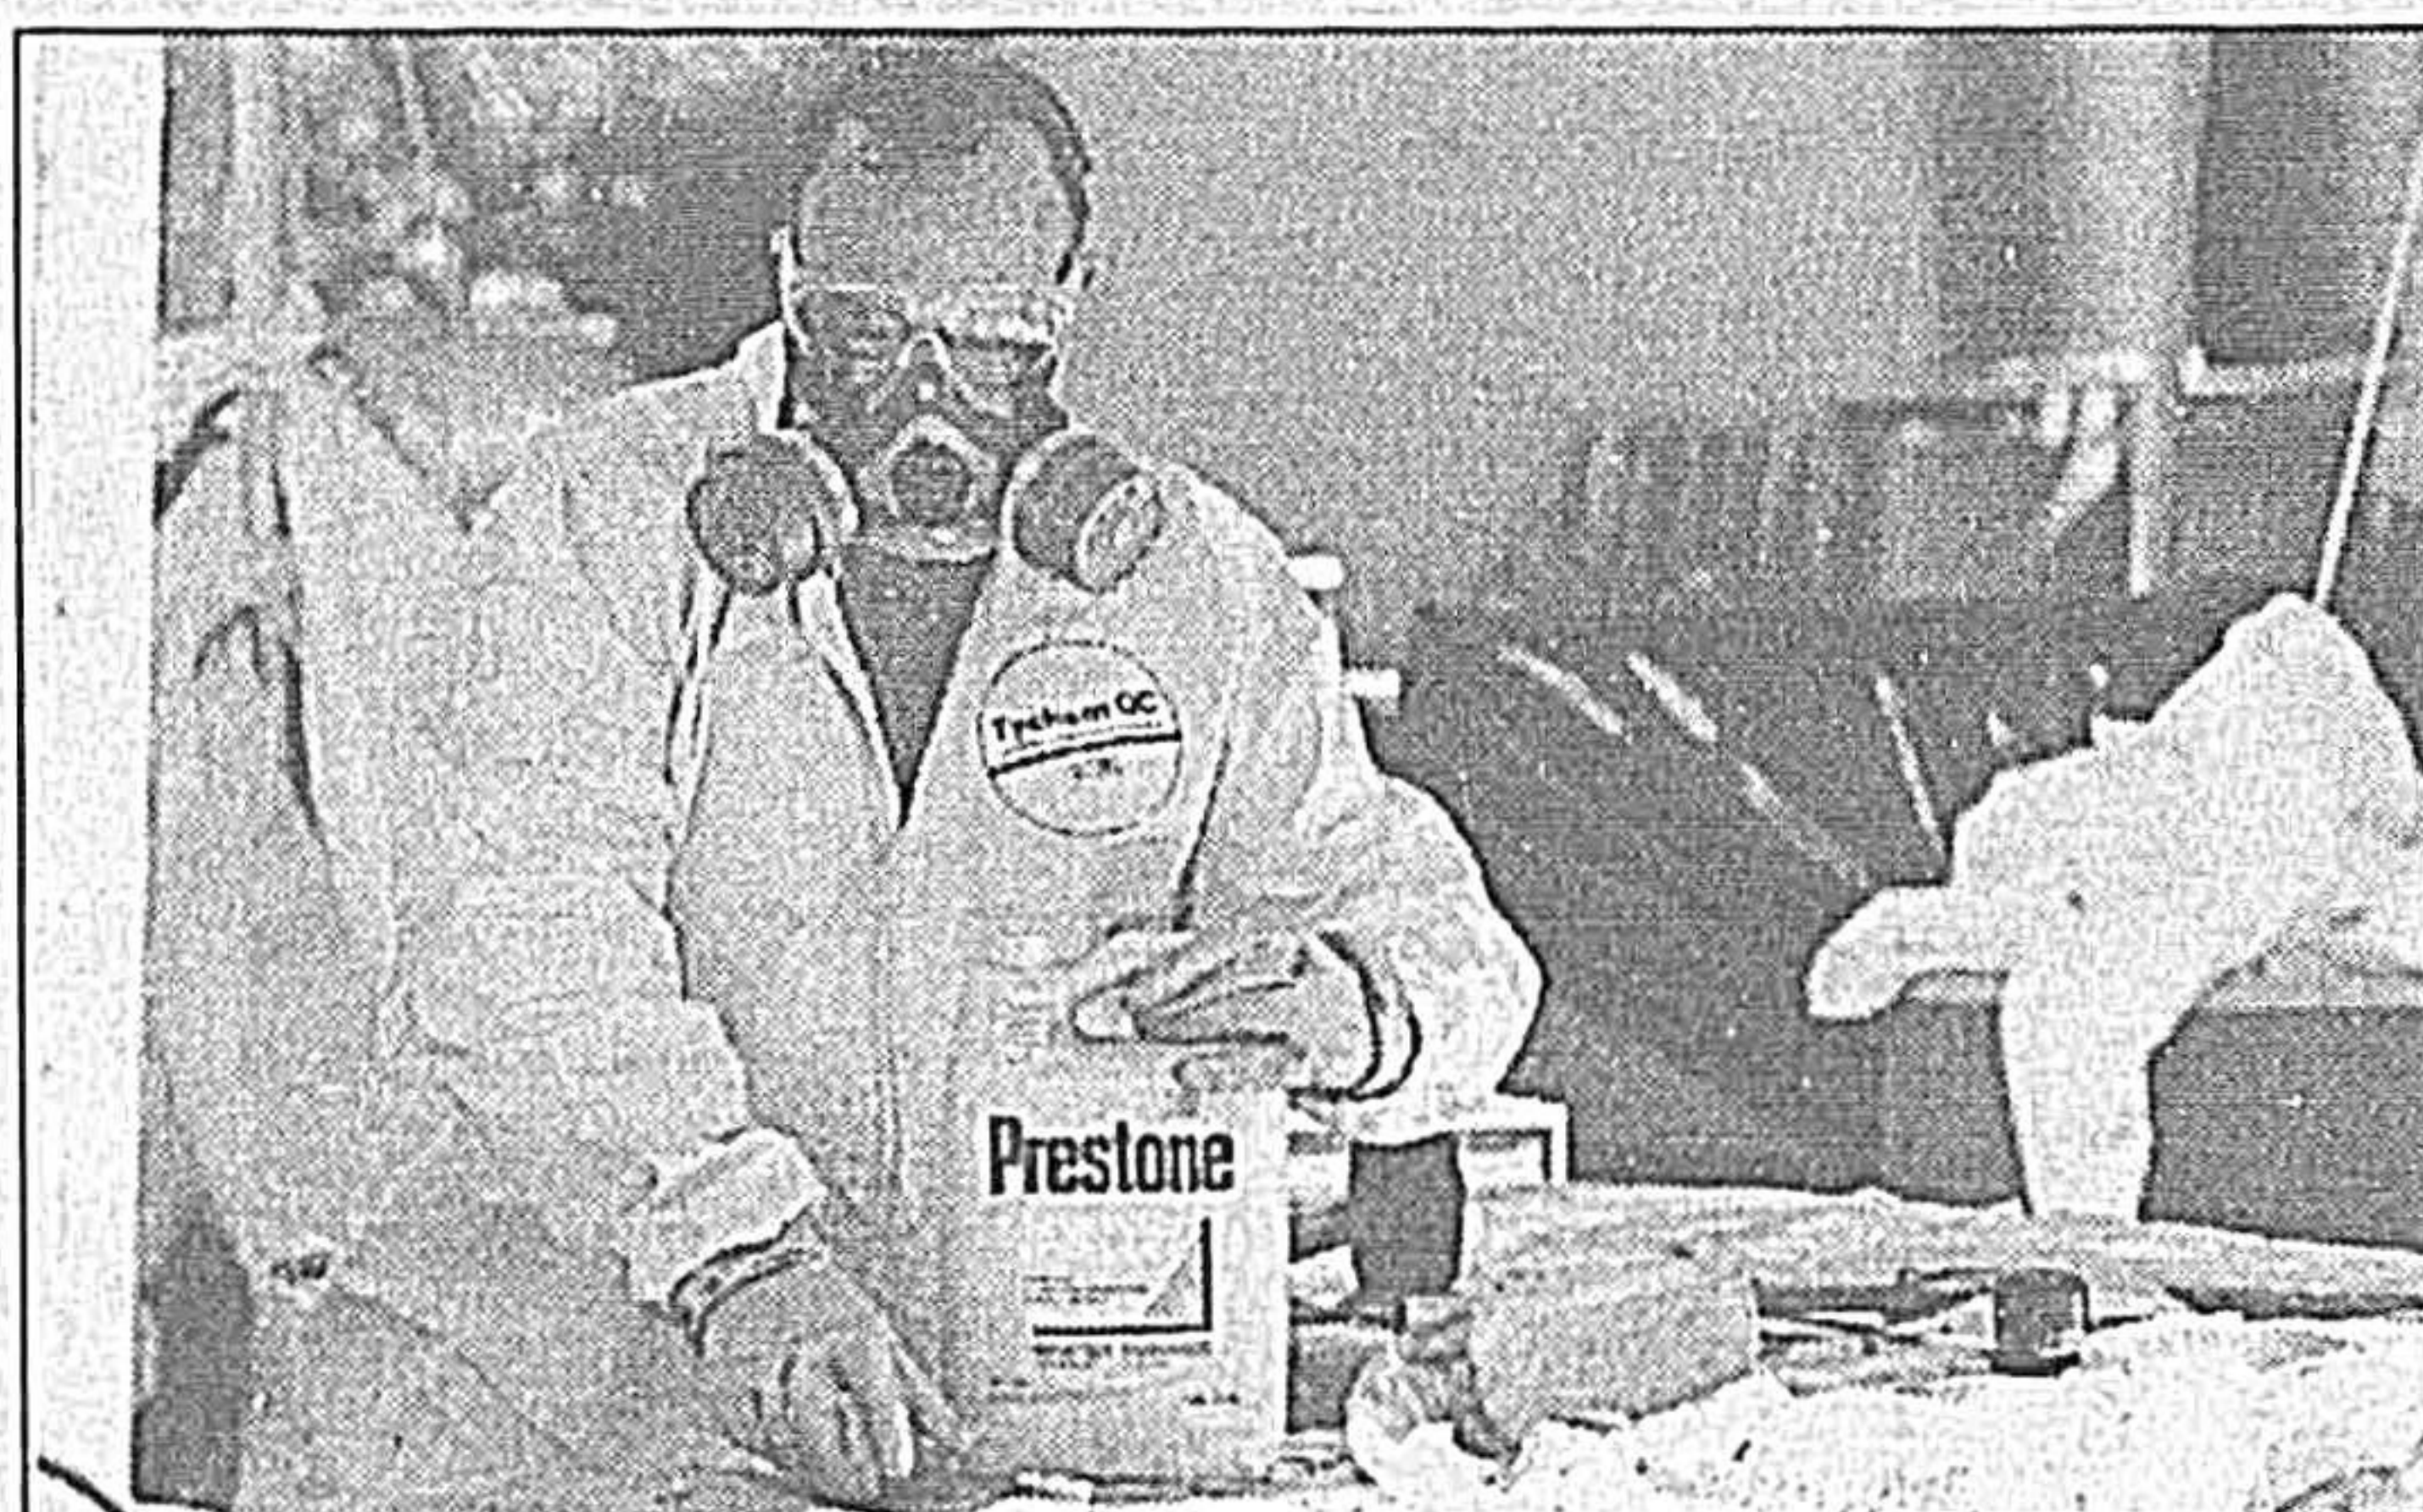

"We want to keep the group together for the full five weeks," said Noonan. "We ask that each parent who registers commit to the full program."

Noonan stressed that the program is neither a gripe session, nor therapy. "This is an opportunity for parents to share ideas and solutions with other parents," he said. "It's not meant to be a parenting class."

Larson holds a master's degree in social work and is employed by the district as such. Noonan has a master's degree in counseling and is certified by the state of Illinois as an alcohol and drug counselor. He works at the school as a counselor and is the Student Assistance Program coordinator.

Interested parents should call Noonan, 847-395-1421 ext. 7644, or Larson at 847-395-1421 ext. 7792. Registration will be taken until Oct. 18, or until it reaches capacity.

Ride for the cure welcomes horse fans

By JULIE MURPHY
Staff Reporter

Horseback riders will have a unique opportunity to support the cure for breast cancer. Miller's Farm, just north of the border in Salem, Wis., is sponsoring the fourth annual "Ride for the Cure of Breast Cancer."

The ride itself will take place on Oct. 5 at the Bong State Recreation Area, located on Highway 142, one mile west of Highway 75 over the border in Wisconsin. Riders are asked to either pledge $20 themselves or to collect a minimum of $20 in sponsor pledges.

"So many of us have had our lives touched by someone with breast cancer," said Ted Axton, chairman of the board of the First National Bank-Employee Owned (FNBO) that has supported the ride. "This is a cause we wholeheartedly wanted to support."

Those who do have horses will be treated to 13 miles of groomed trails to ride. The first 50 riders will get a free T-shirt. Gift certificates will go to those who raise $500 or more.

A continental breakfast will be provided, though lunches should be brought individually. Several local tack shops are bringing trailers with tack, clothing and jewelry for sale. Ten percent of all sales are being donated to the cause.

"Those with horses are encouraged to ride them for this event. Those who don't have horses are welcome to come without and enjoy the beautiful setting or have a picnic," said Axton.

There is no set "ride out" time, but participants are asked to arrive between 8:30-11:30 a.m. Sponsor sheets are available at Bong and at Miller's Farm.

All of the money raised will go to the American Cancer Society for the express purpose of breast cancer research. In the past three years, the Ride for the Cure has raised $50,000.

For more information about the Ride for the Cure of Breast Cancer, call Lynn Miller at 262-537-2827.

PM&L hangs hat at temporary home

It's said that home is where the heart is and for PM&L that means the Antioch VFW Hall on North Avenue.

"Nonsense Jamboree" opened on Sept. 20 at this temporary home. The show runs through Oct. 6 with performances on Friday and Saturday at 8 p.m. and on Sundays at 2:30 p.m.

Publicity director Betty Smouse describes the story as a hilarious musical. She said, "This is a rollicking good time as your favorite musical nuns go country western."

The box office, temporarily located at 879 Main Street, opens on Sept. 9 Monday 5:30-7:30 p.m. and Saturday from 11 a.m.-2 p.m. Day-of-the-show reservations will only be taken at the VFW Hall beginning 90 minutes prior to curtain time on show dates.

Tickets are $13 for adults, $8 for students and seniors. Season ticket prices are $50 for adults and $40 for students and seniors. Reservations can be made by calling 395-3055, or by visiting the box office.

Friends of the Parks will hold its second work meeting on Saturday, Sept. 28 from 9 a.m.-noon at North Park. The park is located on Donin Drive in the Antioch Manor North subdivision, west on North Avenue from Route 83.

Please bring rakes, wheel barrels or any other garden tools to help with the sprucing-up efforts.

Chris Lienhardt, parks board president, said that each park board member is responsible for one park, and that the parks are regularly checked to see if anything is being overlooked. The park with the longest to-do list was selected as the site of this first project.

The parks and recreation department would like to have a monthly clean-up barring the bad weather months.

Those interested in being placed on a Friends of the Parks mailing list should call the parks department office at 847-395-2160.

Bears at Allendale

By BRENDA BALIN-BEITSCHER

Staff Reporter

For the 130 residents at the Allendale campus in Lake Villa, role models are hard to come by. Except for teachers and staff at the school, many of the children living at Allendale have lacked positive influences in their daily lives.

For a day, at least, the bad spell was broken with the visit of Chicago Bears offensive tackle Bernard Robertson.

For the second year in a row, a member of the Bears organization came to the campus sponsored by the NFL's "Hometown Huddle" program, administered through the United Way.

Robertson spent an hour-and-a-half with the school's residents, tossing a football with them and enjoying one-on-one conversation at a cookout.

The football player addressed the residents, talking about himself, and how he identified with many of those growing up in difficult circumstances.

"He told them, 'You guys remind me of the kids I grew up with,'" said Jordan Luhr, Allendale's vice president of development and public relations.

"The kids loved hearing this," he said. "Many of the teens are into sports, and the players are heroes for them."

The residents benefit from hearing first-hand that many of those they admire had to overcome some of the same obstacles as the troubled youth at the school.

"The Bears organization sent plastic banners to us in advance," Luhr said. "The kids wrote notes to the players." The banners were taken back to the team.

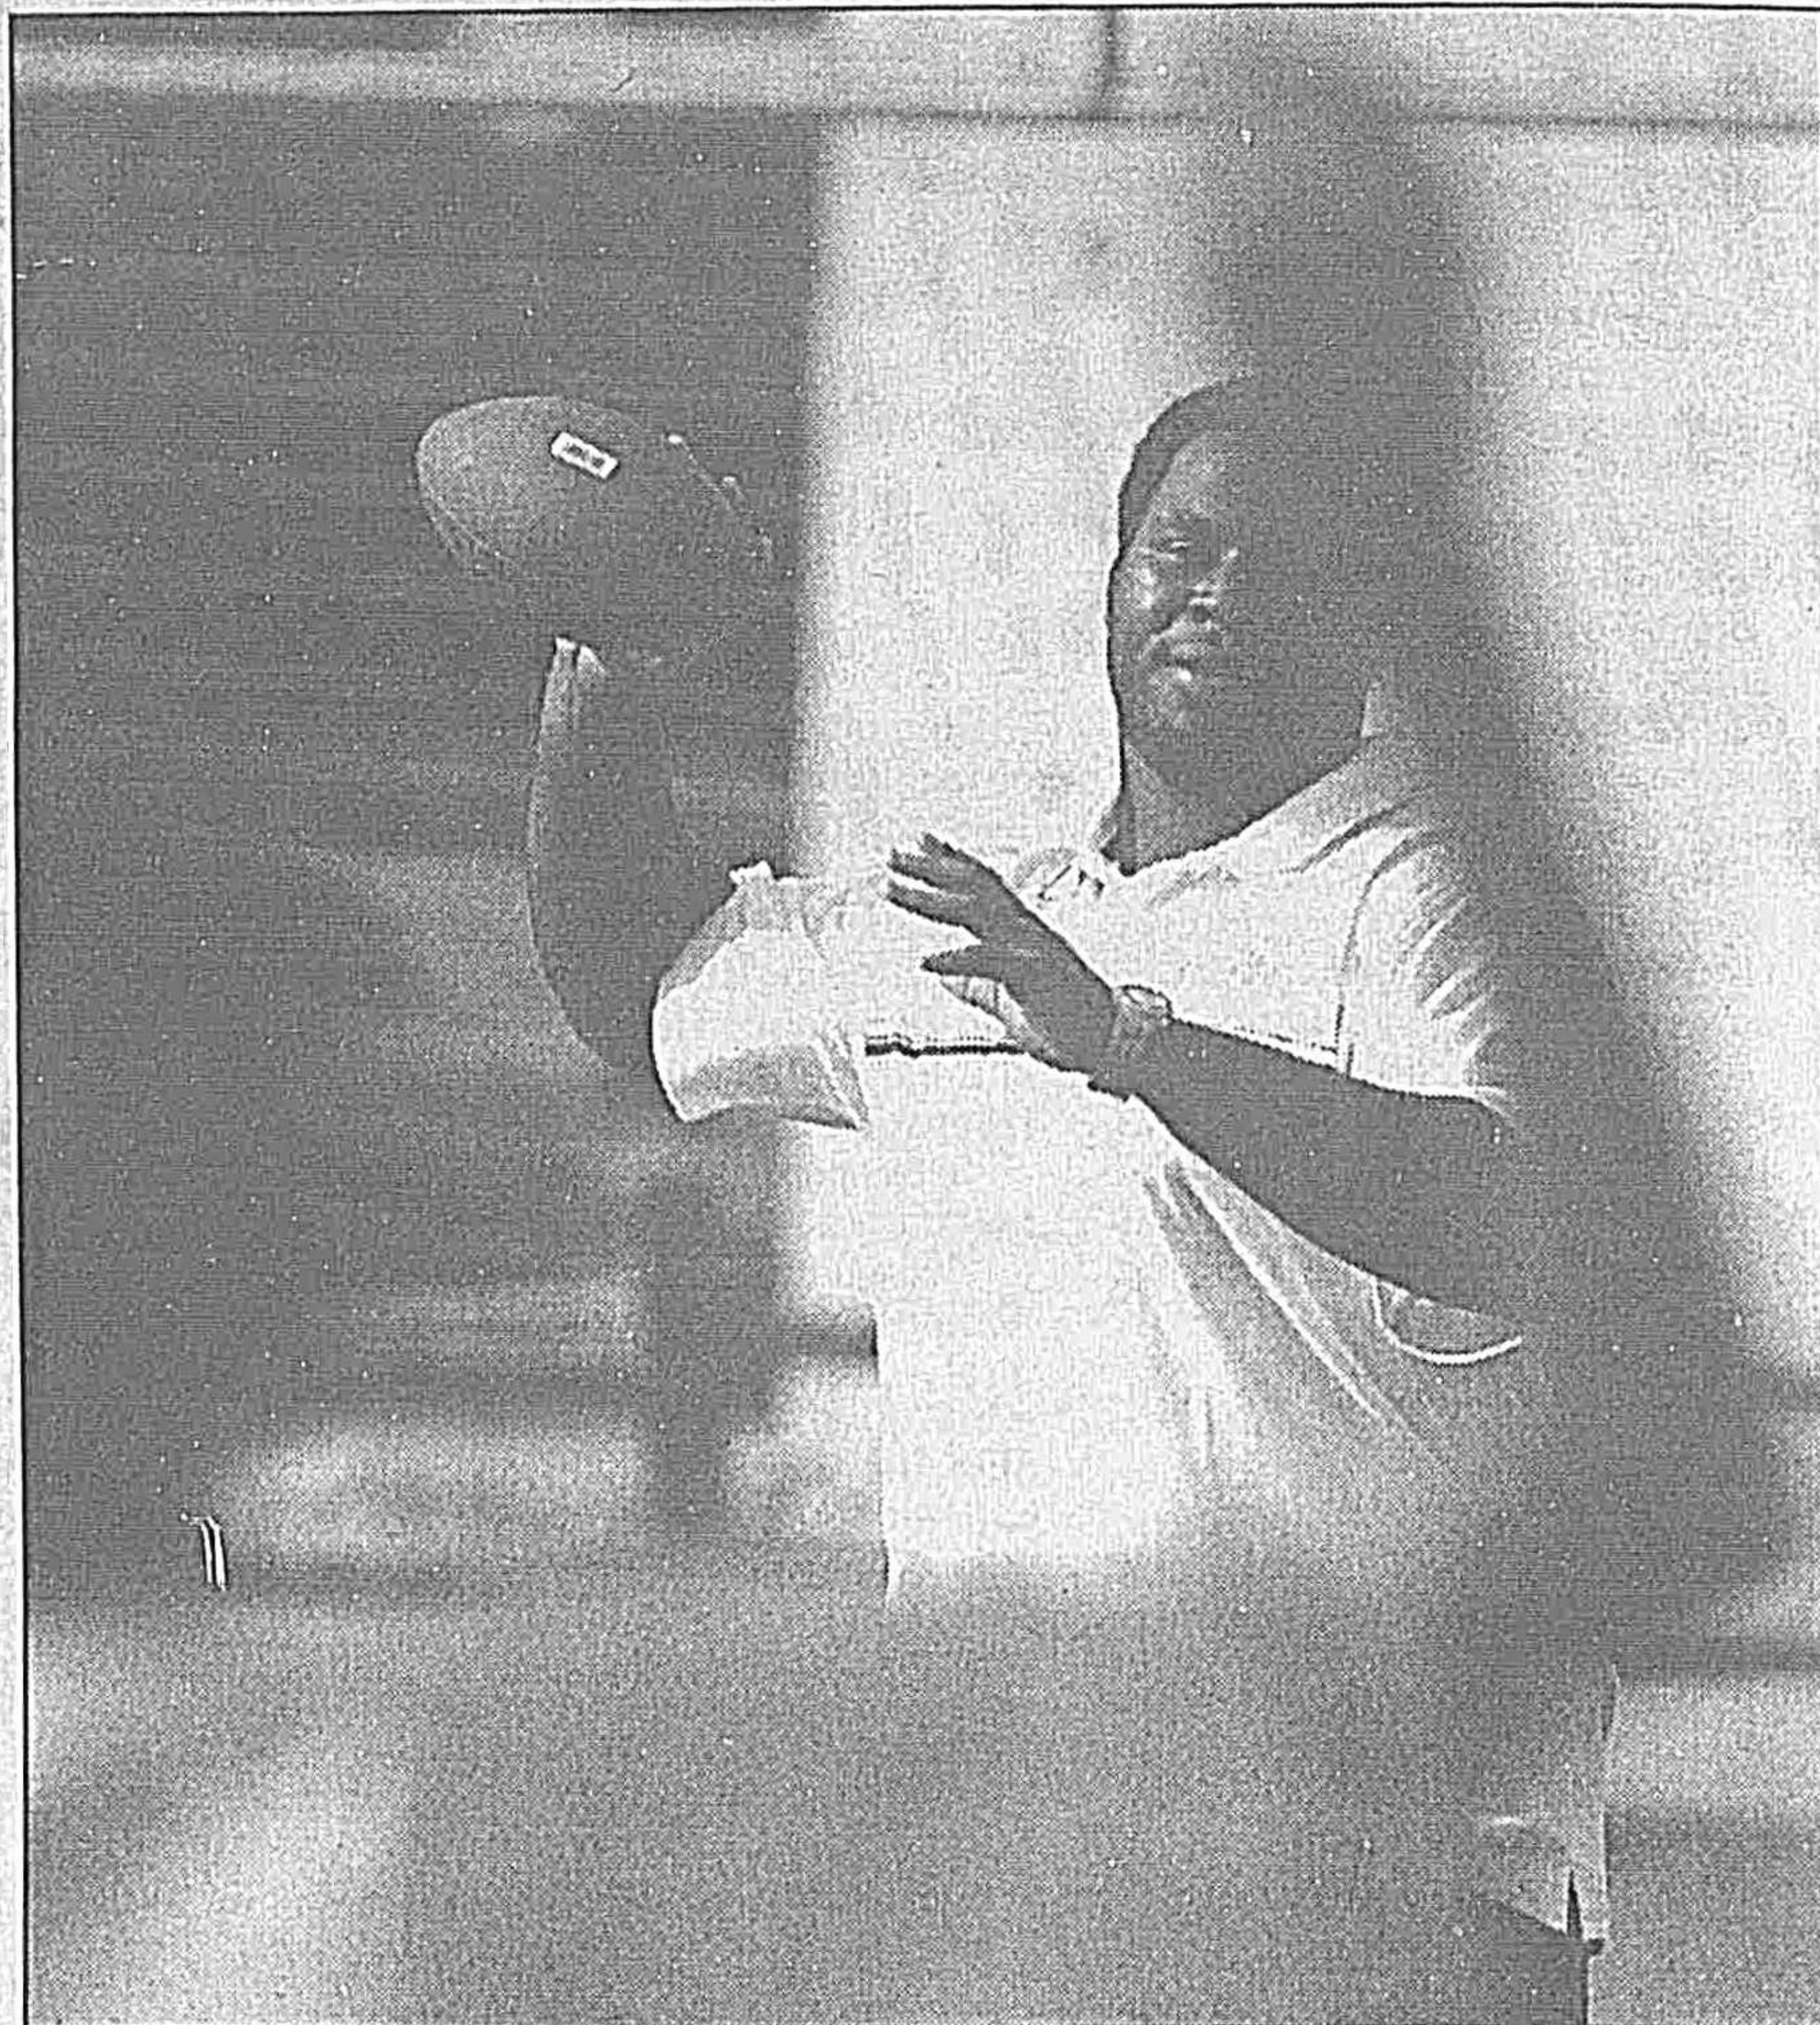

According to John Bostrum, director of community relations and promotions for the Bears, the Hometown Huddle program has been held for four years, with players spending a day at child-oriented social services organizations. He said the NFL has been involved with United Way projects for about 29 years.

Players' participation is entirely voluntary. "They do this on Tuesdays, their only day off," Bostrum noted.

This year there were three events held: one at Allendale, one in Wheaton for Big Brothers-Big Sisters and one in Chicago for Youth Outreach Services.

This was the second year in a row that Allendale was on the itinerary. Bostrum cited the desire of the Bears, based at Halas Hall in Lake Forest, to do something for children in Lake County.

"Every year the program is evaluated," Bostrum said, explaining it was too soon to know if the Bears would return to Allendale next year.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

No leadership

It is unfortunate for Antioch that the interests of a few have orchestrated our village board to follow their instructions.

The issue is not about agreeing with one point of view. It is about following procedure and abiding by the will of the residents—NOT the developers.

Even the county can't believe what has gone on in Antioch. Had we had someone like Mike Graham leading our village, the future for Antioch would be much brighter.

Frustration not apathy, causes residents to be disinterested in the political process. It is embarrassing to watch. The conduct of our elected officials and village staff. More time and questions are given to an ice cream truck and the skate park than to a multi-million dollar development.

No wonder residents believe this is all a "behind closed doors—done deal."

Leadership requires "The Right Stuff,"—ethical and moral conscience. Vision and legacy to leave something better for future generations. We have followers—Not leaders.

SCHOOL DIGEST

AUGS teachers lifelong learners

Antioch Upper Grade School 6th grade Social Studies teacher David Krueger completed the Teacher Preparation Program at Yale University. The focus of Mr. Krueger's study was on teaching about the cultures of East Asia and using technology to prepare student discovery.

In related news, AUGS teacher Christopher Bryant also studied at Yale University in New Haven, CT during the Summer of 2002, and is instructing on-line night classes about Asian Studies for this prestigious university. Antioch Upper Grade School is very proud of teachers modeling our philosophy of being lifelong learners.

Career Shadowing Day scheduled

The Antioch Rotary Club is sponsoring Career Shadowing Day in cooperation with business, education and government leaders as it has for the past several years.

On Nov. 12, juniors and seniors from Antioch Community High School will be invited to participate in the program.

Questions can be answered by John Hunt, vocational service director for the Antioch Rotary Club at 847-838-8401, or Phyllis Fay, assistant principal ACHS at 847-395-1421, ext. 7176.

1983 Classmates sought

Antioch Community High School class of 1983 is looking for classmates to organize and gather for the 20th class reunion.

A small committee is trying to get the word out by word-of-mouth and would appreciate any help it can get. Log on to www.classmates.com.

The reunion is scheduled for Aug. 9, 2003 at the Concorde Banquets in Kildeer, Ill.

An apple a day keeps the doctor away

The popular quote "an apple a day keeps the doctor away" dates back to the 19th century. An apple alone won't make you healthy but it is a step in the right direction. It is a great snack, low in calories, and a natural breath freshener. A medium size apple has 81 calories and is a good source of potassium, folic acid and vitamin C.

Apples are filled with fiber. The soluble fiber such as the pectin helps prevent cholesterol buildup. The insoluble fiber provides bulk in the intestinal tract aiding the digestive process. Eat apples with the peel on as almost half of the vitamin C content is just beneath the peel.

Local apple orchards

Oriole Springs Apple Orchard in Twin Lakes, Wisconsin has apple picking from 9 a.m.-5:30 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday only. This weekend they will have golden delicious and empire apples available. For directions and information call 262-877-2436.

Quig's Apple Orchard is located on the west side of Mundelein at Routes 60 and 83. Their orchard is open Saturday and Sunday from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. and Thursday and Friday from 10 a.m.-5 p.m. Quig's also has a wonderful restaurant and a gift shop on the premises. For more information, call 847-566-4520.

World's largest corn maze

Check out Richardson Farm in Spring Grove for a great family adventure. Their corn maze includes nine miles of trails, 20 acres of cornfields, varying challenge levels, three interconnecting mazes, and 21 bridges. Find the 20 checkpoints and solve the maze.

Snacks, drinks, a picnic area, group wagon rides, campfires, and pumpkins are also available. The maze is open through Oct. 31st and is located at 9407 Richardson Rd., off Route 173 west of Antioch. Their hours are Wednesday and Thursday 3-9 p.m., Friday 3-10 p.m., Saturday 10 a.m.-10 p.m., and Sunday noon-9 p.m. They are closed on Monday and Tuesday. The admission fees are $7.50 for adults, $5 for children and seniors, and children under five are free. For more information call 815-675-9729.

Free Museum Campus Days

The Chicago museum campus consists of The Field Museum, The Shedd Aquarium, and The Adler Planetarium. The free admission days are Mondays and Tuesdays from Sept. 23 - Dec. 24. This new program offers a very low cost opportunity for families and other visitors to enjoy all three of these fine museums.

The following activities are available at no cost on the free days:

- The Field Museum's basic admission ticket, which includes Sue the T. rex, Inside Ancient Egypt, and 35 other world-renowned exhibitions.

- Admission to the Shedd Aquarium's Amazon Rising, Caribbean Reef and Aquarium.

- Admission to the Adler Planetarium's state-of-the-art museum on modern space exploration and the history of astronomy.

Tickets need to be purchased for some features such as the Shedd's Oceanarium, the Field's specially-ticketed exhibitions, and the Adler's Sky Shows. Each museum has its own policies regarding free day fees for groups and school field trips.

Readers with information for "News-Worthy" should call Sharon Westbrook at 847-395-3079.

Bank holds FallFest open house

State Bank of The Lakes will be hosting a FallFest Open House at its Spring Grove facility from 10am to 1pm on Saturday, September 28, 2002.

Area residents are encouraged to visit the full-service bank to see the facility first-hand and meet the staff. As an enticement, visitors will be given coupons with special promotions on many of the bank's products and services.

Visitors will be offered free hot dogs, chips, cider, popcorn and taffy apples. Kids will enjoy a free petting zoo, moon walk, train rides, balloons, face painting, making Indian jewelry and visiting with a Scarecrow Clown.

The local fire department will be on hand with an engine. The Spring Grove Police Department will be taking instant photos of children for the KidCare Photo ID program in which parents will be provided with the photo and a blank ID to fill in with their child's vital statistics.

Additionally, visitors will also have the opportunity to open one of three treasure chests filled with cash prizes and gift certificates for area merchants. First prize is $1,000 cash!

Youngsters can also try their luck in opening a children's treasure chest to win a Sony Playstation II. McHenry radio station WZSR will be broadcasting live from the bank, handing out cash and prizes of their own.

"We have a great deal to offer the Richmond/Spring Grove community and felt that the FallFest Open House was a good way to invite people in without having to make any commitments," invites Mary Lou Toomey, Marketing Officer for State Bank of The Lakes.

State Bank of The Lakes is located west of Wilmet Road on Route 12, Spring Grove.

Not your mother's Health Ed Class

By DENYS BUCKSTEN
Staff Reporter

Classes include sex education (and abstinence); monitoring vitals; nutrition; substance abuse; drinking; smoking and body image.

Health Education. In years past, the description was simply a euphemism for sex education, and was accompanied by the tittering of students as they took their seats. And the titter factor got even worse after students embellished the course textbooks with graffiti.

And there's probably still some tittering going on in 2002.

One of the big challenges in health education, say teachers, is informing teenagers of facts, choices and consequences in an age of information overload.

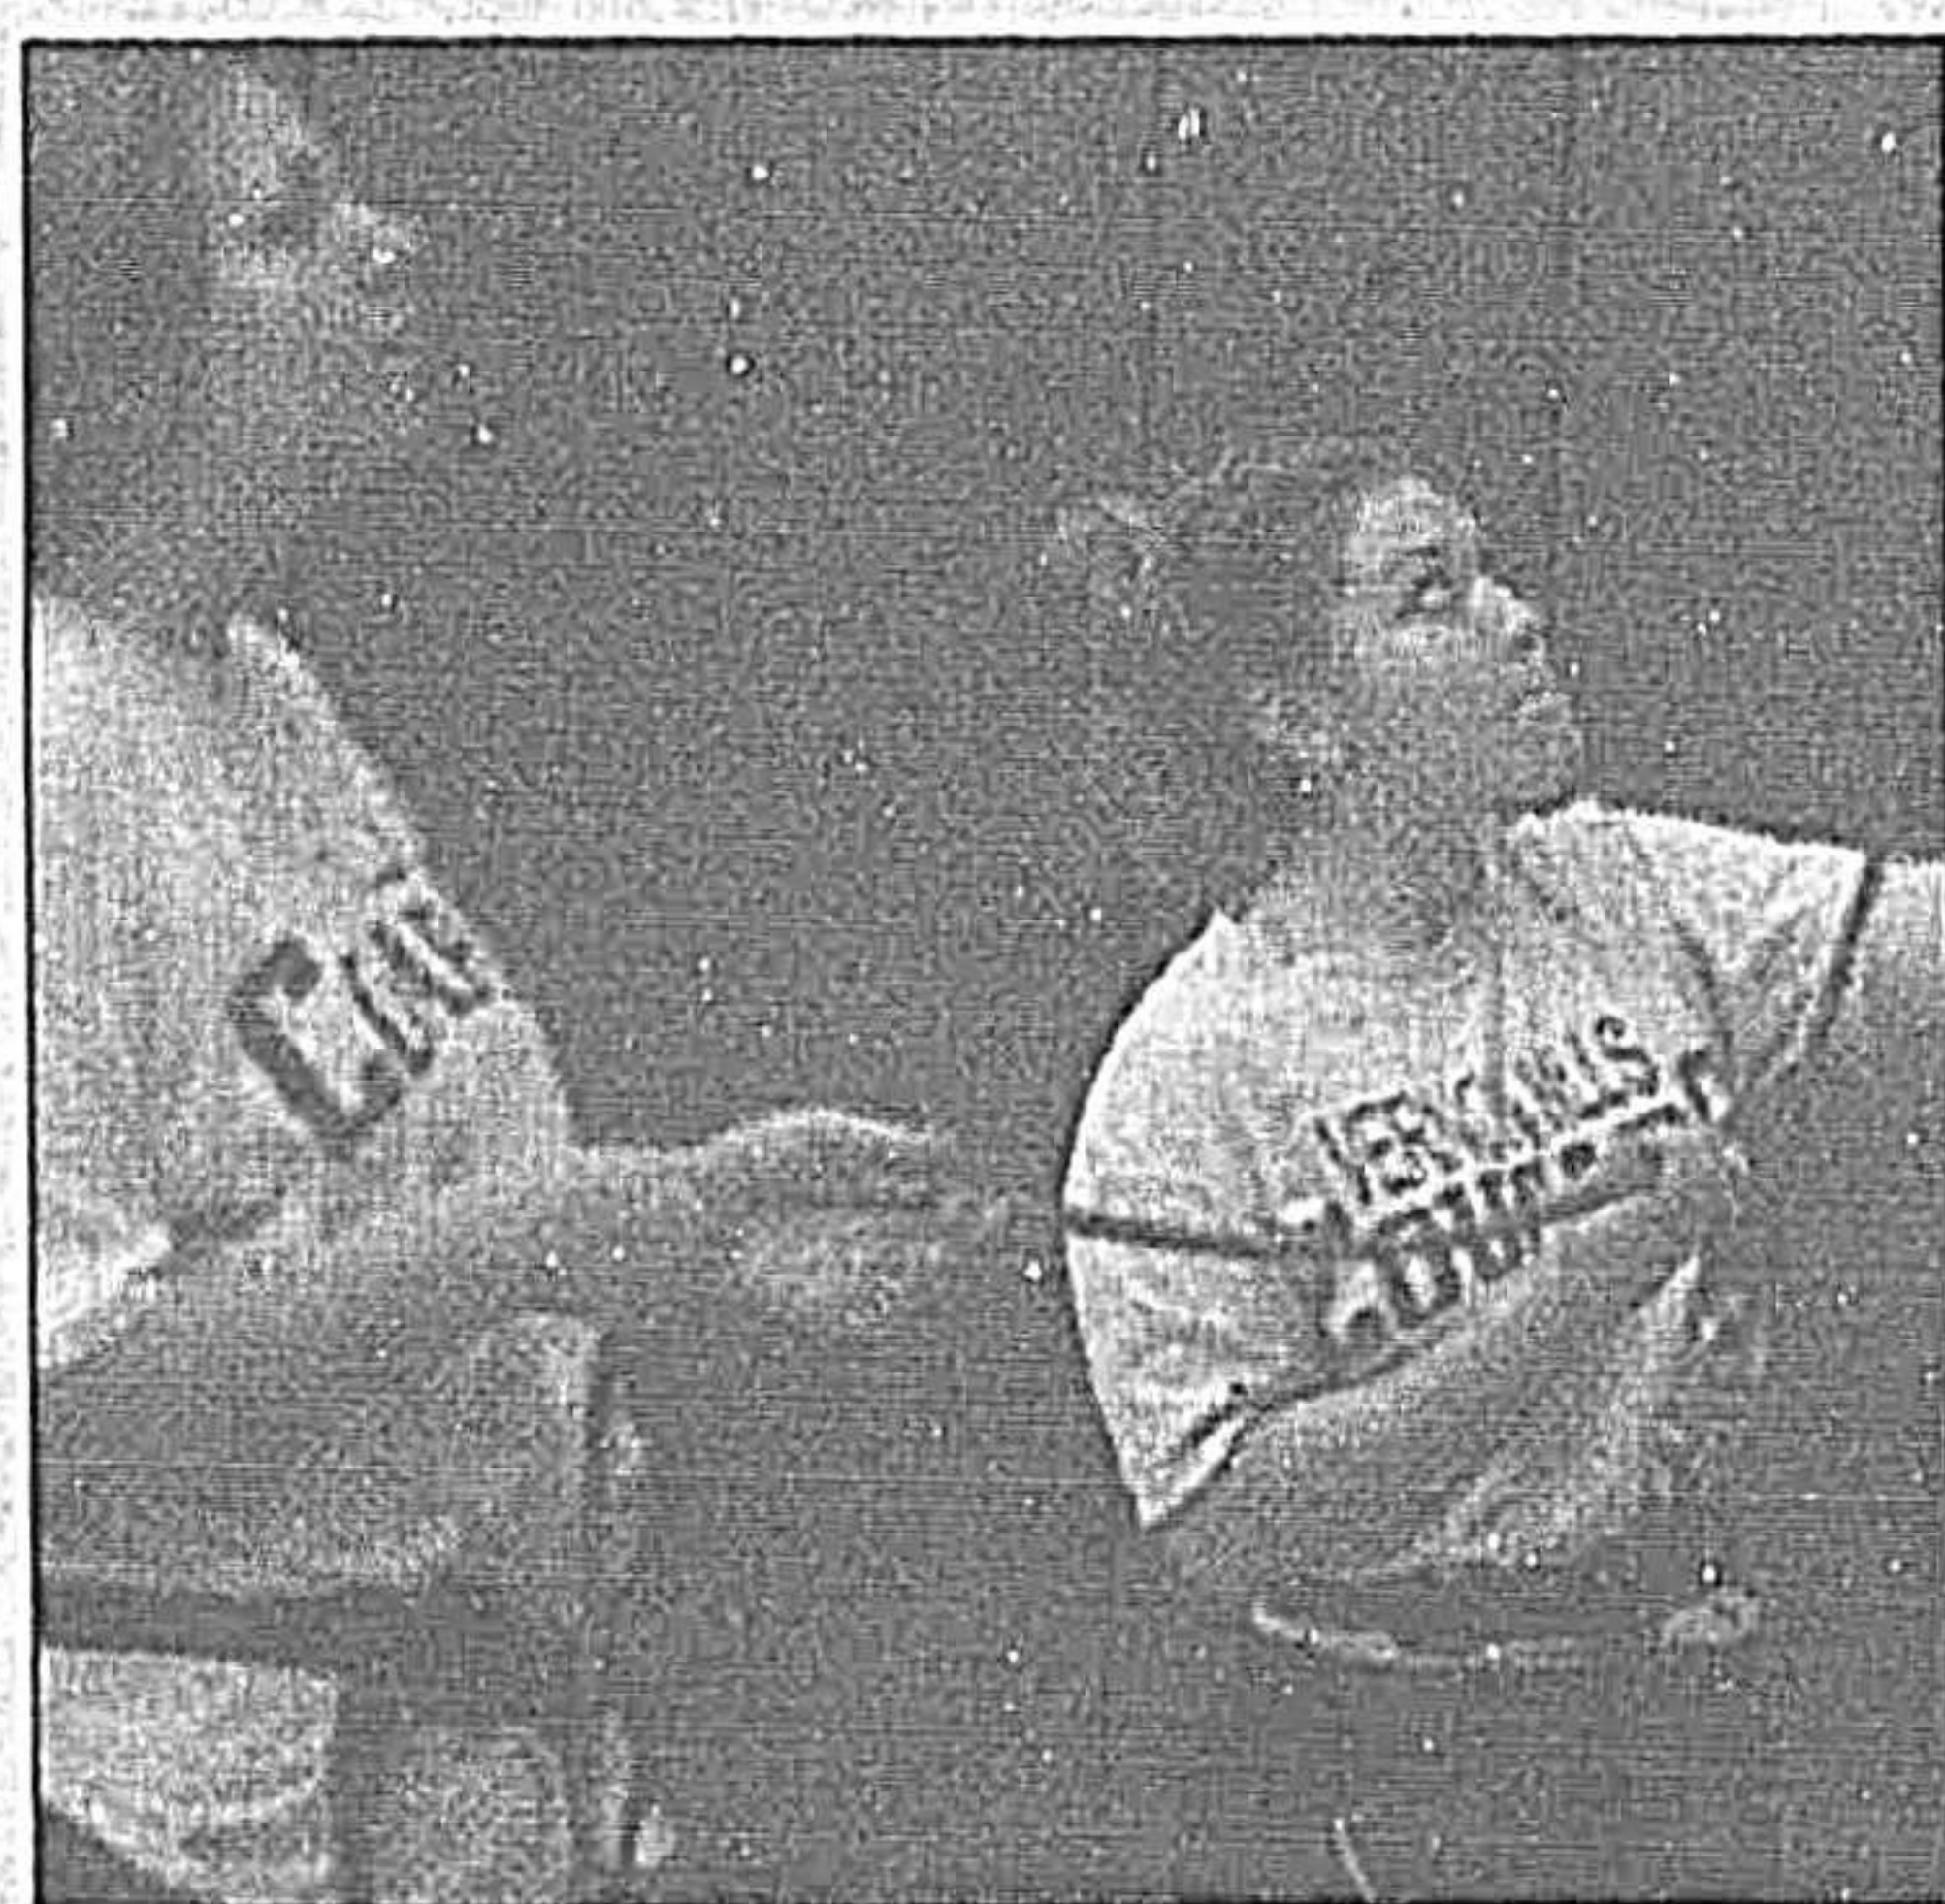

Students form their own views on topics like health, proper nutrition, sex, substance abuse and weight loss from their peers, older brothers and sisters, television, movies, magazines and the Internet.

At Antioch Community High School, health education comes knocking during the second half of the freshmen year.

Debbie Rummel, Chair of Physical Education, Health Education and Drivers Education, said "We have a really strong health program. We're educating kids about the dangers of smoking, alcohol and sex."

Rummel said staff has questioned students about peer pressure. "The biggest reasons kids (smoke, drink, have sex) is because their friends do. We ask them when they start and they say their friends told them to."

Second of 2 parts:

Editor's Note: This is the second in a two-part LakeLife series on physical education programs at randomly selected Lake County high schools in the Lakeland Newspapers circulation area. Part I focused on the range of PE activities; Part II focuses on health education.

Some girls smoke because they think it will keep their weight down."

The temptations alternate between smoking dope and drinking, Rummel added.

Statistics, say Rummel, indicate that nearly one in three high-school age students smoke cigarettes or pot. "But in asking kids, they say well over half."

Teaching the importance of the daily intake of water is backed up by new school policy, said Rummel, allowing students to carry water bottles and drink water in class.

Early indications at ACHS are that the students will not lose the new water policy by being sloppy. "We said that if we had water bottles sitting around the halls, we wouldn't do it," said Rummel. "So far, just starting the school year, the kids have been wonderful."

At Grant Community High School in Fox Lake, athletic director Frank Cittadino is Division Chair of Physical Education, Health Education and Drivers Education.

As part of the school's elite, CHAMPS group, an accelerated course for kids who really want to push themselves fitness-wise, the staff teaches students to monitor body fat, target

Hot cars, cool music, great food

Hundreds of classic cars and trucks, hot rods and vintage motorcycles. "Get your kicks on Route 66" at the International Route 66 Mother Road Festival, Sept. 27-29 in historic downtown Springfield.

Thousands of local, national and international visitors, including car and motorcycle clubs, will attend the festival that celebrates the Mother Road. Many will tour into Springfield on one of two Illinois Route 66 Cruises planned by the Illinois Route 66 Association.

Reserve tickets now for a night of croonin' and rockin' to Paul Revere & The Raiders, Bill Pinkney's Original Drifters and Herman's Hermits starring Peter Noone.

Arts and crafts booths, commercial and nostalgia exhibitors, a flea market and car-parts swap meet, in addition to dozens of specialty food and drink vendors, will be spread throughout the festival's 20-block site.

Feast on a smorgas-bord of literature and art at the Route 66 Authors & Artists Expo. These warriors of the Mother Road will be on hand to share their stories and their craft.

Visit the Kid's Lane for activities geared toward the little ones, including Hula Hoop and Pogo Stick contests, clowns, Matthew Duncan's One Man Circus and the New Orleans Street Puppets.

Got an old Route 66 highway shield or other Route 66 memorabilia? Find out what it's worth at the festival's own "Antiques Mother Road Show." Experts will offer free appraisals of Route 66 treasures.

CLC children's production to open Oct. 3

The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe," the College of Lake County theatre department's fall children's production, will open at 10 a.m. Oct. 3 in the Mainstage Theatre for the Performing Arts Building on the Grayslake Campus. The show will be repeated at 9 and 11 a.m. on Oct. 4; 2 p.m. and 7:30 p.m. on Oct. 5; and 2 p.m. on Oct. 6. The production is recommended for children 3 years and older.

Dramatized by Joesph Robinette from the story by C.S. Lewis, the show will explore the fantasy world of Narnia with four English school children. Upon stepping through a wardrobe during a game of hide-and-seek, they encounter an ice witch and the majestic Aslan, a lion who is the protector of the land of Narnia. This allegorical tale teaches honor, duty and belief in a spiritual world where no proof exists.

The CLC production is directed by Thomas B. Mitchell, theatre instructor. Tickets are $5 all seats. School group rates are available. Call 847-543-2300 for tickets.

Spoon River Scenic Drive celebrates its 35th Fall Festival

Spoon River Valley Scenic Drive's 35th Fall Festival will be held the first two weekends of October in Fulton County, Illinois, between Peoria and Macomb. The scenic route meanders past and through 17 villages/areas with lots of activities, free entertainment, displays, historic sites, demonstrations of old-time crafts and foods galore. Nearly 1000 vendors will have handmade crafts, antiques, collectibles, clothing, works of art, delicious treats and meals, and fresh country produce.

Program books will be available in each village information booth. These books are souvenirs of the 35th Fall Festival as well as a handy, attractive guide. For advance orders by mail, send $4 per book to cover shipping & costs to Spoon River Scenic Drive, Box 525, Canton, IL 61520.

For a quick information update of the Fall Festival and year-round events, check the web site at www.spoonriverdrive.org. The map and directions to get to western Illinois to start Spoon River Scenic Drive at any of the 17 villages can be found on the web site. Admission is free; entertainment is free; the experience is priceless in Spoon River Country.

Some special sights along the scenic route will be at Dickson Mounds Indian Museum. "Rendezvous At Spoon River" will be a live encampment of early traders and craftspeople on the museum grounds near the site where the first settlers came into Spoon River Country. They forded the Illinois River and Spoon River at Waterford. Now visitors will find there a beautiful apple orchard with lots of fresh produce, apple cider and pies, and an 1899 barn.

Other towns along the Spoon River Valley Scenic Drive are Lewistown (the county seat and fairgrounds), Duncan Mills, Ipava, Astoria, Bernadotte (only dam on Spoon River), Smithfield, Cuba, Fairview, Avon, London Mills, Ellisville, Middlegrove, Canton and Farmington (4 sites). Railroad buffs will enjoy several restored depots. This year there will be model railroads and a caboose for visitors to enjoy at the Narrow Gauge Depot.

Some people come to sample all the foods of the Fall Festival. There will be root beer, cider, slushes, apple & other fruit pies, apple dumplings, pippins, fritters, elephant ears, funnel cakes, various breads, jams, jellies, beef ribeye steaks, butterfly pork chops, chili and so much more to tempt the palate.

Events are on Saturdays and Sundays, October 5, 6, 12 and 13 in Fulton County, from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Each evening there will be vesper services with gospel music at 5 p.m. at Buckeye Church about three miles north of Smithfield.

For information or a brochure, call 309-647-8980, or visit the web site at www.spoonriverdrive.org.

GTC presents Shaw's comedy

Having carved a unique and intimate theatre space out of a former sporting goods store at Gurnee Mills Mall, The Gurnee Theatre Company (GTC) readies its fall mainstage production, George Bernard Shaw's "The Devil's Disciple," opening Oct. 3. The play runs Thursdays through Saturdays at 8 p.m. and Sundays at 3 p.m. during the month of October.

Shaw's classic story of rebellion, mistaken identity, passion, and virtue is set in 1777 New Hampshire amidst an escalating conflict between New England colonists and British Redcoats. Shaw injects humor, wit and satire into these historic events and gives a play rich with fun and excitement.

"The Devil's Disciple" is the company's second mainstage production, following its successful inaugural production of Moss Hart's comedy "Light Up the Sky" in April.

"The Devil's Disciple" is directed by GTC artistic director Mark Heller.

Tickets for "The Devil's Disciple" are $14 ($12.50 for students seniors and military). Group rates are available. Call 847-775-1950 for information and reservations.

Spicy hot Cajun band performs at Hemmens

The renowned Cajun band, BeauSoleil avec Michael Doucet, performs their spicy hot music at The Hemmens Cultural Center in Elgin, on Saturday, Sept. 28 at 8 p.m. "There ain't no cure for my blues today, except when the paper says BeauSoleil is coming into town," sings Mary Chapin-Carpenter on her hit "Down At The Twist And Shout."

Nominated for six Grammys for their spicy music, and recipient for their album "L'amour ou la Folie" (Love or Folly), the Louisiana-based BeauSoleil is hailed by critics and fans worldwide as America's premier Cajun band. "A Prairie Home Companion's" Garrison Keillor called them, "the best Cajun band in the world." With fiddles, Acadian accordions and singers, the festive, danceable Cajun music originated in the Louisiana bayous among descendants of French refugees from Nova Scotia. BeauSoleil took its name from the forced exile of Acadians that occurred in 1795: Joseph Broussard de BeauSoleil led the Acadian resistance.

BeauSoleil links the music of the bayous to country music, and throws into the cultural mix Celtic music, jazz, "swamp-pop" and New Orleans' rhythm and blues. This gumbo of traditional and contemporary influences by BeauSoleil can be heard on the sound tracks of such films as "The Big Easy" and "Belizaire The Cajun."

Tickets for this exciting opening concert of The Hemmens' 2002-2003 Performing Arts Season are $50 (Golden Circle); $28 (main floor) and $24 (balcony). Call The Hemmens' 24-Hour Charge-It Line 847-931-5900 or purchase tickets at The Hemmens Cultural Center in Elgin's downtown Civic Center. The Hemmens' Box Office hours are Monday through Friday 10 a.m.-4 p.m. and Saturday noon-4 p.m.

SPECIAL EVENT

See a rare, 13-star American flag dating to the centennial celebration of 1876, and learn history and evolution of the Stars and Stripes during a special exhibit now open at the Milwaukee Public Museum.

The exhibit, located on the Museum's ground floor, is part of the Museum's commemoration of the events of Sept. 11. It is free to the public and will be on display through mid-January 2003.

The exhibit's centerpiece is a large commemorative flag created between 1865-76 for the celebration of the United States centennial. It has 13 stars arrayed in five rows in the upper left-hand quadrant, and 13 alternating stripes of red and white. The alignment of the 13 horizontal stars will undoubtedly strike some as odd, as most representations of the 13-star flag show the star arranged in a circle pattern.

The circle pattern, however, is the subject of at least two historical fallacies: that the circle flag was created in June 1776 by Betsy Ross and George Washington and that it was used extensively in the American Revolution.

"The fact is there's really no evidence to prove that that particular flag existed prior to 1792," John B. Lundstrom, Museum curator of history, said.

In fact, most early American flags featured the horizontal star display. The ordering of the stars was left to the flag maker, as there was no specific design written into the Continental Congress resolution passed June, 14, 1777, officially setting the number of stars and stripes.

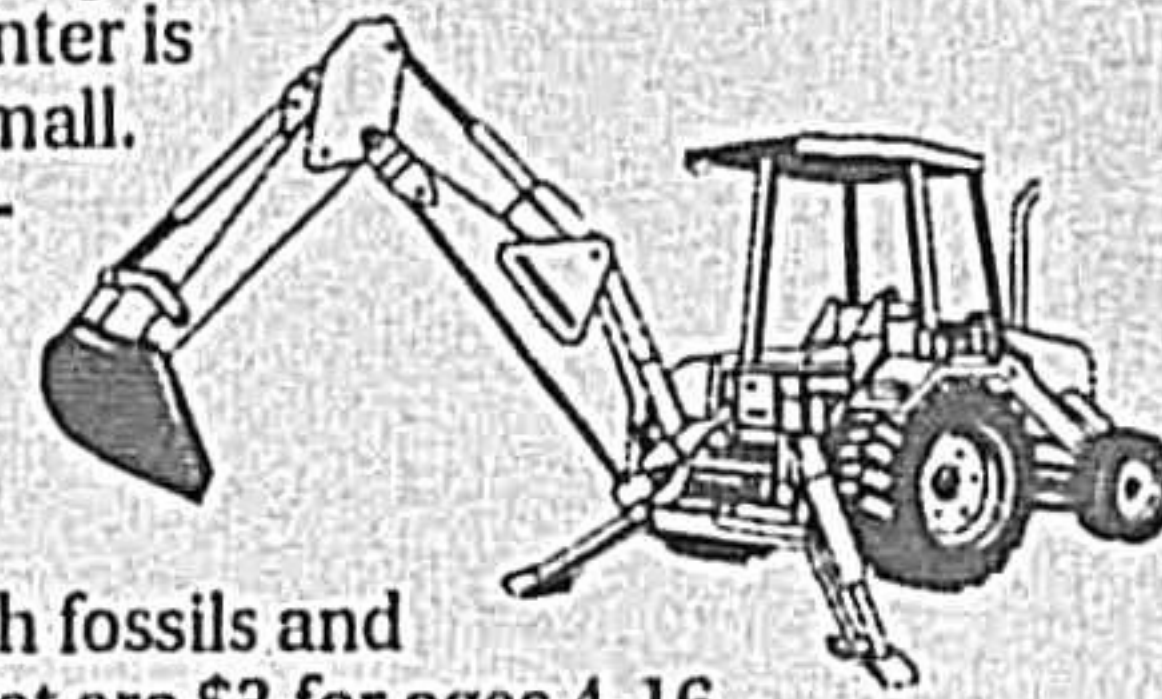

The Navy kept the 13-star flag alive as their ensign on their smaller boats until 1916. For more information, call 414-278-2702.

KIDS

Construction equipment

Pretzel City's Quarry Days will be held Sept. 28 from 9 a.m.-4 p.m., one-half mile east of Freepoint on U.S. 20. This unique and exciting family center is for kids big and small.

Kids will take control of real construction equipment, make concrete, build brick walls, examine fish fossils and pan for gold. Ticket are $3 for ages 4-16, $4 for ages 17 and over. Rain date is Sept. 29. For more information, call 1-800-369-2955.

It's magic

CONCERT

Piano classics

College of Lake County's veteran professor Tom Hoekstra will present an afternoon of piano classics at 4 p.m. Sept. 29 on the Studio Theatre of the Performing Arts Building on the Grayslake Campus. A music instructor at CLC for 21 years, Hoekstra's performance will convey the deep Russian sonorities of Rachmaninoff's "Preludes," the quiet serenity and dramatic wildness of Beethoven's "Moonlight Sonata" and the widely varied romantic moods of Chopin's piano music. Tickets are $10 per person. For information and tickets, call the box office at 847-543-2300.

GARDENING

Fall flowers

Join the McHenry County Conservation District for "Late Bloomers: The Flowers of Fall," as they enjoy the colors, fragrance and folklore of fall prairie flowers on Sept. 28 from 10:30 a.m.-noon at Lake in the Hills Fen, on Pyott Road in Lake of the Hills. This program is designed for adult audiences of high school age or older. For more information, call Prairieview Education Center, 815-479-5779.

Roadside flower sale

Chicago Botanic Garden, 1000 Lake Cook Rd. in Glencoe, will host a display and sale of natural, handmade arrangement, Oct. 4 from 10 a.m.-4 p.m. The sale showcases ideas on how to decorate indoors and make a gift from the garden's specially collected dried flowers, pods and grasses. More than 400 flower arrangements, wreaths, potpourris and candles will be available for purchase.

AUDITIONS

Enjoy singing?

The Village Singers, formerly known as the Ela Community Singers, is open to all area singers age 13 and over. Rehearsals are held every Monday evening at 7:30 p.m. at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Old McHenry Rd. in Lake Zurich. For further information, call 847-726-2011.

SENIORS

More to learn

Genealogy, art, music appreciation, financial management, computer basics, yoga and Chicago tours are just a sample of topics offered provided by the College of Lake County's fall Discovery program for adults ages 50 and over. Classes are offered from September-December. Most classes are held weekdays at CLC's Southlake Educational Center, 1120 S. Milwaukee Ave. in Vernon Hills. For information about Discovery classes and to receive a brochure, call 847-543-6503.

WALKS

Walk for literacy

Literacy Volunteers of Lake County's annual Walk for Literacy registration forms are currently available for interested participants. The fund-raiser is set to begin at 8:30 a.m. on Sept. 28 and will be held at Van Patten Woods near Zion. A minimum pledge of $10 is required to participate. With each $10 raised, walkers receive a raffle ticket entitling them to win various prizes. For more information, call 847-543-2024.

2002 Grammy nominee performing at Stevenson

Grammy Award nominee Kurt Elling will kick off the Stevenson High School Community Foundation's Spotlight on Stevenson Performing Arts Series at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Sept. 28 in the Performing Arts Center. He will be joined by the Laurence Hobgood Trio.

Elling's latest CD, "Flirting With Twilight," received two Grammy nominations, including one for best jazz vocal album. Each of his five albums have earned Grammy nominations. Elling, whom jazz legend Artie Shaw said is "arguably the most interesting and innovative jazz singer to come along in years," was also named best male vocalist in this year's "Down Beat" magazine critic's poll.

Joining Elling on the Spotlight series roster this year will be the Maxwell Street Klezmer Band and American English.

The Maxwell Street Klezmer Band unleashes its high-energy, big-band take on traditional Yiddish folk songs at 7:30 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 25. American English, considered the world's best Beatles tribute band, takes the stage Sunday, April 13 at 5 p.m.

Series subscriptions cost $45 for adults and $30 for students and senior citizens.

Individual tickets for the Kurt Elling concert, which will be available Sept. 1, are $25 for adults and $15 for students and senior citizens. Individual tickets for the Maxwell Street Klezmer Band and American English go on sale Oct. 1.

To order tickets, or for more information, call 847-634-4000, ext. 1882.

Evening to remember

PT Cruiser owners head for the Windy City

Thousands of Chrysler PT Cruiser owners and their families from across the Midwest will cruise to the Chicago area in September to share a day of wild rides, live musical entertainment and, of course, cars. "The Chrysler PT Cruiser Block Party" is free of charge to PT Cruiser owners and takes place at Six Flags Great America in Gurnee, on Saturday, Sept. 28.

"The PT Block Party is a unique event celebrating a unique vehicle. We wanted to capture the enthusiasm and passion that people share for the Chrysler PT Cruiser," Tom Marinelli, Vice President-Chrysler Marketing said.

The PT Block Party gives people a preview of concept PT Cruisers and a chance to experience the performance and capabilities of the full Chrysler lineup of vehicles. Before and after they take a spin on the rides inside the park, attendees can drive any of several Chrysler vehicles on designed driving courses located in the front of the park.

The newest member of the Chrysler PT Cruiser family due out this fall, the 2003 PT Turbo, is available in some dealerships right now, and it will be among the cars available to drive throughout the day.

The PT Block Party will capture the nostalgic images and sounds from the 1950s and 1960s. The day's events will include an outdoor musical extravaganza and fireworks finale. The concert's festivities will be emceed by Casey Kasem, the nationally recognized radio personality and host of the long-running countdown program "American Top 40 with Casey Kasem."

A special customization area, called the "Speed Shop," will highlight the numerous ways to customize the Chrysler PT Cruiser. Representatives from professional aftermarket accessories companies will hold workshops and perform demonstrations to show PT Cruiser owners how to individualize their own engines, grilles, hoods, headlights and taillights.

In addition to the driving courses and customization demonstrations, owners may attend special roundtables with the engineers and designers who created the PT Cruiser. Roundtable participants will have a chance to ask vehicle questions, share ideas and viewpoints, as well as hear how other owners use their vehicles and what they've done to customize them.

Those interested in attending or learning more about the PT Block Party should call 1-800-Chrysler.

Internationally known Christian artist and singer performs Oct. 4

Annie Herring, former lead singer for the legendary music group "2nd Chapter of Acts," will be performing a special concert on Friday, Oct. 4 at 7:30 p.m.

The concert is to be held at the McHenry High School West Campus Auditorium, 4724 W. Crystal Lake Rd. in McHenry.

With over 30 years in her professional Christian music career, Herring has recorded 23 albums. Her career began in the early '70s as the leader of the Gospel Music Hall of Fame Award-winning singing group "2nd Chapter of Acts" and has continued through the '90s singing solo concerts.

Herring's music style is inspirational and is said to reach deep to the heart and stir the soul.

Admission is $3. Tickets may be purchased at First Baptist Church of McHenry, 509 N. Front St. (Route 31) in McHenry. For more information, call 815-385-0083.

CLC informational meeting on Europe study

An information meeting will be held Oct. 1 to discuss the College of Lake County's humanities study course to Scandinavia and St. Petersburg May 19-June 3, 2003. The meeting will be held at 6 p.m. in Room D-106 at the Grayslake Campus.

Students can earn three credit hours in HUM 124 - Regional and International Studies in the Humanities. The tour, titled "Pilgrimage to the Hermitage: Scandinavia and St. Petersburg," will explore the capital cities of Scandinavia and its environs: Copenhagen, Oslo, Stockholm, Helsinki, Tallin and the Venice of the north, St. Petersburg, Russia.

The estimated cost of the trip is $2,950, which does not include CLC tuition and fees. For information, contact Bob Lossmann at 847-543-2436 or email lossmann@clcillinois.edu.

HEALTH ED

heart rates, muscle gain and weight loss.

In addition to the CHAMPS track workouts, cardio and weight room training, Grant students learn how to use calipers to measure body fat, and wear heart monitors to integrate data into their fitness programs.

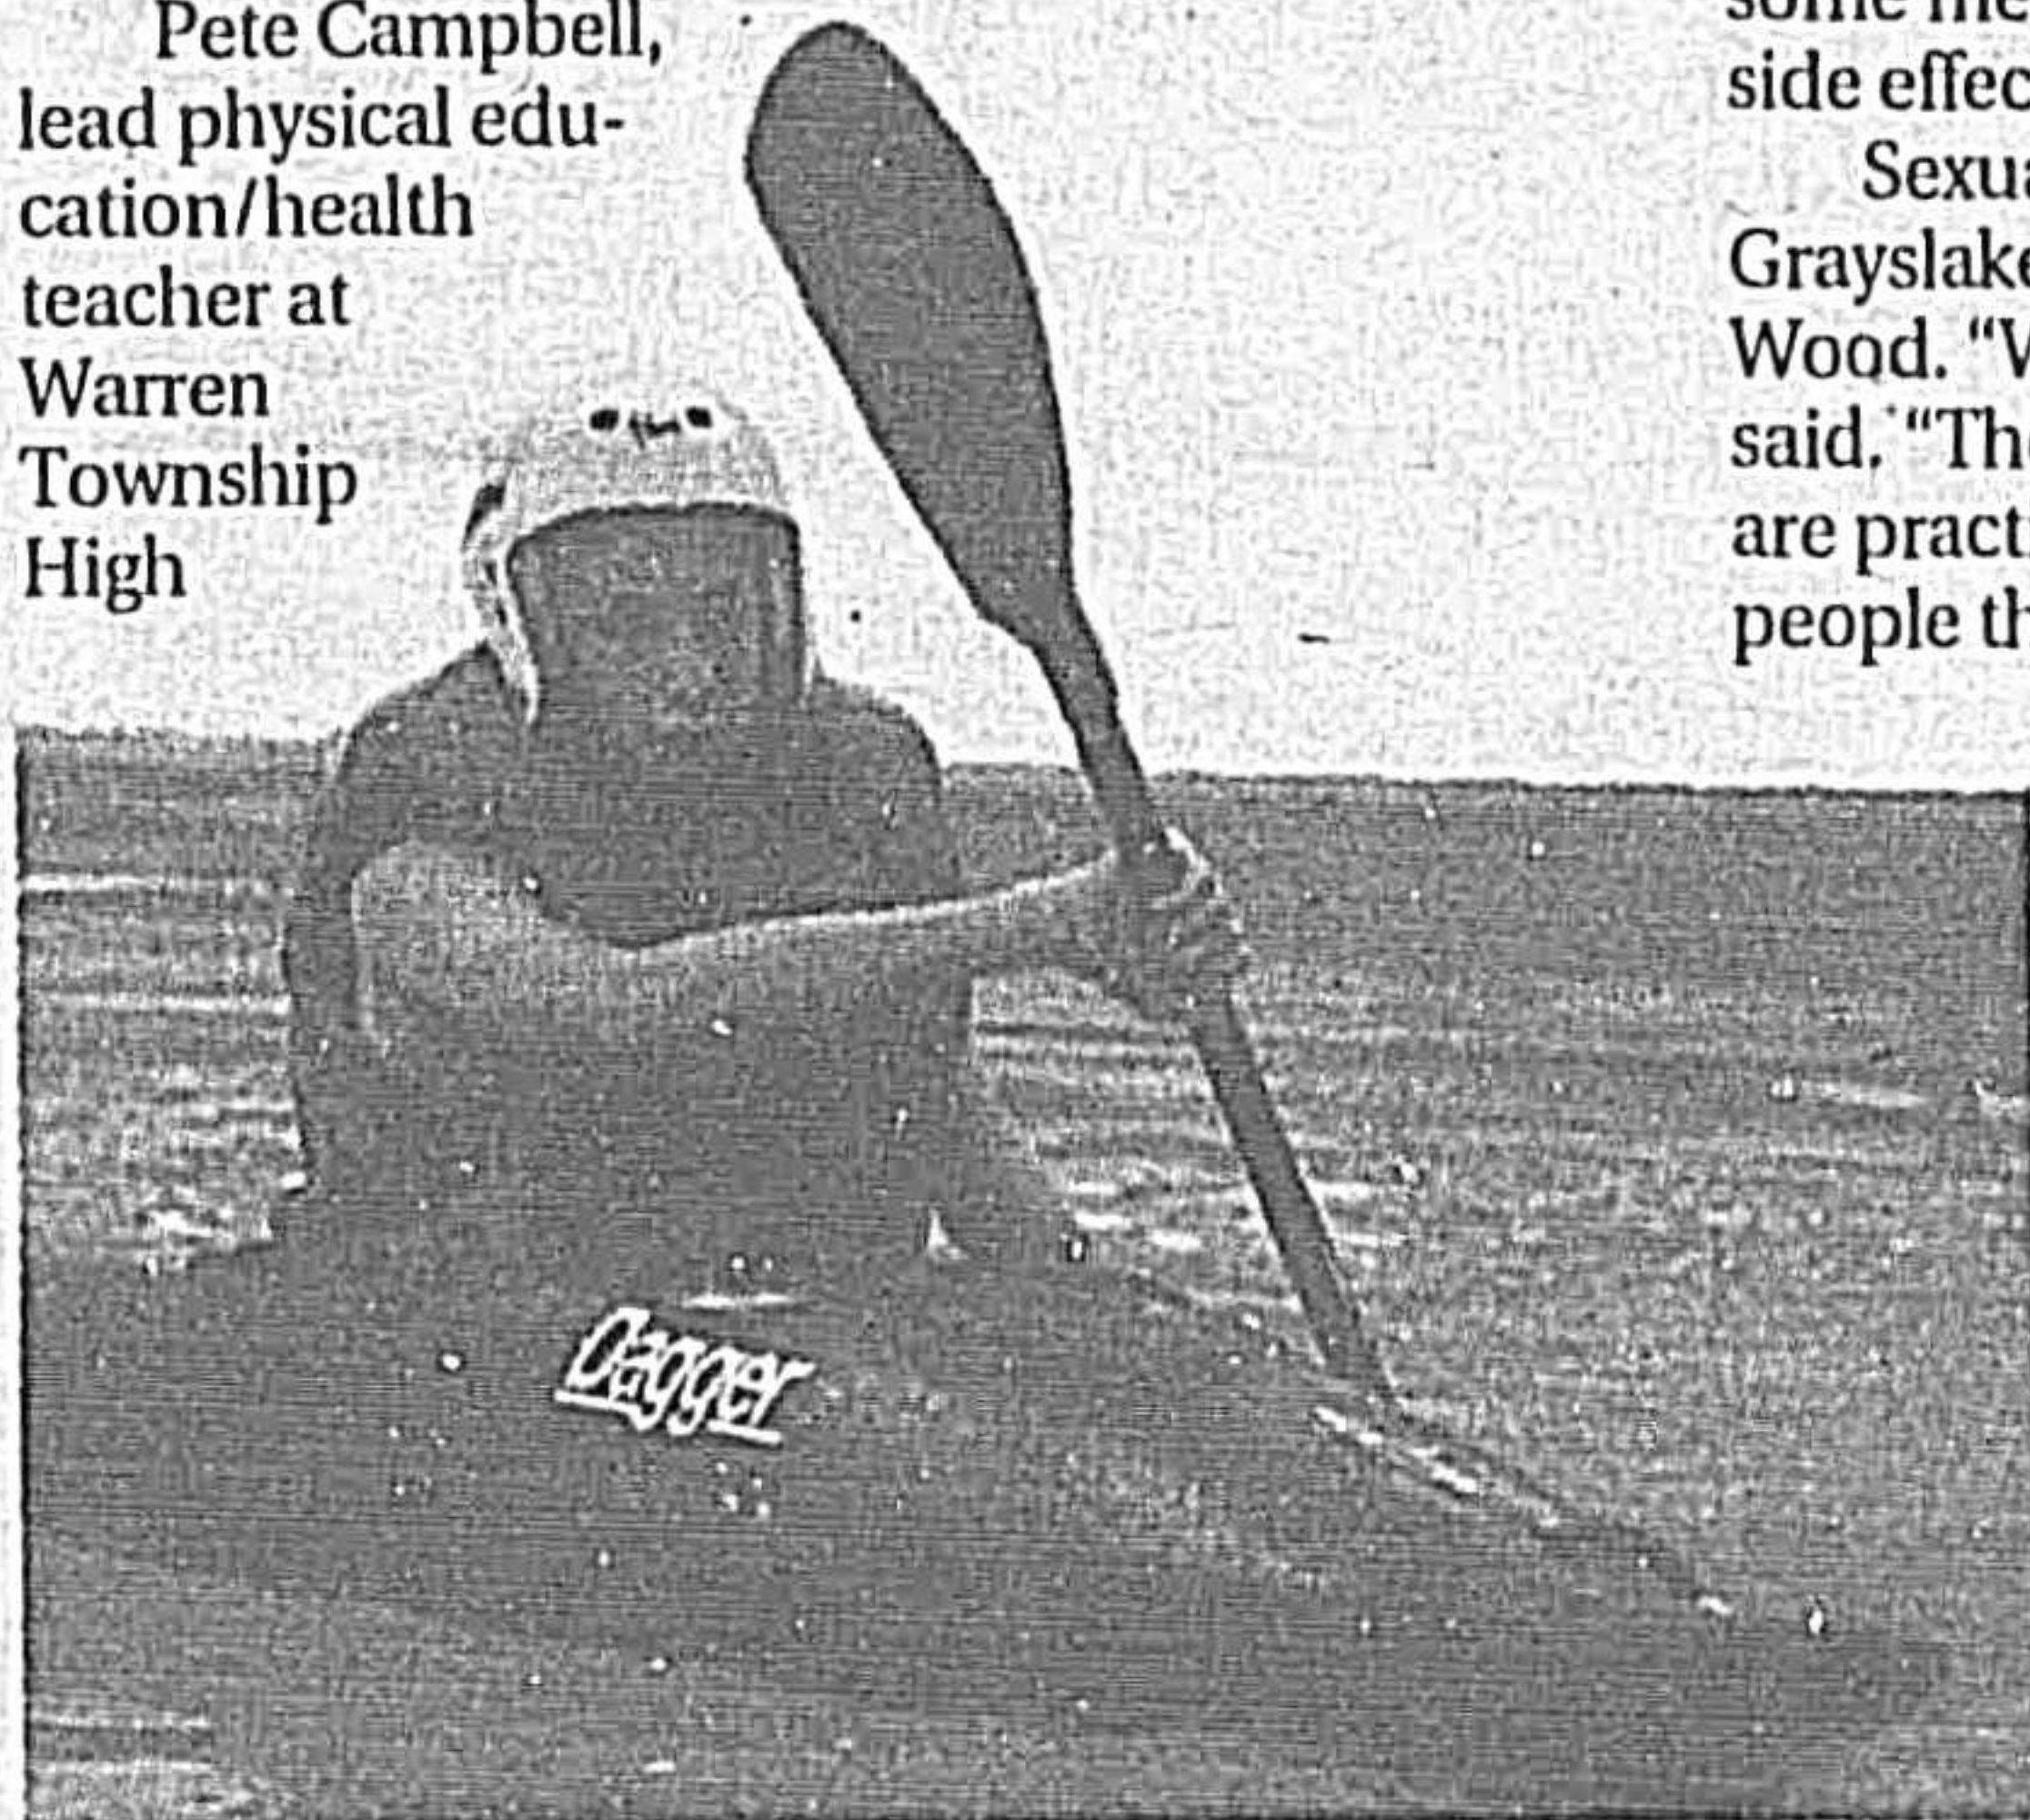

"We're trying to teach kids life-long skills to take with them," said Cittadino. "We want them to learn how to monitor their heart rates, count calorie intake and maintain proper health and nutrition."

"Obesity problems start when kids are very young," Cittadino allowed, and the high school PE programs are often playing a game of catch up to get students back on a healthy track.

Art Campbell, Division Supervisor PE, Health and Driver's Ed at Mundelein High School, said he's seen parental support come around as awareness of adolescent fitness, wellness and health issues increases.

"I used to get calls from parents asking why PE counts toward the GPA. I would tell parents that PE is just as important as math or music. Getting the PE grade integrated into the GPA was one of my first goals when I took over in 1985. Now that we have a total concept of wellness, I don't get those calls anymore."

Pete Campbell, lead physical education/health teacher at Warren Township High School's Almond Road Campus, said the most satisfaction he receives is when a former student, especially a non-athlete or a person who had body image issues, carries on after high school with athletic, nutrition, health lessons and discipline learned at school.

"When you're talking about these people, basically non-athletes, we had one girl who ran in a marathon after high school. And one (of the) girls is a physical therapy trainer."

Steve Wood, Department Head of Life Fitness at Grayslake Community High School, said, "Our health program is comprehensive. We deal with everything from nutrition to substance abuse to body systems, mental health and sex education."

Wood said sex education and substance abuse are, "at the same time the hardest to teach, and the easiest to teach. In both areas they're the most attentive when it comes to learning, but (the topics) are so out there in the public, whether it's TV or movies, or something they hear or see every day."

"The hard part is they want to learn it, but they're used to learning about these things through the media."

With a topic like substance abuse, said Wood, "we look at all substance abuse from both angles. A lot of substances have a beneficial side, whether it's prescription or over-the-counter medications. Even marijuana has some medical uses; it's used to counter the side effects of radiation."

Sexual abstinence is out in the open in Grayslake's Health Education classes, said Wood. "Without a doubt, we talk about it," he said. "There's no way to know how many kids are practicing it, but it may be a lot more than people think."

"Abstinence," he added, "is the only 100 percent protection when it comes to STDs, pregnancies, everything."

Classic Car Rally is celebrating 25 years

The Silver Anniversary is the theme for the 25th Annual Lake Geneva Classic Car Rally. Hundreds of classic and special interest vehicles will converge on the Lake Geneva, Wis., area for the annual Lake Geneva fall event held on Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 28 and 29.

Originating in 1978 as a local automobile event to commemorate and remember their infant daughter, Corinne, the Lake Geneva Classic Car Rally was founded by George and Janice Kreissl of Lake Geneva. The glorified automobile event has become an event of its own in the Lake Geneva area. The annual Rally benefits the American Cancer Society's childhood cancer research in memory of Corinne Kreissl.

Ranking with the most popular of local events the weekend-long excursion runs from Friday evening to late Sunday afternoon and covers a variety of activities. Beginning with the "Taste of the Car Rally at Richardson's" on Friday evening and continuing on Saturday with the "Up Close and Personal Vehicle Encounter" at the lake-front, events also include a parade through Lake Geneva and a hospitality hour at the Interlaken Chalet. A wood boat show and antique outboard motor display at the Abbey Resort is one of the many stops on the weekend long poker run along with a tour of the famous Lake Geneva landmark, Yerkes Observatory in Williams Bay, followed by Eddie Cash at the Wild Mushroom east of Lake Geneva. Saturday evening the Hubcap Runningboard Dance will feature Jack Farina's big swing band at the legendary Riviera Ballroom on the lake until midnight.

Sunday, as dealing around the lake continues, registration for the lake tour runs to 11 a.m., when completed tour vehicles start getting ready for the Grand Car Show Finale. The silent auction will be taking place while the Kids Clown Show is underway near the Chalet and the Liflight flyover by WWII and classic aircraft shows up around 2 p.m. Prizes and plaques will be awarded after the flyover to conclude the weekend.

To date $401,003 has been raised for the American Cancer Society through a grant known as the Corinne Kreissl Memorial Foundation Grant for Childhood Cancer Research. The host site, Interlaken Resort and Country Spa, will provide the starting and finishing point for the two-day event. Registration will be at the Chalet and the Grand Car Show Finale also takes place on the grounds among the acres of parking.

Registration is on Saturday from 11:30 a.m.-6 p.m. and on Sunday from 8-11 a.m. At 2:30 p.m. on Sunday, prizes, trophies, consolation prizes and dash plaques to participants will be awarded as well as many door prizes from area businesses. Souvenir badges will be sold on the grounds all weekend for a $2 donation, but admission to the event is free.

Participants in the Rally can register by mail by contacting the Corinne Kreissl Memorial Foundation, Inc., P.O. Box 732, Lake Geneva WI 53147. Registration forms are also available at the Geneva Lake Area Chamber of Commerce and at all participating locations. For dance reservations or additional information call 262-248-2764.

A real adventure

Over 15,000 men, women and children participated in the recreation of the battle of Antietam, which is featured in "Mark Twain's America."

Director Stephen Low reveals that he decided to do a film about Mark Twain because, "Twain lived through and wrote about all the great things of the human experience of the 19th century," the "...amazing depths of the history of the United States that included slavery, the Civil War, the Industrial Revolution and ... the western frontier." All this is wondrously set forth in the 3-D, IMAX production, "Mark Twain's America."

We visit Twain's hometown of Hannibal, Missouri, where each Fourth of July marching bands a few years, until the Civil War stopped the boat traffic. His pseudonym, Mark Twain (he was born Samuel Clemens), is a riverboat term meaning two fathoms deep.

The film highlights Twain's travels from Missouri to Virginia City, Nevada, where he began a newspaper career. Later he traveled to California, Europe and the Middle East, and eventually he settled in New York and Connecticut, chronicling his adventures all the way.

Photographs of Twain and his wife Olivia Langdon, as well as their three daughters and one son (who died at age two) are scattered generously throughout this lovely film. The rambling, comfortable home they shared in Connecticut stands right before us, completely restored, and the magic of 3-D makes us want to reach out and pick up the teacup on the beautiful table. Tragedy marked Twain's life; his wife Olivia and two of their daughters all died before Twain.

Real people, not actors, bring us close to what Mark Twain would have experienced. A Civil War reenactment of the Battle of Antietam, Maryland, staged each year, and a gospel choir in Montreal, made up of descendants of slaves who escaped to Canada via the Underground Railroad, lend an authenticity to the film.

Stephen Low's vision for "Mark Twain": "The film takes the audience on a journey over two centuries through the human spirit and soul." Playing through Dec. 24 at Cinemark IMAX Theatre, Woodridge; 6500 Route 53, 630-434-2629.

Films to see this fall

Movie lovers may mourn the end of summer, but will rejoice because they know that the better Hollywood movies are on the way. Art house films and independent producers tend to bring audiences high quality goods on a consistent basis, but other than Tom Hanks in "Road to Perdition," most things introduced by Hollywood over the summer are quite forgettable. This is not necessarily a bad thing. Every movie does not have to be a work of art to be enjoyable and worthwhile.

Between now and Thanksgiving, more than 25 films will be released. Many feature well known actors that the studios hope will generate good word of mouth—like, this summer's long-running hit "My Big Fat Greek Wedding"—as we move into peak Oscar season.

"My Big Fat Greek Wedding"

More important than who or what deserves an Academy Award is the mix of films, with interesting stories that are well acted. For some that means great entertainment, and for a few, even enlightenment. For humor, expect to enjoy yourself with Reese Witherspoon in "Sweet Home Alabama." There are more laughs in this trailer than most movies. "The Tuxedo" should be fun with Jackie Chan, Jennifer Love Hewitt and James Brown. Get some chick-flick time with Goldie Hawn and Susan Sarandon in "The Banger Sisters." "Ballistic: Ecks vs. Sever" and "Die Another Day," the James Bond picture, promise lots of action.

For those with an appetite for

Are You Looking For Something To Do?

See this Section Every Week

"The Ring"

the strange, Hannibal returns in "Red Dragon." Promising to be scary, with a touch of class, is Naomi Watts in "The Ring." On the artsy side, Michael Moore's film about guns in America, "Bowling for Columbine," and "Biggie & Tupac" could give documentaries the recognition they deserve. Teenage girls should like "White Oleander" and "Tuck Everlasting." A true art house film that promises to be a break through role for Salma Hayek is "Frida," about Mexican painter Frida Kahlo.

Winding up the fall season is "Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets" and "Die Another Day." With Harry Potter and James Bond in theaters, we know it's time to head into the holidays. Remember, if there is something you are interested in seeing that is not playing at the local multiplex, rush to see it at your favorite art house theater. That allows you the choice that everyone says they want—an alternative to formulaic Hollywood movies. Independent films almost always have little to no marketing dollars, so the fact that you don't see them on billboards and in TV ads is not a bad thing.

The good news is that there are plenty of high quality films to see. The bad news is that there are plenty of high quality films to see. Such a nice problem to have.

NEW RELEASES

These films are currently playing at local theaters. More reviews of these and other films can be found under Current Movie Reviews and Future Films at www.reelmovie-critic.com.

Opening this Week

Biggie & Tupac: This played to sold-out, extra added shows at the Black Harvest Film Festival at the Gene Siskel Film Center last August. The documentary deals with such a controversial subject, who really killed Notorious B.I.G. and Tupac Shakur, rumors were that it would never get distribution. It has and it's a must-see movie.

Moonlight Mile: Inspired by the 1989 stalker murder of actress Rebecca Schaeffer, this film shows that there can be humor in the midst of considerable grief. A boyfriend (Jake Gyllenhaal) and parents Susan Sarandon and Dustin Hoffman learn to survive. Holly Hunter costars.

Secretary ★★★ Ex-mental patient Maggie Gyllenhaal becomes a sex slave to her job, assisting lawyer James Spader. Adapted from a 1998 short story titled "Hit Me," this is a twisted comedy about two fractured people trying to live lives, possibly together, clear of undue pain.

Sweet Home Alabama: Reese Witherspoon returns to Alabama from her fashion designer position in New York. She's there to talk her unsophisticated husband from whom she has long been separated into a divorce. She has a new love up north and when she realizes that both men are really great guys, she has to decide who's the chosen one. Patrick Dempsey, Josh Lucas, Ethan Embry.

The Tuxedo: Jackie Chan in a non-martial arts movie!? Even without that, expect plenty of antics as he teams up with Jennifer Love Hewitt and James "I Feel Good" Brown.

Still Playing

The Banger Sisters: Teenage daughters are shocked to learn (and so is Dad) that prim and proper Mom once knew how to party harder than they ever imagined. Starring Goldie Hawn, Susan Sarandon, Geoffrey Rush and Erika Christensen.

Lawrence of Arabia: This 1962 classic is showing in the glorious 70mm format with the DTS sound system. Peter O' Toole tries to unite Arab groups to fight the Turks in WWI. A classic example of why certain films should be seen on the big screen. Final week at The Music Box, 773-871-6604.

HOROSCOPE

ARIES - March 21/April 20

Finally! All of your efforts to go above and beyond the call of duty this week will finally pay off. Go on, celebrate. You've certainly earned it. Brag, if you want.

TAURUS - April 21/May 21

Upheavals at home and work may seem unfair, Taurus, but you'll benefit in unexpected ways. Work hard this week, then reward yourself with a well-deserved rest.

GEMINI - May 22/June 21

You've got something to do this week, Gemini, even though you'd rather avoid it altogether. Quit procrastinating! Take a deep breath, get over it and move on.

CANCER - June 22/July 22

You often have a hard time adjusting to sudden change, but don't worry. This could be one of those rare occasions where a seemingly negative cloud has a positive silver lining. Cancer. Just go with the flow.

LEO - 23/August 23

Leo, you have the strength and power this week to make those you live and work with cater to your every whim. Will you take advantage of this situation?

VIRGO - Aug 24/Sept 22

There will be times this week when it feels like unseen forces are trying to block your efforts. Be patient and your true enemies will reveal themselves. The rest is up to you.

LIBRA - Sept 23/Oct 23

You have to take get a handle on that relationship one way or another, Libra. This is the start of a more easy-going phase in our personal life. Don't hesitate!

SCORPIO - Oct 24/Nov 22

You're ambition may get the better of you. Thought you're at your best this week, but that doesn't mean you'll be on your best behavior. You'll be tempted to take what you want.

SAGITTARIUS - Nov 23/Dec 21

Stand up for what you believe in and do whatever you feel is necessary to make the world better, even if you clash with powerful people. Just don't be too heroic or you could get into trouble.

CAPRICORN - Dec 22/Jan 20

Think carefully, the road you choose will set the course of things to come for the next several years. You must decide whether to stick with what you know or throw caution to the wind.

AQUARIUS - Jan 21/Feb 18

Be bold and brave this week, and you'll be the last one standing. There will be more opposition than you expected but don't back down and you'll find success.

PISCES - Feb 19/Mar 20

It may seem like co-workers are getting on your case, but it's just business, right? They may even have an idea that may benefit you. Keep open to new ideas.

Scholarship available for returning students

STEITZ DISCLAIMER

Did you hear about the overweight teenagers that are suing the fast food chains? This is true and it's happening.

So I thought I better tell you what may happen once you eat at our place.

Once you enter are newly remodeled dining room, you will be taken back to our history and our character. Then once your food comes, you will understand why we are still here since 1938. When you start to eat your great home cooked meal you may not be able to stop. Which would cause overeating. After you leave, you may find yourself wanting to come back soon. Which could cause more overeating. Then if you become a regular, the portions may even get bigger yet. Which would cause you to overeat.

ENTER AT YOUR OWN RISK! BRAD SCHWAGERMAN BENEFIT

This Saturday the 28th, come help my friend and yourself. There will be a huge buffet and many great raffles. It will be $10.00 a plate serving at 3:30 'till it's gone. And all monies are going to Brad. "I must warn you, you may overeat at my buffet." This will be the only food this night. I hope to see you.

Adler names fall concerts

The David Adler Fall Concert Series is set. The list of series dates will be performed at 1700 N. Milwaukee Ave. in Libertyville and are as follows:

Oct. 4: Larry Pattis - A special Friday Night performance. Larry is a master of solo finger-style guitar. Come for an evening immersed in the beauty and diversity of the acoustic guitar.

Oct. 12: Angelo Santucci & Pat Turner - Songwriter Angelo Santucci along with musician Pat Turner are part of the Chicago-based group, The Orphans.

Multi-instrumentalists Santucci and Turner draw on different influences and backgrounds, bringing an eclectic sound featuring guitars, violin and mandolin.

Pattis

Oct. 26: Eric Noden - Noden is a foot-stomping, guitar-banging acoustic bluesman. This one-man band works a traditional delta blues sound with a slice of ragtime, capturing the spirit of blues artists who recorded 78 rpm records.

Noden

Nov. 9: The Kastles - Tom and Chris Kastle share their traditional, contemporary and original songs of the maritime heritage of the Great Lakes.

There is no reserve seating, all seats are offered on a first-come-first-serve basis. Admission for DACC members and seniors is $12, nonmembers is $15, and children 6-15 are half-price. The David Adler Cultural Center's Folk and Ethnic Concert Series is in its 27th year.

If you are interested in volunteering, please contact Bryn Benson, concert coordinator, at 847-367-0707.

LOCAL DIGEST

Park friends hold second meeting

Friends of the Parks will hold its second work meeting on Saturday, Sept. 28 from 9 a.m.-noon at North Park. The park is located on Donin Drive in the Antioch Manor North subdivision, west on North Avenue from Route 83.

"The last project turned out well, so we're hoping people will come out again," said Laurie Stahl, director of the parks department. "We want to continue on with similar projects in the future."

Those interested in being placed on a Friends of the Parks mailing list should call the parks department office at 847-395-2160.

Peddler's Alley craft show Oct. 5

The ALL (Antioch, Lindenhurst, Lake Villa) Parents Network of Antioch Community High School (ACHS) will conduct its ninth annual Peddler's Alley craft show on Oct. 5 from 9 a.m.-4 p.m. at the high school.

New this year are "Angel Pound Cakes." Samples will be available at Peddler's Alley and orders taken to provide a special dessert for Thanksgiving and the holidays. O'Connell said arrangements could be made for either pick-up or local delivery.

Don't worry, these cakes don't replace the bake sale that is always held in conjunction with the craft show. Other continuing traditions include a raffle. The crafters donate one item each for the raffle prizes.

There is no admission charge for this event. The ALL Parent Network table will be located near the front door and crafters will show their wares in the commons and in the gym foyer.

Students benefit from pork chop dinner

It's no gamble that the annual pork chop barbecue and auction to be held by the Antioch Rotary Club on Oct. 5 will be a lively one with the theme of "Viva Las Vegas." This year's event will take place at Father Hanley hall in St. Peter School with dinner served from 5-7 p.m. and the auction beginning at 7 p.m. and running until all the goodies are spoken for.

Tickets are $20 per person and include dinner and a raffle ticket with a winning prize of a $500 travel certificate through Travel by Design out of the proceeds of the auction. Tickets are for sale at the State Bank of The Lakes, First National Bank-Employee Owned, Osmond Insurance, as well as from any Rotarian or at the door.

To donate an item, or for more information, call Iglehart at 847-395-2900.

St. Peter School is located on Lake Street just north of the intersection of routes 59 and 173.

Community Telecare looks after shut-ins

Community Telecare will call and give a daily check to those who live alone or are shut-in. The service is free and is provided by volunteers.

For those who would like this service, or know someone else who would call either 847-395-2240 or 847-395-0897.

CPR classes held

The Antioch Rescue Squad and the Antioch Fire Dept. offer CPR classes to the public on the second and fourth Wednesday of each month at 6 p.m. at the Antioch Fire Dept. located at 835 Holbeck Dr.

The fee of $5-$15 per person (depending on the class needed) is payable at the time of the class. For more information or to make reservations, call the Antioch Fire Dept. at 847-395-5511.

Bingo held at VFW Hall

The Antioch VFW sponsors bingo every Tuesday night at the VFW Hall on North Ave. from 4:30-6:30 p.m.

SSA VOTE

cern at previous meetings that two special service areas, one for Deercrest and the other for Clublands, may undermine the tax base that would, in turn, affect Antioch's schools and drive down property values.

Previously, Laura Bilas, an attorney for Neumann Homes, explained that there would be no comeback on the village and that homeowners buying into the developments would likely be taxed an additional $1-2,000 on an annual basis for 30 years to pay off the cost of the bonds. The money from the bonds would cover the cost of any number of improvements, including sewers and roads among other amenities.

She added that should the developments fail, there would be either (or both) tax sales and foreclosures to cover the costs of the bonds.

Antioch Community Consolidated District 34 president Steve Turner said, "There are too many unanswered questions and no one wants to make a commitment. No one knows how to answer our questions (to allay worries that there will be a tax shortfall to schools)."

Last week, Trustee Scott Pierce said that he had talked to the assessor and been assured that assessments are not based on the bill of sale of a particular property, but that a formula is used that incorporates the size of the home and the property. This week Pierce said that "a lot of information came to us (the board) regarding the SSA" and asked that the board table the issue for a week.

At the beginning of the meeting, Neumann Homes attorney Tom Burney spoke at length about the benefits of the SSA. He said the SSA is a "linchpin" and substantial to fulfilling the requirements of the memorandum of understanding that will settle the legal tangle in Antioch's East-Sub Area.

"The costs of improvements are not going to the residents. These will be paid for by those moving into Deercrest and Clublands," he said.

Burney further stressed that homes would be assessed at "full value." He said he had just heard there was a possible problem public hearing was to give the petitioner an opportunity to present a proposal and then for the public to speak for and against that proposal.

"In making our decision we are to consider the proposal as well as the public comment for and against?" asked Porch. "Aren't we missing a piece here. I haven't heard a single public comment for this."

One change made to the annexation agreement prior to its approval is that Neumann Homes will pay the attorney fees if this annexation is challenged.

Porch earlier took issue with making text changes to the Comprehensive Plan as well as making a land use change to the Comprehensive Plan. Both were done at Neumann Homes' request so the 55-acres could be annexed in as a combination of B-3 (commercial) and E-1 (estate/residential).

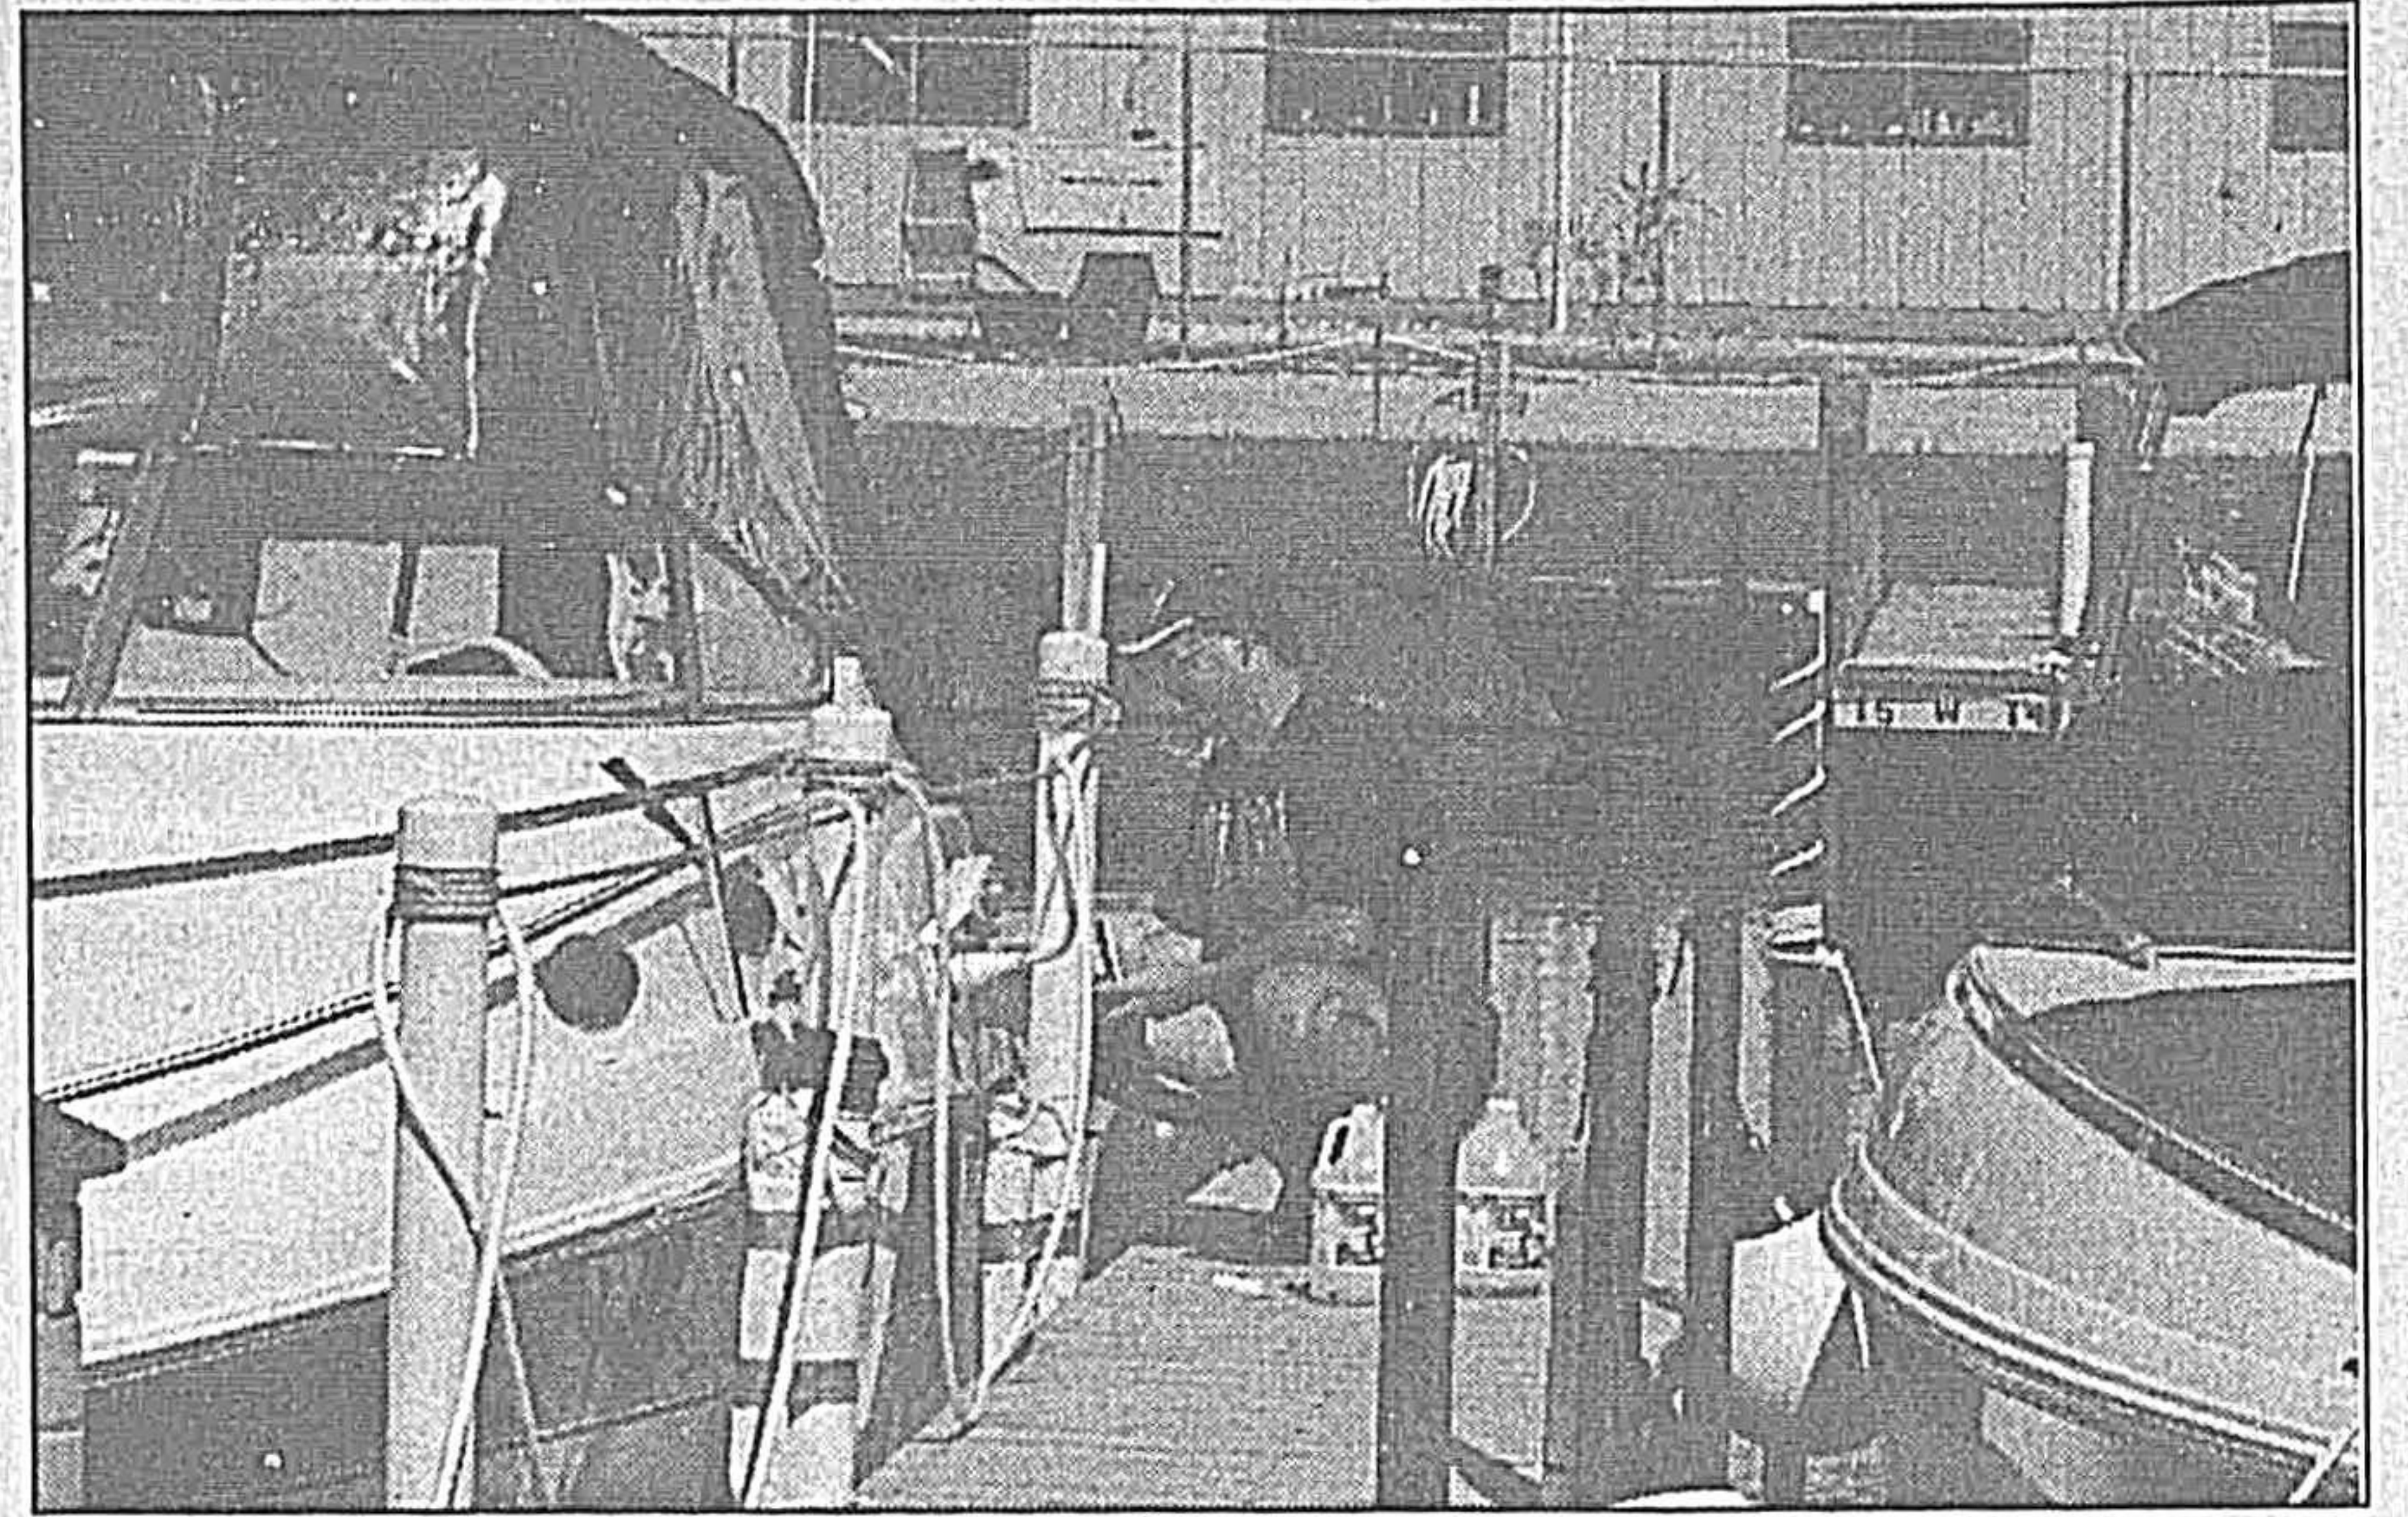

The second reading of the ordinance amending the Comprehensive Plan was waived and the ordinance was approved four to two with Porch and Trustee Larry Hanson casting no votes.

with Heather Kufalk-Marqta, the township assessor, ten days ago, and that the developer continues to work with her to get the matter resolved.

In a later interview, Kufalk-Marqta said she had not gotten an opinion from the state (via the Department of Revenue) and that she will "do whatever the state tells her to do." She said she had been doing some research on her own to determine what other townships have done when SSAs have been established.

"I'm the assessor, and I put the value on the home and not the county," she said. "I have to make sure the state isn't going to question me if I value a house at $200,000 when it sold for $170,000. I have to know exactly what to do with the real estate transfer declaration."

Kufalk-Marqta also said she had no reason to doubt that things would work out as Neumann Homes has proposed, but she didn't want to commit herself without answers from the state. "I've never seen anything like this before," she said.

ANALYSIS

answer any questions of the board."

Kretchmer's 32-page report is favorable, overall, to the proposed Wal-Mart development though caution is recommended.

"While one shopping center will not change the center of the community, a string of large shopping centers on the east side could do that," she said under the heading of implications. "The ultimate impact on retail sales (and sales taxes) depends in part on the ability of existing retailers to tap into the increasing market in and around Antioch and to develop their own niches."

She sites examples of communities with both successful downtowns and some big box stores (and has reports from each) such as McHenry, East Dundee, West Dundee, Batavia, Oswego and Morris.

She also recommends that the village ensure that Wal-Mart could not prevent "competing store types" from leasing the building in the event the store closes in the future. She added, "The village should also make sure that Wal-Mart reports this store's sales as attributable to Antioch and not another jurisdiction that would then receive the sales tax from this store."

Through her research, Kretchmer concluded that residential property values in the area would not suffer if the proposed Wal-Mart were built. "Residential properties in Gurnee similarly located to new shopping centers along Grand Avenue have not seen a reduction in market or assessed value and values have increased since the retail projects were built," she said.

The report concluded that the net tax increase of property and sales tax combined for phase I of the development will range between $942,700 and $1,146,700. Kretchmer recommended that "the village should investigate the possibility of using a portion of the sales and/or property taxes generated by the shopping center to fund business retention and recruitment efforts for the downtown and other retail locations."

Kretchmer states that Antioch is attracting sales from outside the village in the areas of food, eating and drinking as well as drugs and miscellaneous retail as it is higher per capita than the Lake County average. Conversely, Antioch is lower, per capita, in the area of general merchandise, apparel, furniture, household and radio, lumber, building and hardware categories.

The report further concluded that grocery stores would feel the greatest impact, followed by hardware and drugs.

"The worst scenario would be new centers on the other side of Antioch's borders, resulting in retail sales and sales taxes going to a neighboring jurisdiction and/or school district," the report said. "A balanced approach is appropriate here to ensure that new development occurs within the village's boundaries but does not destroy the existing retail areas of the village."

LAST CALL

John Phelps

Love of the game

Oh, the life of an Illinois High School Association referee.

In the last couple of years, there has been a noticeable decline in referees throughout the state. Some of that decline can be attributed to the low pay while some of it is also attributed to the occasional raucous fan that gets beligerent and upset, not to mention violent, with a referee over a bad call.

None of these reasons will keep Addison's Kelly Wells off the sidelines.

Wells, who has been officiating for five years, was on hand with Crew Chief Mike Boschan for the Grant High School football game at Mundelein last week.

She has no regrets where it comes to being an official. She also happens to love watching football.

"When I was young, I watched football with my dad (Dennis) every Sunday," said Wells, who works for State Farm Insurance. "One of the guys I work with said I should give it a shot if I liked football. You could say I was kind of drafted."

In her travels, Wells has encountered the occasional disgruntled fan. But it hasn't been too bad.

"You'll always have some irate parents, one's that say a female ref-she doesn't know what she's doing," said Wells. "You'll have those kinds of people though in just about every situation. But I haven't had a real negative experiences. It's a shame that you don't hear about the 99.9 percent of the parents that are out there giving their heart and soul, watching, learning, rooting for and teaching their kids."

Wells' schedule is usually determined during the summer. She's usually found at a sophomore and varsity game on Friday nights, followed by a freshman football game on Saturday mornings.

"The thing that keeps me going is really good coaching," said Wells. "Most of the coaches are good. But there are some that swear and really belittle the kids when they make a mistake. I don't have a lot of respect for that part of it."

Enjoying the game and what you do are also why Wells sticks with it.

"It definitely takes dedication," she said. "You're out there in bad conditions, some of the drives are very long. You have to love the game."

Anyone interested in officiating should check out the IHSA web site at www.ihsa.org.

High schools officials are becoming somewhat of a dying breed.

There should be more ref's like Wells out there.

Wauconda booters knock off one of 'big boys'

By JOE PRUSKI
Correspondent

Two teams from the Prairie and Lake Divisions of the North Suburban Conference went head to head Tuesday night, with the smaller of the teams coming out on top.

Wauconda defeated Antioch 3-1 at Antioch's temporary home, the Serbian Fields in Lake Villa.

"I thought we played one of our better games," said Wauconda Head Coach Terry Stevig. "Antioch's one of our conference crossover games. We've already lost two of them (NSC crossover games) this year. We were just hoping we could win one of them and we did. It's always nice to beat one of the bigger teams."

Wauconda led 2-0 going into halftime courtesy of goals by Phil Popovich and Brian Fantella, with assists by Fantella and Steve Hernandez. Brian Kellogg added another goal for Wauconda in the second half, assisted by Mike Armstrong.

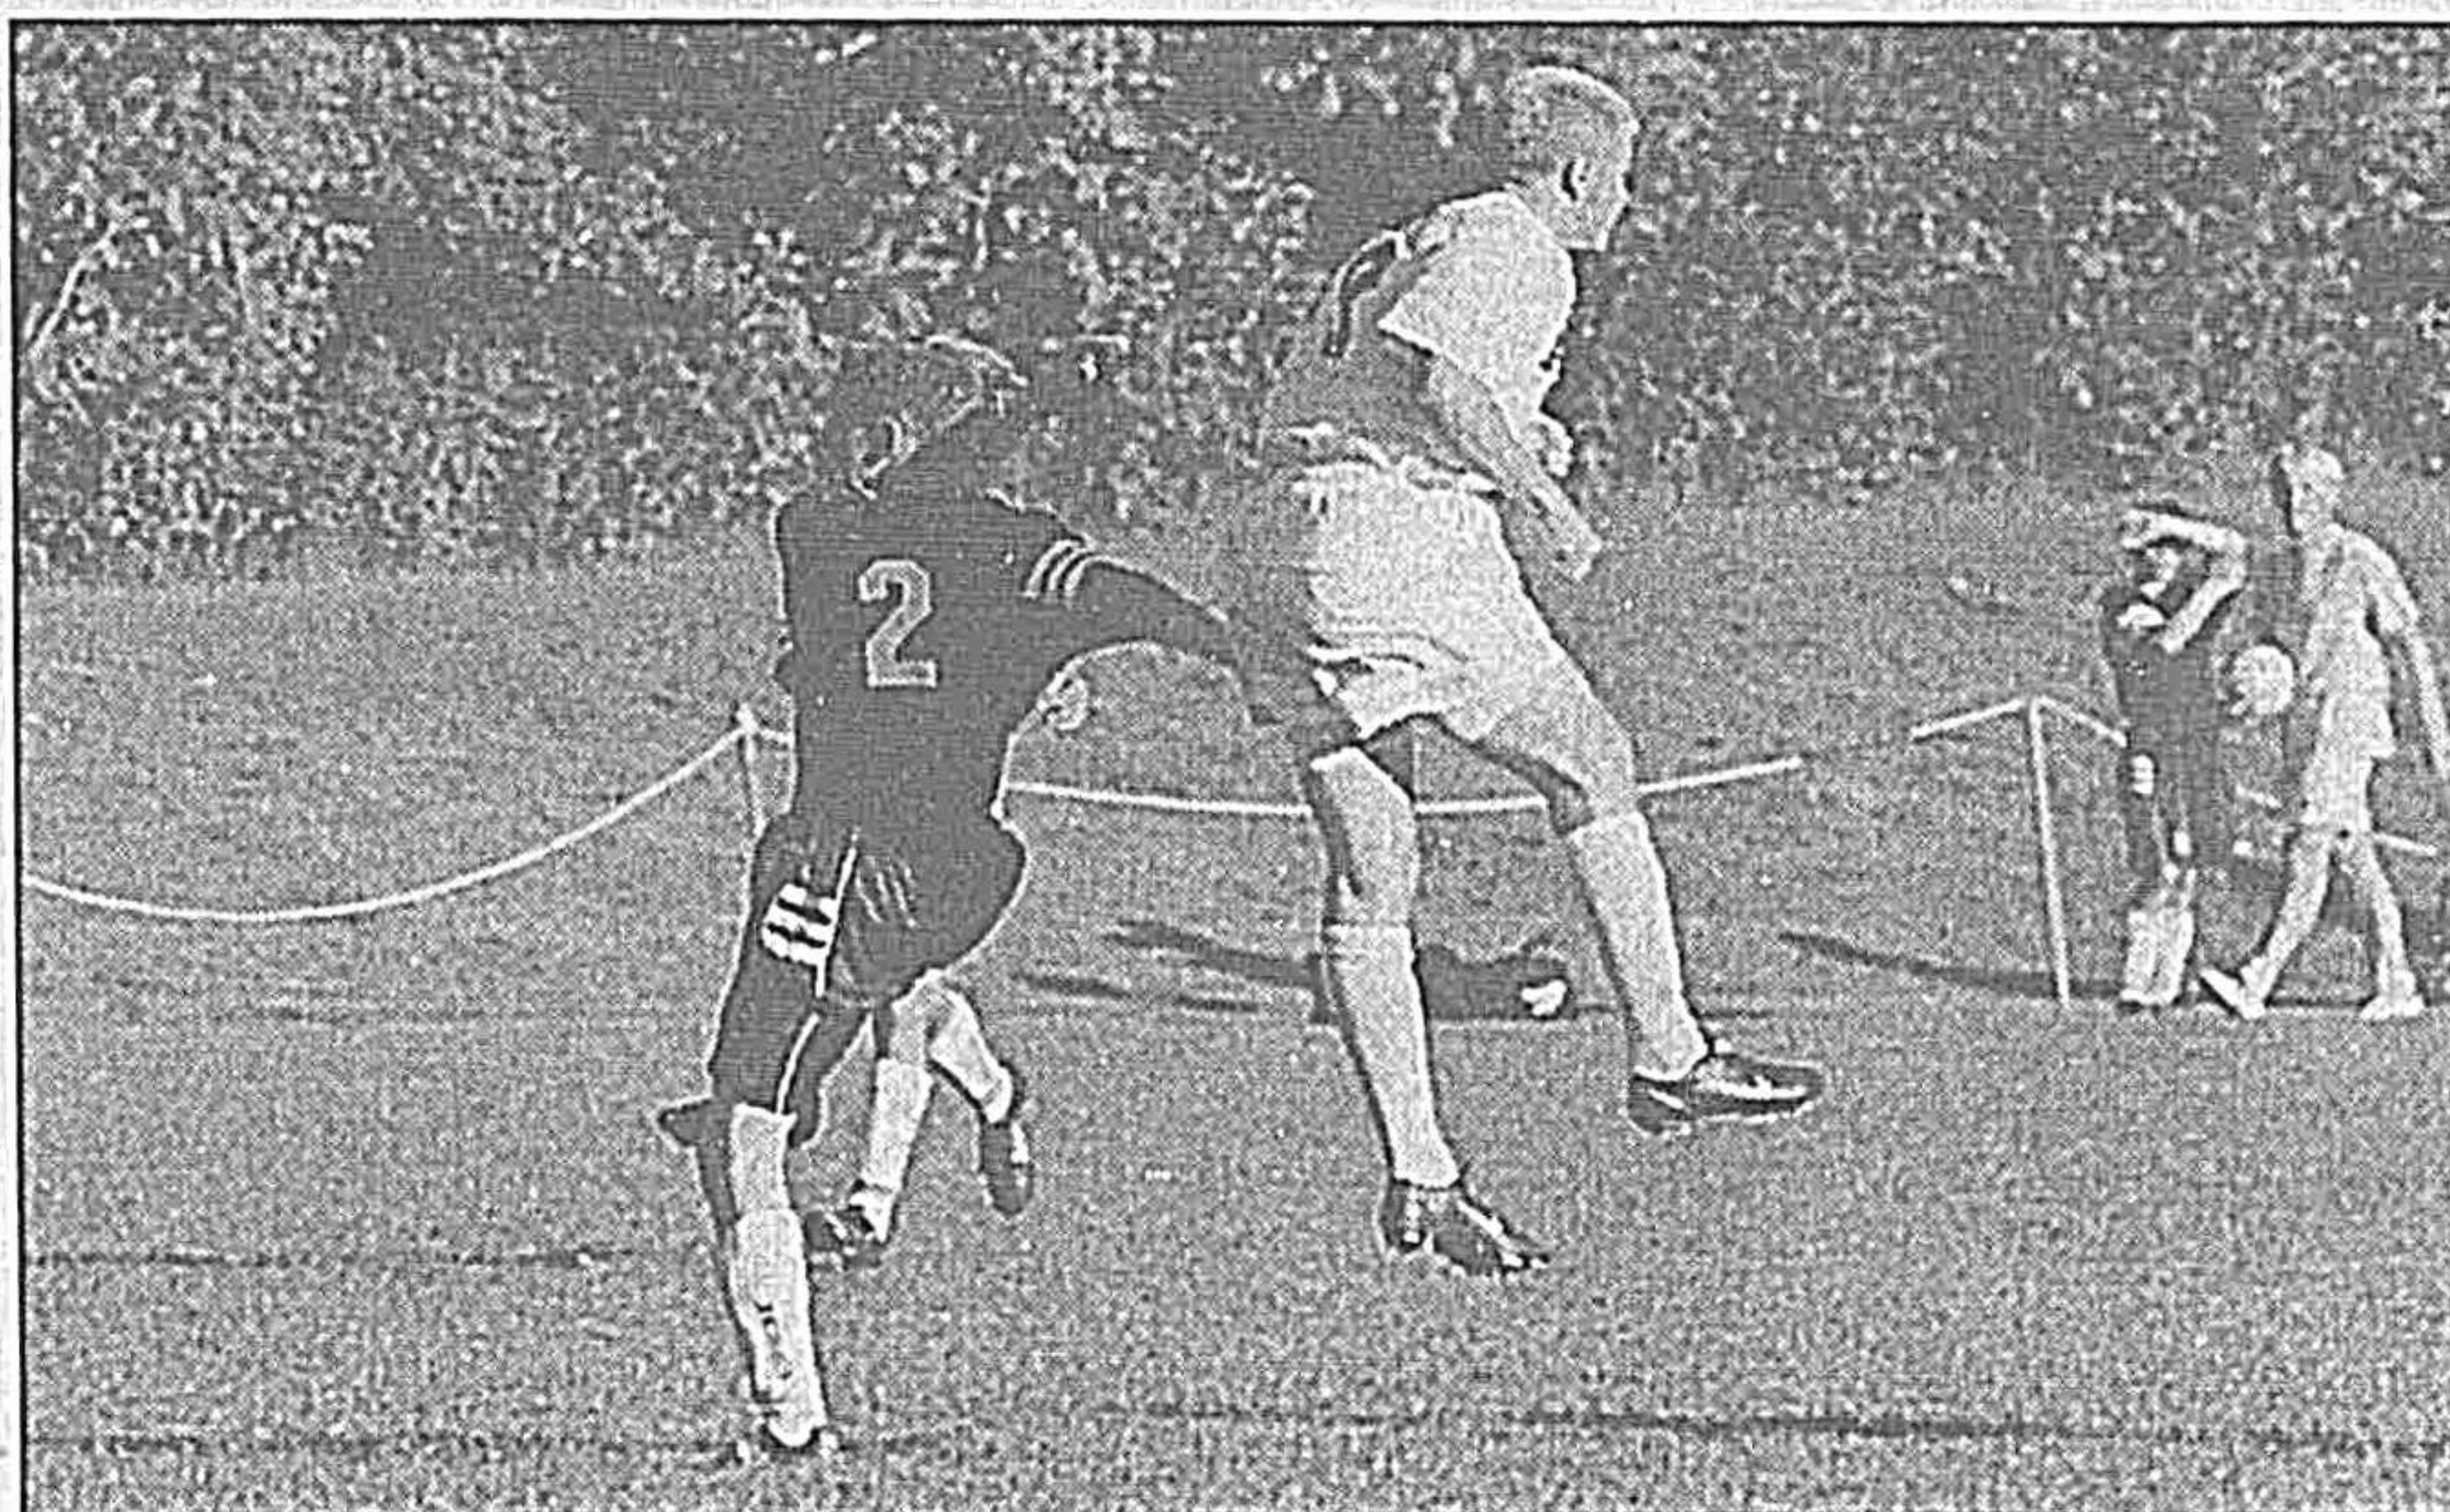

Rob Jenke scored Antioch's lone goal in the second half.

"I have to give Wauconda credit," said Antioch Head Coach Ryan Estabrook. "They came out with a lot of intensity and handed it to us—we never recovered."

Fantella leads the Bulldogs with 16 goals this season.

"(Fantella) plays real hard, he's not a captain because he's a junior, but he leads by doing his job very well, and his teammates respect that," said Stevig.

As for Antioch, Jenke added another goal to his team high of nine, giving him 10 on the year.

"Robbie's not really a polished soccer player, but he's one of the most determined athletes I've ever coached," said Estabrook.

With the win Wauconda improved to 8-3-2 on the season, right on pace to equal or better last year's mark of 14-5-3 according to Stebig.

"I think we're right on with where we were last year, and have a good chance at having two very good years in a row," he said.

As for Antioch, they dropped to 7-6 overall, and are having a difficult time fighting through some key injuries.

"I think we still have a lot of potential to improve still this year, we've had some injuries and that's hurt us," said Estabrook. "I really think that this game though could be a benefit for us if we realize what we've been doing."

Wauconda will have a few days off before traveling to Harvard on Sept. 28. They will be followed by the start of Prairie division action.

Meanwhile, Antioch travels to Vernon Hills Sept. 26 before opening up NSC Lake division action at home against Lake Forest Oct. 1.

Rough week but Sequoit netters improving

By JOE PRUSKI
Correspondent

The Antioch High School girl's tennis team opened up their North Suburban Conference Lake Division season with back to back losses to Lake Forest and Warren earlier this week.

Antioch lost 0-5 to a strong Lake Forest team. The match was a make-up from last week's washout.

"I thought we played alright, but we were just overmatched," said Antioch head coach Brian Plinske.

The following day Antioch competed at home against Warren in another 0-5 defeat. In this defeat however, a lot of bright spots emerged against one of the regions best teams.

Antioch's No. 1 doubles team of Jen Buhmester and Dina Izenstark lost 4-6, 6-7, against opponents who Plinske believes are some of the best in the area. Antioch's No. 2 doubles team of Ashleigh Honaker and Becky Tobiaski also came through with a strong showing, pushing the Warren pair to three sets.

On the season, both doubles teams for Antioch have proved their consistency. The No. 1 tandem is 10-5 while the second doubles duo is 9-6.

After a mid-season switch of his No. 1 and 2 singles players, Plinske believes he has found a much stronger combination. Junior Katie Clark (10-5 overall 2-2 since moving to one singles) replaced sophomore Ashley Jensen (4-11 overall 2-2 since moving to two singles) two weeks ago against Wauconda.

"The switch has gone pretty well. Katie hits the ball extremely hard and is able to hang in with a lot of the big hitters," said Plinske. "Ashley has improved dramatically at the number two spot, overall the move has worked out."

On the season as a team, Antioch carries a 5-4 record overall and a 2-3 record in the NSC

(0-2 in the Lake Division).

"We are further along than I had envisioned we would be at this point in the season," said Plinske. "At the beginning of the season I had serious concerns over whether or not everything would mesh well. We had the talent, the question was would it shine through? It has."

Antioch will travel to McHenry Sept. 28 to compete in the 8-team McHenry Invitational. Last year the team finished seventh. Plinske isn't expecting much more this year due to the setbacks the team will be facing.

"It's going to be a tough tournament," he said. "The singles are going to gain a lot of much needed experience, which is a good thing. The problem is that we'll be losing two doubles players due to ACT testing that same day. The doubles teams at McHenry are going to be in for one heck of an experience."

Neilsen, Sequit golfers on course

By JOE PRUSKI
Correspondent

With two more major tournaments right around the corner, the Antioch High School girl's golf team gained some confidence after hosting its own invitational last weekend.

Antioch placed fourth in the event held at Hunter Country Club in Richmond. Senior Danielle Nielson captured medalist honors with a solid 78 in the 18-hole tournament.

"That was her best 18-hole performance of her career," said Antioch Head Coach Jamie Walton. "She played outstanding, just as she has played outstanding all year."

Katie Malcolm fired an 93, Megan Placko a 96 and Sarah Stampfl a 100 to lead Antioch to a tie for third with Libertyville with 367. The tiebreaker went all the way down to the sixth golfer to determine a winner, which eventually proved to be Libertyville, pushing Antioch to down to the fourth position.

"We played really well as a team, we had a number of girls play very well, and we were right there knocking on the door," said Walton.

Rockford Boylan won the event with a team score of 338. Palatine finished second and Libertyville completing the top-3.

Three days before the Sequit Invitational, Antioch competed against Warren and Cary

Grove at their home course Spring Valley. Antioch shot 197, which was good enough to finish second of the three teams, three strokes behind winner Warren. Nielson medaled in the conference match posting a 9-hole score of 42.

On the year, Antioch sits at 1-3 in the North Suburban Conference while having a 3-5 record overall.

Next of the docket for the Sequit's will be the Barrington Invitational on Sept. 28 at Schaumburg Country Club. The North Suburban Conference tournament will then be Oct. 1 at Deerpath G.C. in Lake Forest. Lake Forest and Vernon Hills are serving as co-hosts for the event.

According to Walton, Antioch will head into the Barrington Tournament with a little more confidence after their fourth-place finish last week.

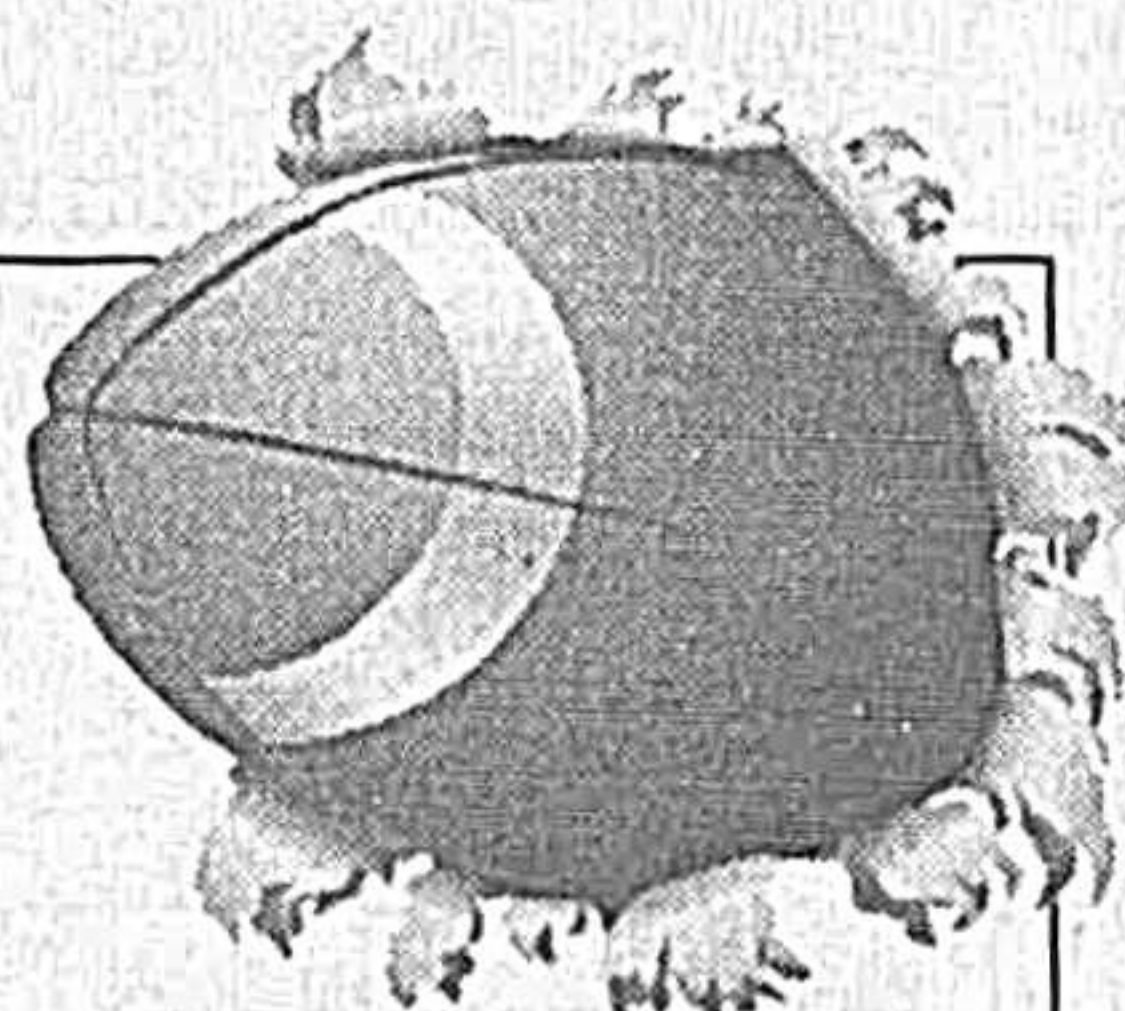

"I think it's a good boost," she said. "We played well, and that gives us momentum going into the final half of the season."

Last year, Antioch placed second at the conference meet, and is hoping to finish around the same place this year.

"I would love to come in second or third again," said Walton. "There's no reason why we shouldn't finish around that area. Lake Forest typically runs away from the field, but it's pretty wide open after that."

Big racing weekend ahead at Lake Geneva

There will be plenty of racing at Lake Geneva Raceway's oval track the weekend of Sept. 27-29.

On Fri. Sept. 27, the Annual Small Car World Championships will bring in 150 drivers. The Herb's mini modifieds and the Perfection Auto Body legend cars will have their season championships during part of this big night. Ken Johnson of Paddock Lake and Jeff Schultz of Silver Lake are locked into a heated battle for the 2002 crown. In the legend cars, Curt Gnatzig of Hartford and Clayton Kruse of Burlington are in the same situation in their division. Time trials begin at 6 p.m. with racing starting at 7:30 sharp.

Then, on Sat., Sept. 28 there will be another complete program with Budweiser super late models Performance unlimited limited late models McHenry Limousine super street stocks which will include two separate divisions of race cars. The Jefferson Columbus and Tomahawk cars that have a minimum post race weight of 3150 pounds and the Slinger stingers WIR type cars that run the Hoosier tires and the Rockford Grand Nationals will be on hand.

The Burlington Glass street stocks, which are LGR-type cars, Midwest Enduro-type cars, Pure stocks, which are like Slinger Bees Rockford Hornets Jefferson Bandits and LGR BIC cars and the Planet Pages Point series race cars will also be competing. The Wisconsin sport trucks will run two separate shows Sept.

28-29. Saturday night the one-on-one street drags take place. The annual clash of champions for the limited late models and super lates will also run. Time trials are at 2 p.m. with races at starting at 6 p.m.

On Sept. 29, there will be feature races for all divisions starting at 1 p.m. Weekend Spectator passes are just $25 for adults. Juniors ages 8-14 are $12 and children eight- and-under are admitted free. Separate tickets for each day are also available. The raceway is located on Bloomfield Road southeast of downtown Lake Geneva, Wisc. The Raceway phone number is 262-248-8566. Listen to WMCW 1600 AM and WLKG 96.1 FM for up to the minute updates and details.

Last week, two local guys made the most of their visit to Lake Geneva. Nick Kalteis of Lake Villa won his fifth Anchor Towing Basic International car 15-lap feature that started from a dead stop while defending sport truck champion Vincent Merry of Wadsworth won his fourth 12-lap feature of the season.

On a related note, the good size crowd came to their feet as the officials, fans and drivers said good bye to Nancy Laufenberg, who died last week at the age of 51. Nancy was a weekend supporter of the raceway for over 20 years. Her son Ken is a crew member of Jason Hick's team. Many of the drivers carried the black flag after PR Director Dale Erdmann emotionally talked about their friend who unexpectedly left us.

Lindenhurst soccer improving

The Lindenhurst Tornado U12 boys' soccer team kicked off their fall season with a 2-1 victory over the Real FC Scorpions. Andy Donovan scored both goals for the Tornados with Kyle Sytsma assisting on one. Josh Larson and Drew Jones shared time in goal.

The Tornados then finished 2-1 in the Barrington Classic Tournament. In the opening game, Sytsma, Eric Holst and Jarrett Jespersen each scored two goals. Holst also dished out one assist. Joshua Guido and Jones also scored goals while Donovan, Chris Staton, Breck Hughes and Tyler Dempsey each dished out one assist each.

In the second game of the tournament, Larson and Jones were standouts in a 3-0 loss to the SC Chicago Kickers.

Tornados rebounded in downing FC Barrington Select 4-2. Holst had two goals as did Donovan and Hughes.

The U12 boys then defeated the same Real FC Scorpions by the same score (2-1) a few short days later on the road. Excellent passing and teamwork allowed the Tornados to dominate the field to the tune of 25 shots on goal. Meanwhile, the Tornado defense held the Scorpions to just eight shots on goal.

Andy Donovan scored early off of a nice pass behind the defense from Eric Holst. Donovan gave Lindenhurst the lead for good one minute later when he first-timed a centering pass from Drew Jones off the keeper's hands and into the back of the net.

Strong goalkeeping from Jones and Josh Larson made the score stand. Both were supported by a solid back line that featured Jarrett Jespersen, Matt Beadle, Ian Tune, Josh Gaido and Chris Staton.

U11 boys

The Lindenhurst Predators U11 boys travel soccer team defeated the Inverness Intruders 4-1 in their first game of regular season last weekend.

The game saw the first goal within the opening minute made by Zachary Augustin with an assist by William Lebavitz. Donny Bauer scored the second goal of the half off of an assist by John Androus. Then, in the second half, John Androus scored on both a goal and a penalty kick. Keeper Danny Hourihan is credited with four saves while backup goalie Andre Sippy finished the game with three.

Outstanding play by Joey Antony, Georg Katres, Jack McCollum, Robert Nogle, Mitchell Post, Bradley Schmidt, Garrett Siu, Christopher Thayer and Taylor Westrate helped secure the victory for the Predators.

U10 Titan boys

After losing twice last year, the Lindenhurst U10 Titan boys soccer team earned a 2-2 tie with Deerfield Pegasus. Vinnie Holm scored the first goal in the first half. The Titans fell behind 2-1 before Nathan McMahon tied the game on a penalty kick. Taylor Krumpas played the entire game in goal. Michael Beckman and Matt Dexheimer were among the defensive standouts. Other contributors included Joey Carlborg, Tony Gallo, Billy Mohr, David Mrnak, Andrew Noda, Connor Orth and Josh Pohlman.

Fake $10 bills found at stores in Lindenhurst

Police issue local alerts

By BRENDA BALIN-BEITSCHER
Staff Reporter

Lindenhurst Police are cautioning local consumers and storeowners to be aware of counterfeit bills that may be circulating locally.

On Sept. 20, a counterfeit $10 bill was found at the BP Amoco station on Sand Lake Road. It was discovered by the store's cash counting machine, which is programmed to discard bogus bills.

A follow-up test, using a special marker, revealed the "new style" bill was a fake.

"It felt slick, not like a real bill," said Lindenhurst Police Investigator Ralph Goar. The bill also was missing the characteristic red and blue threads, as well as the much-publicized watermarks and identification thread.

"The background didn't look right, either," said Goar. "It was yellowish, instead of greenish."

An "old style" counterfeit $10 bill was discovered on August 23 at True Value Hardware, in Linden Plaza. The bill had been crumpled and slightly torn to make it look weathered, and to disguise it.

The phony bill was discovered at the bank, when the hardware store was making its regular deposit.

It is believed both bills were created using electronic scanners and/or copying machines.

Goar speculated that the $10 denomination was used because it is not as carefully scrutinized as larger bills, and is thus easier to pass.

Shopowners and consumers are advised to bring suspected counterfeit to the police station, where it can be checked. The bills are not legal tender, and passing counterfeit bills is a felony.

ANTIOCH

DUI

Reyes Cordova, 44, of 304 Fruitwood Drive, Round Lake, was arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol on Sept. 23 at 12:53 a.m. on Deep Lake Road south of Route 173.

Police responded to the area for a vehicle fire. The officer saw Cordova stumbling around the burning car that was reportedly "fully involved" and escorted him away to a safer area.

It was during that time that the strong odor of alcoholic beverage was detected on Cordova's breath. He said he had 4-5 beers and refused field sobriety testing.

Cordova reportedly told police he pulled onto the shoulder and fell asleep, and was awoken by the smoke coming off of the engine. He was arrested for DUI and transported to the Antioch Police Department where he was put through booking procedures and issued a citation for DUI.

Cordova agreed to chemical testing with the results coming back at .216 blood alcohol concentration. He was issued an additional citation for DUI over .08 and released on personal recognizance pending his Oct. 15 court date.

Richard J. Deitche, 42, of 362 Joren Trail, Antioch, was arrested for driving under the influence of alcohol on Sept. 21 at 2:43 a.m. on Main St. at Orchard.

Police saw his car stop at a green light waiting to make a turn even though no other vehicles were in sight. As Deitche turned, he crossed the double yellow line. Additionally, he activated his turn signal at Depot Street, but then drove past without turning.

When stopped, the officer detected the strong odor of alcoholic beverage on Deitche's breath. He failed all field sobriety tests requested of him and was arrested and transported to the Antioch Police Department where he was issued a citation for DUI.

Deitche agreed to chemical testing resulting in .192 blood alcohol concentration. He was put through booking procedures and issued additional citations for improper lane usage and DUI over .08.

Deitche was released at 7:20 a.m. on personal recognizance pending his Oct. 15 court date.

No valid driver's license

Dominsa DeLatorre, 35, of 411 Heather Terrace, Round Lake Beach, was arrested for driving without a valid driver's license on Sept. 22 at 10:10 a.m. on McMillen east of Anita.

Police saw DeLatorre veer off the roadway and then abruptly travel back onto the road. She then almost came to a complete stop and veered off the road again, almost causing an accident.

When stopped, she reportedly told police that she felt like trying to drive even though she never had a driver's license. A check of her identifiers through LEADS confirmed this.

DeLatorre was arrested and transported to the Antioch Police Department where she was put through booking procedures and issued citations for improper lane usage and driving without a valid driver's license. She was released on personal recognizance pending her Oct. 23 court date.

LAKE VILLA

Battery

Joshua J. Pale, 20, of 36697 Oakwood, Lake Villa, was arrested by Lake Villa Police on Sept. 22, at 3:04 a.m., at a home on the 100 block of W. Grand Avenue in Lake Villa. The resident of the home said Pale had crashed a party and got out of control when asked to leave, punching the resident. Pale was also accused of taking toiletries from the bathroom of the home. A police-administered PBT yielded a result of .174 BAC. Pale's Wisconsin driver's license was altered to show his age as 22. He had, according to police, attempted to use the altered identification at Nuttie's Bar to obtain drinks. Police confiscated the license. Pale was charged with battery, trespassing and illegal possession of an altered identification for the purpose of obtaining alcohol. He is to appear in Grayslake Branch III on Nov. 6 at 3 p.m.

DUI

Andrea A. Bobbin, 48, of 6720 Derby Dr., Gurnee, was arrested by Lake Villa Police on Sept. 17, at 12:22 a.m., while driving southbound on Route 83 near Hampton Drive. The driver was observed pulling out from eastbound Route 132 onto southbound Route 83, blocking traffic. She was weaving, crossing over both the centerline and the fogline. She failed to stop when police activated emergency lights. At the intersection of 83 and Hampton, she began to drive in circles. At that point, police activated sirens. She continued driving, weaving onto the shoulder of the road, nearly hitting a street sign, according to police reports. When she stopped, she told police she had four beers and tequila at Caboose Crossing Bar in Lake Villa. She refused field sobriety tests, but exhibited poor balance. At the police station, a breath test yielded a result of .305 BAC. Police also determined she had an outstanding warrant from Lake County for battery on a police officer. She was charged with improper lane usage, driving with a cracked windshield, driving with suspended registration, driving an uninsured motor vehicle, failure to yield to an emergency vehicle, DUI and DUI over .08 BAC. She was turned over to the Lake County Jail.

Theft from vehicle

Lake Villa Police received a report that sometime between Sept. 19 at 10:30 p.m. and Sept. 20 at 8:15 a.m., articles were taken from an unsecured vehicle parked in front of a home on Burnett Avenue. The items stolen included a blue Nokia cellular telephone, valued at $100; a silver-colored Sony CD player, valued at $100, containing a CD valued at $20; A "leopard skin" CD case containing 30 CDs, mostly "Aerosmith," with the CDs marked with the initials "KD," valued at $600 and a Gameboy Advanced game, valued at $80, as well as miscellaneous currency. Police have no suspects.

For reservations or information regarding this or other Women's Pearl of Health Series by Condell, call 847-990-5770.

Hate crime attack

Mundelein—Police said Gregory Wisniewski, 18, of Mundelein, beat a 36-year-old Hispanic man with a baseball bat, but told police who arrived at the scene that it was he who was attacked. Later, the victim's 16-year-old son and a friend, Raul Borunda, 20, of Milwaukee, returned to Wisniewski's home and the pair summarily beat up Wisniewski. Borunda and the son were charged with battery. Wisniewski was charged with a hate crime in addition to other charges and is at the county jail on a $250,000 bond.

Station plan alive

Grayslake—Efforts to place a Metra station in downtown have not yet reached the last stop. In a recent meeting held between members of the downtown merchants group proposing a downtown stop, Mayor Tim Perry and Trustee Rhett Taylor, both sides presented their thoughts regarding the feasibility of a downtown station.

Lake County loses its oldest resident

By MARC JENKINS
News Editor

Estelle V. Faulkner, a lifelong resident of Lake County and believed to be its oldest citizen, died Monday at Winchester House in Libertyville at age 108.

Faulkner is a pioneer of the area in the true sense of the word. Although she spent the final few years of her life at Winchester, she lived in Warren Township for almost 100 years.

When you're well over 100, even 90-year-olds razz you about your age, said Faulkner's daughter, Jean Rudd, 78, of Gurnee.

"They all called her 'Granny' at Winchester House," Rudd said. "Because she was older than all of them. Even her roommate

When she wasn't crafting needlepoint, winning awards for reading at Winchester or making Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls for her 21 great-grandchildren, Faulkner enjoyed playing trivia games.

And why wouldn't she? When you drove a horse-and-buggy to school in 1910 you've seen a handful of world history happen before your eyes.

Longevity runs in the Faulkner family, which traces its roots back through the Vose family, which migrated to Warren Township in 1839 from Stoughton, Mass. Faulkner's

Month-long Internet sting nets alleged predator here

By DREW GRANGER
Staff Reporter

Lake County Sheriff's Police announced the Sept. 20 arrest of a 29-year-old Rolling Meadows man for Indecent Solicitation of a Child, ending an investigation that began on the Internet.

"The investigator told me it took about a month," said Sergeant Gary Govekar.

The man has been identified as David K. Guyer of 4738 Arbor Drive, Rolling Meadows. Investigators stated that Guyer allegedly met an individual he believed to be a 15-year-old boy through a chat room on the Internet. This individual was in fact a detective from the Lake County Sheriff's office.

After several conversations on the internet with the "15-year-old boy," Guyer allegedly offered to drive to a location in unincorporated Grayslake for the purposes of having sex with the boy. According to investigators, Guyer arrived on time at the agreed upon location, but instead of meeting the boy, he met with members of the Lake County Sheriff's office Criminal Investigations Division. Guyer was taken into custody without incident.

When arrested Guyer allegedly was found to be in possession of a bag containing condoms, lubricating jelly and pills, believed to be the designer drug Ecstasy.

According to Sheriff Del Re, "Investigations such as these will continue as they are necessary to ensure the safety of our loved ones. Predators such as these must not be allowed to enter our homes and take advantage of our children.

Guyer was housed in the Lake County Sheriff's Office Correctional Facility until friends posted the $75,000 bond. Guyer is scheduled to appear in court Sept. 27.

Growing trails key to support of Forest Dist.

Got $10? That's the amount the Lake County Forest Preserve District says is needed from taxpayers to provide new funds for maintenance, public access and safety at the county's growing forest preserve system.

Taking cognizance of a soft economy and continued pressure for increasing taxes, Forest Preserve commissioners picked the modest sum on the theory that "a little will do a lot." The amount equates to what can be raised from a single family home with a market value of $200,000.

Taxpayers have been remarkably generous to the Forest Preserve system, responding with affirmative votes in 1999 and 2000 tax referenda to raise funds for continued land acquisition. The system now stands at 24,325 acres. More than 1,700 acres have been earmarked for future purchases.

To buttress continued voter support, commissioners have been managing on a "user friendly" theory. They have been emphasizing trail construction and development of outdoor recreation facilities. Nearly 12 miles of additional trails are newly opened. The love affair with trails is unstinting. New trails include the Des Plaines River Trail from Libertyville to Gurnee; the first stretch of the Millennium Trail from Gilmer Road to Fairfield Road near Hawthorn Woods and Wauconda. There are new trails near Lake Forest, Barrington and Island Lake. A temporary trail has been installed at Rollins Savanna near Grayslake with permanent construction due next year.

There now is a trail at the river's edge of the Des Plaines from Wadsworth to Lincolnshire, a distance of 29 miles.

Trail development is a politically astute and environmentally sound strategy to get residents "close" to their tax contributions and a key reason why the Forest Preserve District has attained a national reputation.

A new survey shows that 72 percent of Lake County residents use the Forest Preserve. That's a red-letter figure compared to use of other tax supported institutions, including public education, and a telling reason why voters comply when asked for support. That, and the realization on the part of the electorate that every acre set aside for the Forest Preserve is one less acre to be developed.

Which gets us back to our question at the outset. Got $10? The answer to that question will be known Nov. 5. At this time, though, if John Q. Public is a bit short, the necessary money will be located by election day to keep a noteworthy program moving forward.

Voters ignored primary at risk

There's a strong likelihood that the Nov. 5 Illinois gubernatorial election will be studied as a textbook lesson why voters should get involved in primary elections, the party events where electors select the candidates for the general election. Otherwise they face what is unfolding on the state-wide political front, second raters pitted in a third rate campaign.

The same can be said for the growing number of citizens who regard themselves as independents, electors above the fray of political party business or too detached to be bothered.

By staying away in droves, voters of both major parties got less than they are entitled, the best and most qualified candidates to choose from for the state's top office.

In a three-way race, Democratic voters chose a congressman whose main attributes are a youthful earnestness on the campaign trail and a cum laude graduate of the Cook County machine. Republican voters chose a workmanlike attorney general with an unspectacular record whose major claim to fame in the primary was name recognition, a factor that has turned out to be his biggest liability in the general election.

An overly confident Democrat Rod Blagojevich, with money to burn, is flailing his opponent in television ads with a telling message when one party has been in office too long: time for a change. Weary and humorless, Republican Jim Ryan talks way too much about who he isn't (scandal-ridden retiring Gov. George Ryan).

How different things might be today if Democratic primary voters had nominated Paul Vallas and Republicans had nominated Lt. Gov. Corinne Wood. The Vallas-Wood race would have treated voters to a campaign of issues and ideas. Even at this late date, it can't be certain where either Blagojevich or Jim Ryan stands on burning issues like the state financial crisis, dealing with senior citizen health care or reform of the public school system. If Blagojevich or Ryan have a semblance of a plan to relieve traffic congestion in Lake County they're keeping it a secret.

As usual, voters will get what they asked for. Or in the case of a political primary, what they didn't ask for: the best the respective political parties can offer.

VIEWPOINT

Choice vehicle? SUV hands down

All this chatter about SUV's being the scourge of the environment and the ruination of the nation is falling on deaf ears in your columnist's family.

After a new barrage of anti-SUV propaganda hit the airwaves and the public prints, I decided to take an inventory to see where One Man's Family stands. Surveying only immediate family members (no cousins or aunts and uncles), the check showed 11 SUV's and a pickup truck being used for every day transportation.

Your writer was converted to a four-wheel drive vehicle two years ago after getting tired of trying to fit lawnmowers, bags of fertilizer, bedding plant containers, garden tools, and assorted junk into the trunk of a sedan. (Not all at the same time, of course). What sold me was being able to get a good load of stuff in the storage area and take our two doggies for a ride—at the same time. The heavy snow of December, 2000, also drove home the point of "don't leave home without FWD" when roads are snow covered.

The lady of the house is on her second SUV, a big fan of heavy tires, extra power and driver's enhanced vantage. Daughter Jill makes good use of the third seat when it's her turn to chauffeur "the gang" to school or Little League practice. Daughter Karen grabs the keys to her husband's SUV whenever he's not looking.

Brother Bob started family SUV interest a long time ago and now is on his fourth generation. He's even started a hand-me-down tradition to get niece Cindy into an SUV.

Son Bob and his wife drive SUV's. They also harbor a vintage Jeep that's been in the family so long they can't bear to part. Son Bill has the muscular brother of an SUV, a husky pickup with buddy seats that fits the Texas scene. Guess we're all truckers at heart.

The SUV clincher in our family came this summer when niece Judy, homeward bound in heavy traffic, was rear-ended by an out-of-control semi near her home in suburban Kansas City. After spinning three complete turns into the meridian plus enduring other indignities, her once proud SUV came to rest in a cloud of dust and a ring of unbelieving spectators. Judy stepped out unharmed and took only a few moments to decide that her replacement vehicle would be another SUV. "Saved my life," she declared while grabbing the telephone book to order a duplicate.

The SUV count tapered off when I realized that I almost forgot nephew Matthew tooling around the University of Illinois campus at Champaign-Urbana in a well-worn SUV.

Say what they want, SUV's are here to stay, as far as One Man's Family is concerned.

Readers have been generous responding to our plea about the best route to cross the county during morning drive time without packing a lunch. Don Birren, who has been making the job trek to Elk Grove Village for two years, leaves his home in Round Lake Park and follows a route along Belvidere Rd., Fairfield, Old McHenry, Quentin and Rand Roads to get to the north end of Route 53. A member of the village zoning board, Birren tossed in a plug for extending 53 northward, figuring access to the proposed roadway as shaving 20 minutes off his commute. "Forty minutes a day translates into 160 hours, 160 more hours per year I can spend with my family, the Cub Scouts or working overtime."

It's in the cards

Dan Nielson has taken the first step toward establishing Grayslake as the magic capitol of the metro area or maybe the midwest. He and his wife, Missie, and her mother, Barb, have taken over Stratford Banquet Hall. Don't be surprised if fellow magicians congregate at Stratford to entertain all comers. Dan, who has a day job in landscape architecture, has a specialty of card tricks. Tip: don't try to top him at blackjack.

Surprise visitor

As part of a new television format, Oprah Winfrey hosted a filet mignon and lobster meal at a recruit galley at Great Lakes Naval Training Center. The celebrity event became a "Good News" segment for her TV show and a way to congratulate four divisions of recruits who just had finished battle stations and awarding of their "NAVY" ball caps. For security reasons, there was no advance notice of Oprah's appearance.

The Governor's race—Playing the name game

What's in a name? Ask Jim Ryan, who has spent the better part of his political campaign for governor raising one issue. He keeps telling voters, "By George, my name is Jim!" By now, I think the voters in Illinois have got the message.

What's in a name? Ask Rod Blagojevich. For an early part of his primary election, he spent time trying to get voters to pronounce his name. He used the technique used many years ago by famed pianist, entertainer Liberace when he started his career. At theater entrances where he performed, the sign on the marquee said "Liberace (pronounced 'Lib-er ah-chee.')

SEEING IT THROUGH
John S. Matijevich

Blagojevich is (Blah-goy-ah-vitch). While Jim Ryan is consuming his precious campaign time telling voters he is not George Ryan, Rod Blagojevich is trying to convince voters that he is not Dick Mell. That happens to be his father-in-law, who is a wealthy industry owner, and is also a Chicago alderman,

PARTY LINES

PARTY LINES, THE LAKELAND NEWSPAPERS' COLUMN OF POLITICAL OPINION, IS PREPARED FROM STAFF REPORTS.

Sheriff bristling over Clavey event

On the political rage meter, both Sheriff Gary Del Re and his Democratic opponent, Chuck Fagan, are pushing the arrow higher and higher.

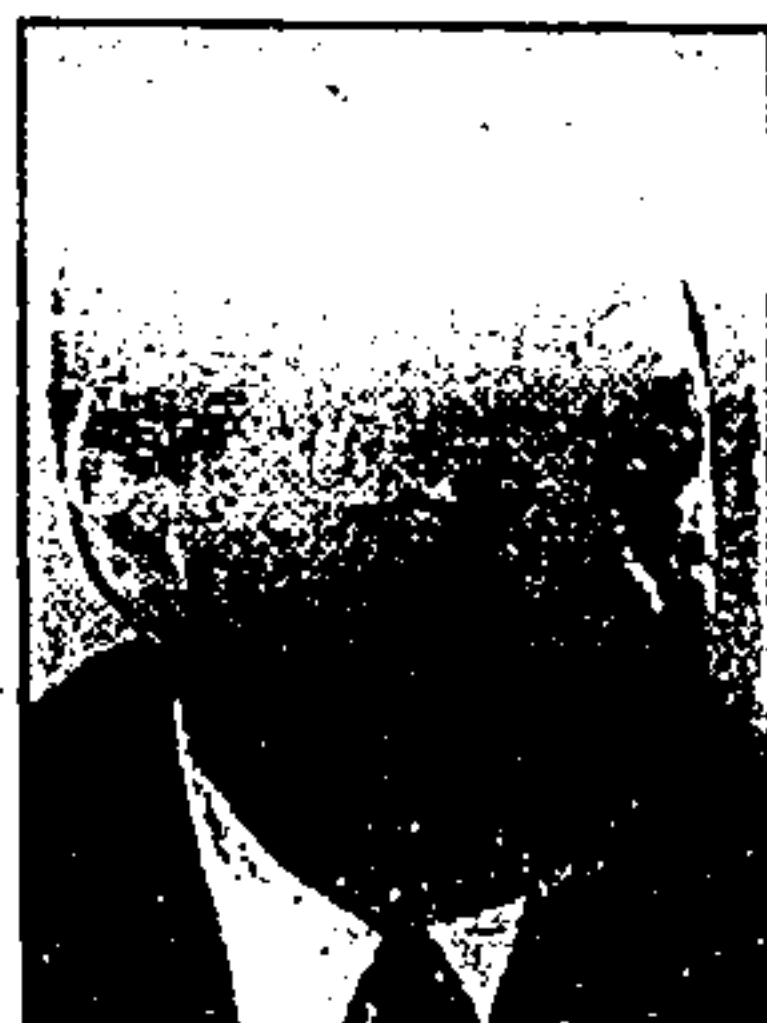

Del Re said he is outraged that Fagan would accept the support of former Sheriff Pat Clavey, who served prison time after convicted of irregularities in connection with his duties while serving as sheriff 25 years ago. Clavey sponsored a Fagan fundraiser at In-Laws Restaurant, Gurnee, Sept. 19.

At a press conference, Fagan, a former deputy, professed outrage that Del Re's department botched the investigation of a jail inmate who died of cocaine intoxication.

"My opponent is using terrible judgment accepting the support of a convicted felon. I challenge him to disavow the support and return any funds raised," declared Sheriff Del Re.

Since leaving office, Clavey has been involved in a family business and remained active in community civic affairs and church work.

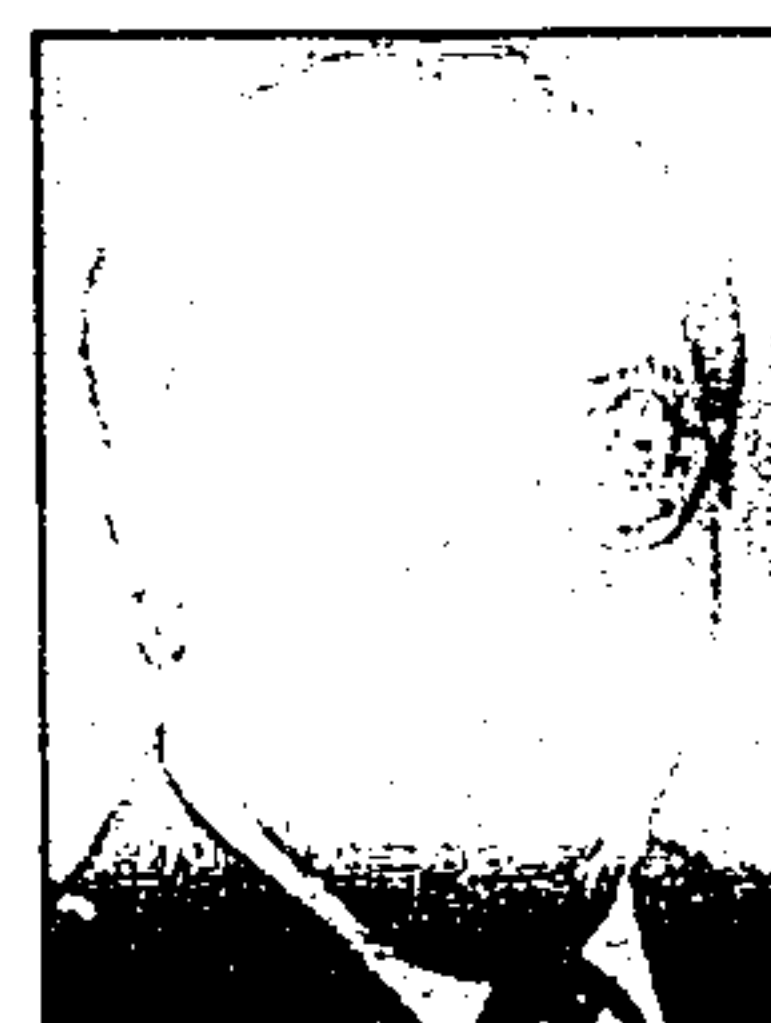

The charges and counter-charges are spicing up a political breakfast Wednesday, Oct. 2, when Del Re and Fagan will square off at Midlane Country Club, Wadsworth. The event is open to the public, but admission will be charged for the program beginning at 7:30 a.m.

Returning checks

Democratic county clerk nominee Patrick Patt says he is returning campaign contributions because he has reached a self-imposed $3,000 budget limitation. Patt, a retired school superintendent, is building a network of educators to bolster his campaign. He has been endorsed by the Lake County Federation of Teachers, one of two teacher unions in Lake County.

Pot harvest derailed

Commissioners of the Lake County Forest Preserve District still are red-faced about the discovery of a pot farm in Van Patten Woods, Wadsworth. A total of 4,325 cannabis plants were seized on a tip to the Lake County Metropolitan Enforcement Group (MEG). MEG supervisor Chad Roszkowiak said the ready-to-harvest plants had a street value of $6 million. Some plants were eight feet tall.

Rudy to rescue

Republicans wondering about Atty. Gen. Jim Ryan's intensity level are taking heart in the appearance Sunday, Sept. 29, in Chicago of former New York Mayor Rudy Giuliani. Ryan and Giuliani, both former prosecutors, campaigned together two years ago for President Bush.

Don't call Ray

Waukegan Republican leaders, on the prowl for a candidate for mayor, can cross Ray Vukovich off their list. Vukovich, once seen as leading a GOP resurgence as an alderman, is enjoying life as the city's director of governmental services. An election will be held in 2003 to fill the unexpired vacancy created by the death of Dan Drew.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Pro-growth

The Republican Party needs to adopt a pro-economic growth policy in order to create incentives for job creation and additional investment. Specifically, a pro-growth policy should include: (1) eliminating the double taxation of dividends by making dividend income tax-free to individuals; (2) reducing the Capital Gains Tax Rate to 15 percent; and (3) reducing the lowest marginal tax rate on personal taxable income to 5 percent. There should also be an absolute freeze in the total level of federal spending for two years, excluding expenditures for National Defense, Homeland Security, Social Security and Medicare.

We should not let the Democrats get away with forcing millions of Americans to permanently write off their personal investment losses. The losses can be recovered by putting the resources of the still greatest economy in the world back into the hands of the American people. We can help create additional wealth for everybody by creating incentives that will encourage additional entrepreneurial innovation and productivity.

We need aggressive leadership on our behalf in the political and intellectual circles to push a real pro-growth economic policy. Now more than ever we need to ask questions and make assessments of our elected officials who hold the keys to additional economic growth. Introducing a bill or voting for one that goes down in defeat is no longer good enough. The stakes are too high.

Remember Cal

Did I hear correctly that the League of Women Voters is now out of the gubernatorial debate picture? Did the league do something to incur the disfavor of the power parties, the Demopublicans and Republicrats, whose political ideas span the spectrum from A to B?

Wasn't the league planning to include Libertarian Party nominee Cal Skinner in the debate, if he topped 5 percent in the opinion polls?

Not hard to understand why such a prospect would spook Rod Blagojevich and Jim Ryan—standing there, each straining to out-promise the other, while Cal offers real alternatives that are based on liberty, rather than on promises that government can't keep.

It doesn't matter what you think of Cal or of Libertarians in general: Blagojevich plus Ryan equals Yawnsville. If you want a real debate, then demand that the Libertarian viewpoint be included.

Don't silence Cal.

Time for another sappy pet column

One day last week, I heard from two readers of this column (my favorite kind of people). One wrote to say, "I always enjoy your stories about dogs."

And a recent, new subscriber to the paper asked, "Do you ever write about cats?"

The answer to both is, yes, whenever I think I can get away with it.

Once, at another newspaper, I had an editor who said I was restricted to "one sappy dog column a year." He was joking; he had three dogs and took pleasure in the fact their name for him was "Dad."

When his wife wanted to deflect the dogs she would tell them, "Go by Dad!"

Our pets do become precious family members. Friends of ours recently received in the mail a sympathy card that said, "We understand. We know how much your pet meant to you and how sad you feel in your loss. Find comfort in knowing you gave your pet a very good home and a wonderful life. Our very deepest sympathy for the loss of beloved Cody. He will be greatly missed!"

It was from the folks at the animal hospital who had cared for and about Cody for 16 years. What a nice touch. Our friends also received sympathy cards from relatives and neighbors.

THE PFARR CORNER

Jerry Pfarr

That recalled seven years ago when our family received a similar sympathy card from our cat Baxter's animal hospital.

Baxter lived to be 20. We briefly considered having her buried in a pet cemetery but decided a cat who was always looking for a warm and cozy lap wouldn't be at rest in the cold, hard ground.

We had her cremated at the animal hospital. I'll never forget handing Baxter, in her favorite box, to one of the women who worked there. "I'll take Baxter now," she said. "We know how much she has meant to your family."

Mark Twain suggested, "If man could be crossed with a cat, it would improve man but deteriorate the cat." He had five: Blatherskite, Sour Mash, Stray Kit, Satan and Sin.

Cats are clever little critters, regal and aloof, but for some reason lots of people dislike them. (Tyrants hate cats.)

Comedian Steven Wright says, "Curiosity killed the cat, but for a while I was a suspect."

Dogs, meanwhile, are smarter than people think, according to recent research by animal behaviorists.

Scientists are convinced dogs have basic math skills, that they can count; for example, which bowl of treats contains the most goodies.

The average dog, they say, learns to understand about 60 human words. And he also tries to talk to us. We used to think the dog's bark was simply a way of getting attention but a new study suggests individual dogs have specific barks with a range of messages. They usually use high-pitched single barks when they are separated from their owners and a lower, harsher super bark when strangers approach or the doorbell rings.

Playful woofs are high-pitched and unevenly spaced.

However, cat people still have a strong argument as to which pet is the smartest:

You can't get eight cats to pull a sled through snow.

SEEING

sometimes referred to as a powerful ward boss in the Democratic Party.

Jim Ryan has gone so far as to point out that his Irish ancestry immigrated from County Mayo, a different county from whence the "George clan" immigrated. You say, "So what?" Just to keep pace on the "issues," Rod Blagojevich's commercials inform us that his parents immigrated from Serbia. You say, "So what?"

Jim Ryan has spent so much time bashing "the other Ryan," that it raised "George's" Irish temper. The governor ranted that Jim was a lousy attorney general for eight years and really didn't distinguish himself for anything in particular. He did say something that I agreed with, and that is that Jim Ryan should spend less time in telling voters who he is not, and more time telling voters who he is.

The day after George Ryan unleashed his attack, he tried to muffle the blast. He said that what he really said was that Jim Ryan was running a lousy campaign, not that he was a lousy candidate. Then he said, "with a straight face," that he would vote for Jim Ryan. Boy, Jim can use that endorsement. At least, George wasn't under oath when he made the pledge.

Meanwhile, "Hot-Rod" is playing it "cool." He's watching the "Ryan Side-show," and enjoying every minute of it. He's acting like the Cub fans who sit in the stands and watch the team make fools of themselves and cheer them on.

Well, it's getting close to "crunch time" in the governor's race, and you can criticize me for not "sticking to the issues." To that, I plead guilty, but it's mainly because I haven't heard much about issues coming from the candidates.

For a state that has gone from a huge surplus to going "Dead-Red," the voters deserve more than the "name game." We have endured enough of that. Now that we have heard so much of "who the candidates are not," can we finally find out "who the candidates are, and what they stand for."

Jim, you owe us that, "By George."

VISTA HEALTH

Support Local Breast Cancer Programs — Join Jeans Day '02

Area businesses are invited to join in the local fight against breast cancer by taking part in Vista Health's "It's All in the Jeans Day 2002". Each participating business agrees to have their employees take part by donating $2 for the privilege of wearing denim (jeans) to work on "Jeans Day", Friday, October 4. Some businesses may choose to designate another date in October as "Jeans Day". Participating businesses agree to match their employee's donations. A major corporate sponsor, who will agree to match total overall contributions, is also being sought. In addition, "It's All in the Jeans Day" will accept one-time individual donations from businesses and area residents. For more information on how to participate in "It's All in the Jeans Day 2002," call the Vista Health Development Department at 847-360-2112.

Is hitting ever a good option with discipline?

Hi Dr. Singer,

We've been watching this story on the news about the mother who beat up her kid and got caught on videotape. I don't agree with beating on a child like that but when I hear her talking about the kid running around, touching everything, getting lost, getting out of control at the store, I'm sure a lot of parents would agree with me that there are sometimes reasons why a parent loses temper and hits. Don't you think that sometimes hitting a child is a good way of stopping behavior? No name left.

Hello No name,

PARENT'S PLACE

Dr. Sherri Singer

In 7 years of writing, I have never disagreed more with a caller. A parent hits when that parent loses control of him or herself and my motto is that an out of control parent cannot help an out of control child. I have spent the last 16 years teaching parents how to get great behavior change without needing to resort to hitting. There are many ways to help a child get control of him or herself without violence. Besides the obvious fact that hitting does not make the behavior go away permanently as many of the other things I teach do, but it also makes the child afraid of the hitter and teaches the child that he or she can get control of someone else through violent means. Is that really what you want to teach your child or any child for that matter?

All kids have different levels of being impulsive. I believe it's part of being a kid. The innocence of just doing something without thinking ahead is natural and normal. A parent's natural job is helping that child learn self-control. That happens best through consequences that are appropriate and are not fun for the child but are not physically harmful. There is a such thing as blowing the child's memory away through physical punishment that is harsh. No person can truly think about what he or she has done wrong and how it connects to the consequence when he or she is busy dealing with physical trauma. When hitting occurs, the child is just thinking about surviving the moment and cannot get to any higher thought. With the punishments I teach, the child does a lot of thinking and learns a lot so that next time he or she is faced with the same situation, instead of just reacting without thought, that child can think ahead and decide consciously not to go down that road without adults constantly having to remind him or her. I have never taught any parent to hit, but the results are still great. Proof positive!

Then there is the problem that involves processing. Many of these kids who are getting in trouble all the time, are not doing it on purpose. They may have a problem remembering what they are supposed to do. They may have a problem with being still or paying attention for periods of time. They may have a serious multi-tasking problem where they are told what to do, but because they cannot pay attention both visually and in an auditory way at the same time, they lose information and space out and lose control of themselves. These are all processing problems that can make bad behavior a daily issue. Some of the biggest guilt problems I have ever seen, come from parents who I have met while testing their child and finding out that in fact, that child has some or all of those processing problems and actually was not doing the behavior to just get under the parent's skin. Of course, as long as a parent has been appropriate with punishment and not violent, I try very hard to calm the guilt because most parents try to do the best they can. Unfortunately, by the time I see them, that child might have been punished and punished and punished when there was a real underlying problem that needed to be corrected before any punishment would teach anything permanent. If your memory is not up to speed or you don't process what you hear well, verbal directions are not going to mean much to you. So, I always recommend that prior to starting any behavior consequences, the child's processing skills should be carefully evaluated to make sure the child can maintain all of it and if the child cannot, we train him or her so he or she can maintain successfully. There is no such thing as not being able to correct those problems. This is a dangerous area to put the cart before the horse. Dangerous for self-esteem. Make sure the child can handle understanding the appropriate punishment and can connect it to the act prior to using it.

If you believe that hitting a child is a good thing, I am going to strongly recommend that you get therapy for that now. If you want to talk to me in person, I am glad to do that if you call again. If not me, find it somewhere. Yellow pages, doctor referral, friend referral. Somewhere. If you hit your child after out of control anger outbursts, you clearly need to seek out anger management help.

Just remember this, the parent who hits has run out of other ideas. Don't go there. You don't have to.

Lake Forest Hospital launched $65 million building program

A Center for Women's Health and a Grayslake campus to be built

Following approval by the Illinois Health Facilities Planning Board last month, Lake Forest Hospital (LFH) is making plans to break ground twice this fall for two new state-of-the-art medical facilities. One of the construction projects will be followed by renovations to the main hospital building. Total cost of all three projects is $65 million.

The first groundbreaking ceremony took place Sept. 24 on the LFH grounds—marking the start of a $22 million Center for Women's Health addition to the main hospital building. This new 72,000 square-foot, four-level wing is due to open in late 2003. It will have its own entrance and parking area. Lake Forest Hospital's Center for Women's Health will allow a one-stop, comprehensive health assessment for women of all ages. Services are planned to be holistic, designed to improve the health of body, mind and spirit. The Center for Women's Health will include:

- * A Breast Care Center featuring four mammography suites and two ultrasound rooms

- * A new Maternity Center complete with all private post partum rooms and more comfortable facilities for new fathers' overnight stays

- * A comprehensive Women's Wellness Center offering such services as health-risk assessments, disease prevention, nutritional counseling, weight control services, a pain clinic, exercise prescriptions and smoking cessation

- * An osteoporosis program
- * Psychological counseling

Library/Resource Center

- * Educational services
- * A Women's Boutique for cancer patients' needs and lactation supplies

- * Physicians' offices
- * A child care service for women with appointments in the center

Lake Forest Hospital President Bill Ries says, "The Center for Women's Health creates the only place in Lake County where women will be able to receive a comprehensive approach to health prevention, wellness and clinical services tailored to each stage of their lives."

Completion of the Center for Women's Health will free up some space and clear the way for renovation work in LFH's main building. This $4 million dollar project, due for completion in 2005, will allow for the expansion and improvement of existing services as well as more patient privacy. The 21,000 square feet of remodeled space will provide:

- * A new pediatric unit and a new pediatric day surgery department
- * An expanded Gastrointestinal Laboratory

- * An expanded Sleep Lab and neuro-diagnostics
- * The conversion of semi-private medical/surgical patient rooms to private rooms

Lake Forest Hospital's second groundbreaking ceremony this fall will take place near the southwest corner of Routes 120 and 45, at a future date to be determined, for the Grayslake Prairie Crossing Campus. This $39 million project will provide a comprehensive health and wellness campus on a 44-acre setting in the heart of Lake County. The three-story, 136,000 square foot facility, due to open in early 2004, will include:

- * A full-service Urgent Care Center providing walk-in medical services for non-life-threatening situations

- * An Outpatient Diagnostic and Treatment Center featuring clinical laboratory services, a full-service radiology facility, non-invasive cardiology services, and audiology services

- * Physical, occupational and speech therapy
- * Physicians' offices

It will be located just west of the Country Squire restaurant (just north of the Prairie Crossing subdivision). "The Grayslake Prairie Crossing Campus will bring high-quality outpatient services closer to central Lake County residents," according to Ries. "These plans have been received by Lake County communities with enthusiastic support. While based in Lake Forest, Lake Forest Hospital and our physicians have always served patients from throughout Lake County and southern Wisconsin."

'Cocooning' increases the importance of chimney inspections

As Americans find peace of mind at home "cocooning" with family this fall and winter, many will be enjoying the comfort of a warm fire. However, homeowners planning to make good use of their fireplaces this season should consider some simple maintenance procedures, including a chimney inspection.

"A chimney inspection is like an annual dental check-up," states Ashley Eldridge, director of education at the Chimney Safety Institute of America (CSIA). "It's preventative maintenance that helps minimize potential hazards. Sometimes, maintenance requires extra diligence. That's the case this year."

To reduce the risk of chimney fires, the CSIA cautions people that might be increasing their fireplace use in the fall and winter to put a chimney inspection at the top of their home improvement list. This caution is primarily directed at people who might increase their wood-burning fireplace usage from an occasional fire to a weekly activity. According to Eldridge, people who use fireplaces infrequently tend to be less informed about the important role that the chimney plays in exhausting the hot gases and smoke from a fire. When a chimney has creosote build-up, or is obstructed by a bird's nest or debris, it has the potential to catch fire and cause damage.

This impact is demonstrated by recent statistics from the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission. According to the CPSC there were 18,300 residential fires in the United States in 1998 originating in chimneys, fireplaces and solid fuel appliances. These fires resulted in 160 personal injuries, 40 deaths and $158.2 million in property damage.

In addition to an annual inspection, the CSIA recommends these tips for reducing the threat of a chimney fire:

- * Add a chimney cap to the top of your chimney. A cap can keep out damaging moisture, which wears away masonry and other metal components within a chimney.

- * Ensure that your chimney has an appropriate liner. Chimney liners are required in new construction to separate system emissions from the structure of your home.

- * Have chimney flashing (the seal between the chimney and the roof) inspected and maintained. Flashing prevents rain water and snow melt from entering a house and causing costly damage to walls and ceilings.

The National Fire Protection Association (NFPA) also recommends that all chimneys be inspected on an annual basis to prevent chimney fires. The CSIA adds that the best choice for a professional is a sweep certified by the Chimney Safety Institute of America.

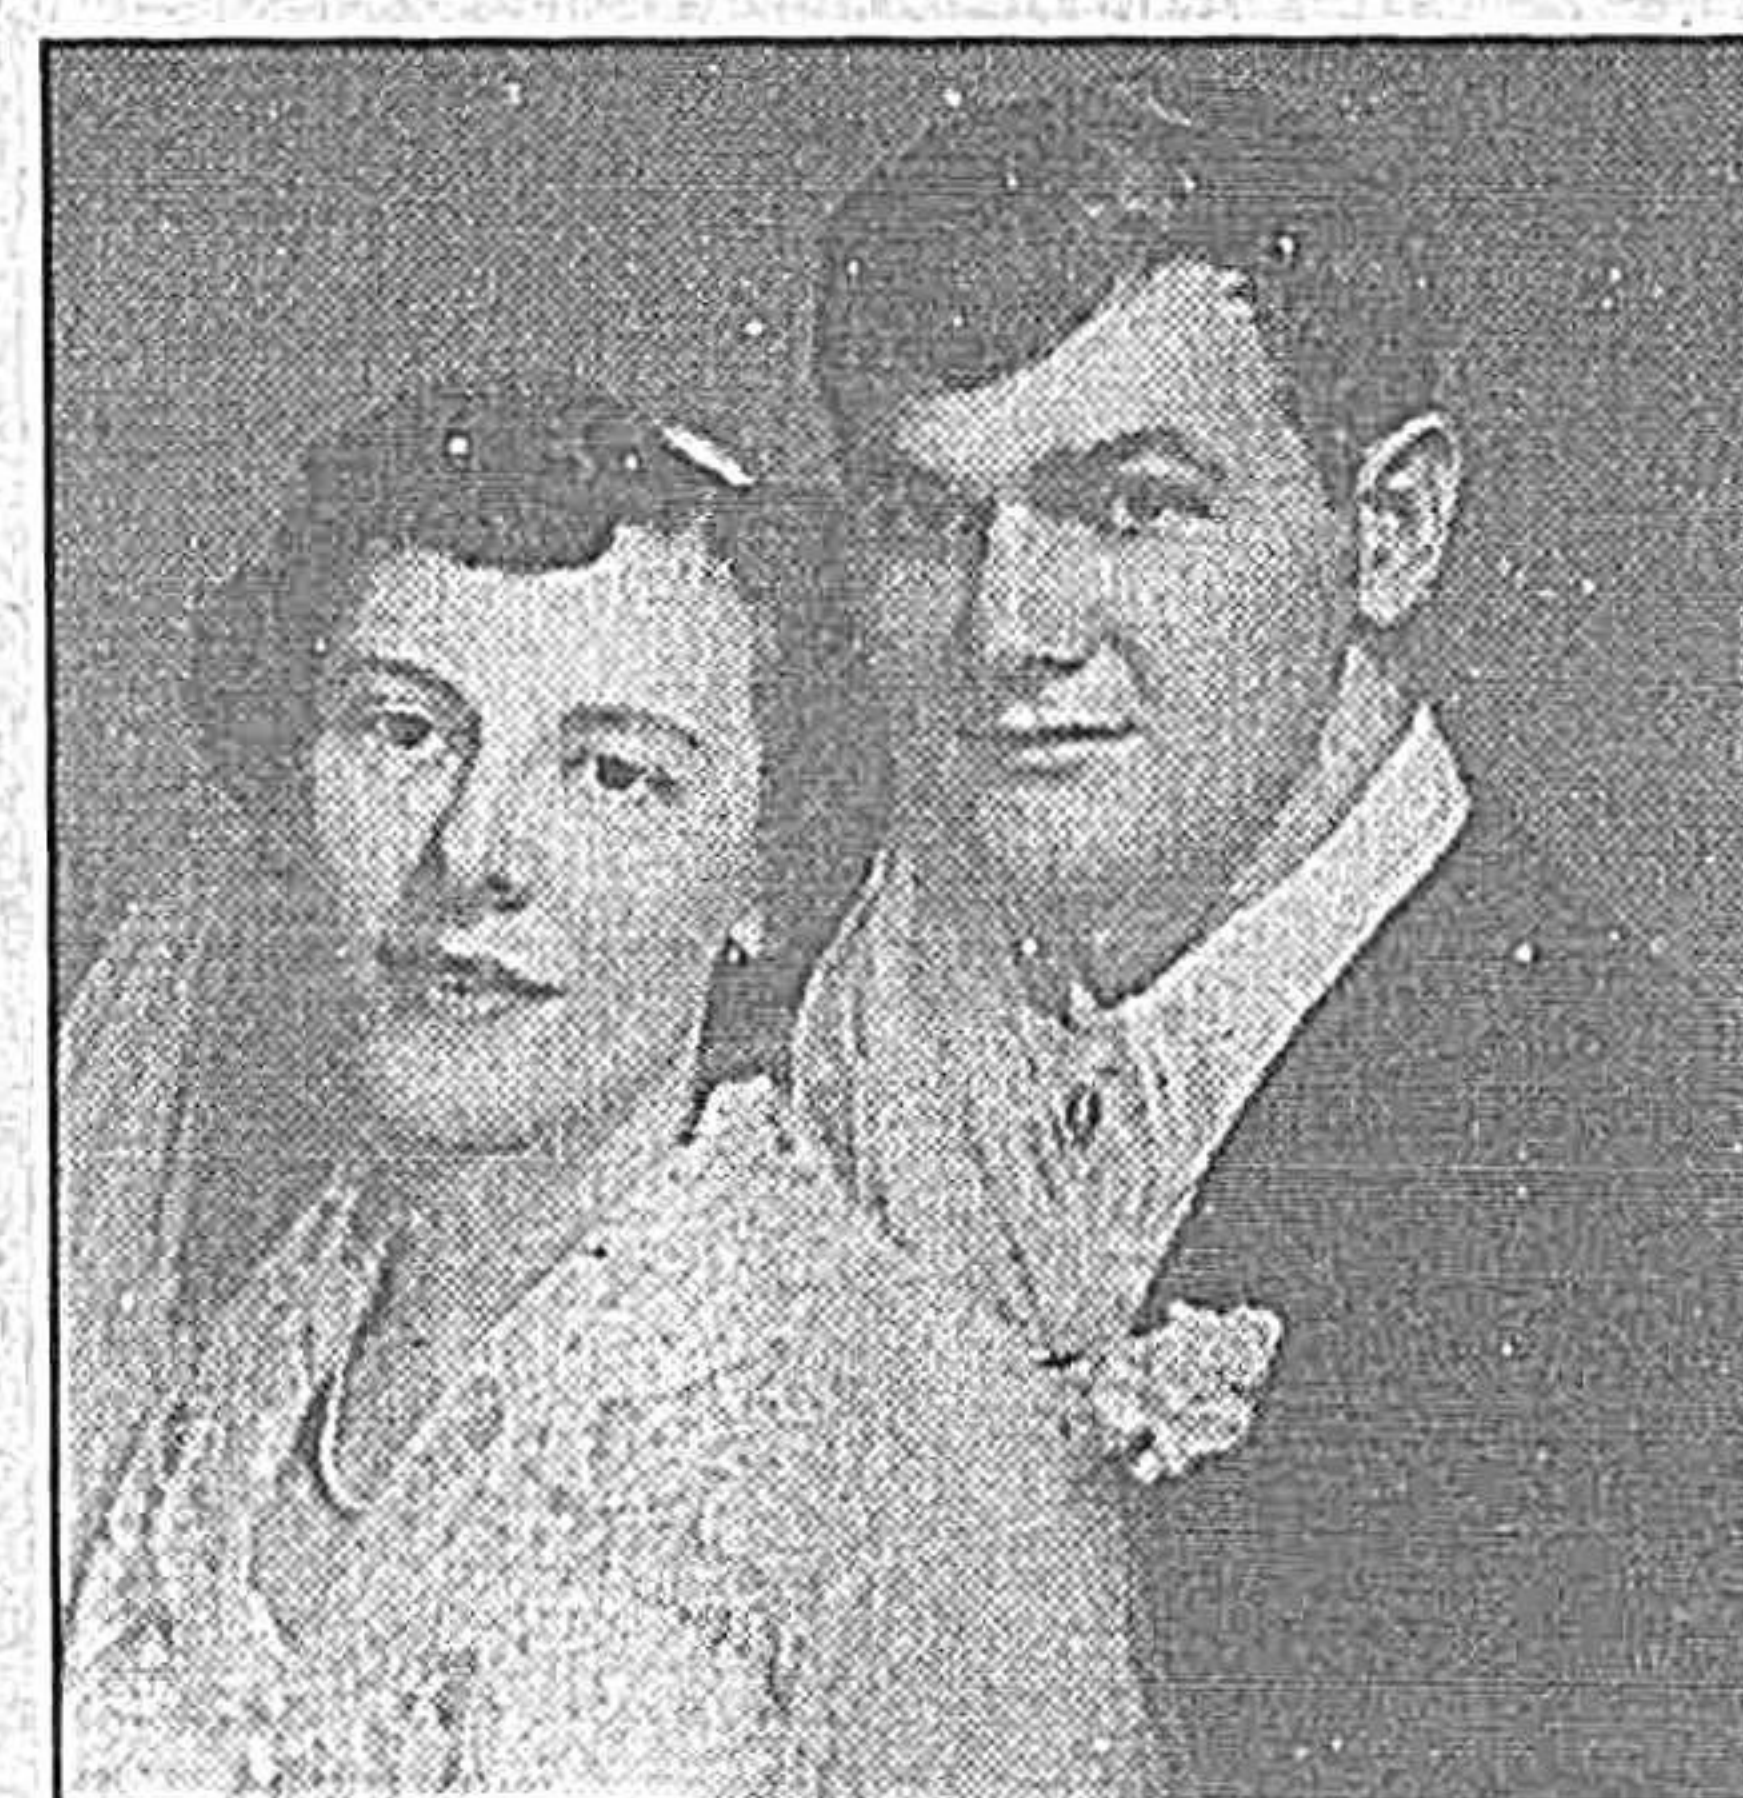

Each fall, CSIA-certified chimney sweeps work together to raise awareness of chimney safety during National Chimney Safety Week, which begins this year on Sept. 29 and runs through Oct. 5.

For more information about preventing chimney hazards or for a free copy of the brochure "Chimney Inspections Explained for the Homeowner" call (800) 536-0118 or visit the CSIA Web site at www.csia.org. The CSIA also provides a list of CSIA certified chimney sweeps online and by mail.

James & Theresa Schlosser

James and Theresa (Gedvilas) Schlosser celebrated 50th anniversary on Sept. 13 with a special family dinner at a local restaurant.

Their children, Jim and Anita Schlosser of Ames, Iowa; Evelyn and Tom Jadrach of Lindenhurst; Joe and Cathy Schlosser of Waukegan and Dan and Nancy Schlosser of Grayslake joined in the celebration. Their grandchildren, Zoe, Drew, Jennifer, Kristen, Rudy and Dawn and their great grandchildren Kylie and Sky also helped celebrate the occasion.

The couple met on a blind date, but weren't with each other.

They were standing under a street light on Theresa's birthday, when James gave Theresa the engagement ring and asked her to marry him.

WEST NILE

Jim Whipper, of the Lake County Coroner's office confirmed that Walker died from West Nile encephalitis. Walker's death brings the number of deaths in Illinois to 27 from the mosquito-borne disease. Additionally, there are 29 confirmed, new cases of the disease in the state. The 27 new cases now raise the total number of human cases of the disease in the state to over 500, the most of any state in the U.S.

The spread of the virus across the eastern United States has occurred quicker than anticipated. The Center for Disease Control stated that a vaccine for the disease is at least 2 to 3 years away. A total of 508 birds, 528 mosquito batches and 415 horses, in 98 Illinois counties, have tested positive for the virus since surveillance of the disease began on May 1. There has been one reported death so far of a family dog.

Leslie Piotrowski, the Lake County Health Department spokesperson said this is not a public health crisis, but is a concern that needs to be managed. Walker was only the second human case of the virus reported in Lake County, but was the first death attributed to the disease.

The first person in Lake County stricken was hospitalized with a mild case of the disease and has since been released. A horse in Zion also tested positive for the disease.

Walker was admitted to the hospital on Sept. 7 and died on Sunday, Sept. 22. Walker's symptoms included a headache and fever. She became lethargic and went into a stupor before she died.

Thus far, there have been 5 deaths from Chicago, 13 from suburban Cook County and one each from DuPage, Effingham, Fulton, Macon, Madison, Moultrie and Sangamon counties.

Illinois Department of Public Health Director, John Lumpkin, said there needs to be an intensive investigation of two small areas on the edges of Chicago. Two areas of Cook County have accounted for many of the West Nile cases since mid-September. One area includes the northern suburbs and runs down into Chicago's far north and northwest sides. The area is only 72 square-miles, with 83 cases attributed to the area.

The other section is on the southern and southwestern part of Chicago and goes out to the far southwest suburbs. This area is approximately 215 square miles and there have been 123 cases reported. The average age of all cases in Illinois is 56 with an age range between 3 months and 97.

FAULKNER

mother, Susan Esty-Vose lived to age 96 while her brother and sister—Elsie Phelps and George Vose—lived to be 102 and 94 respectively.

When you've lived to see 20 U.S. presidents go through office—from Grover Cleveland to George W. Bush—you can say you have had a full, and in Faulkner's case, a fulfilling life, said Rudd and her other daughter Marilyn (Al) See, 69, of Grayslake.

"We were lucky to have had our mother around for so long," See said.

The Faulkner family bought a 160-acre farm now known as the Stonegate subdivision in Gurnee for $1.25 an acre in 1839, according to family records. While her husband, Chester, died in 1965, Faulkner went on to have four children, 11 grand-children, 21 great-grand-children and 2 great-great-grandchildren.

Sue Hawkins, public information manager for the Lake County Forest Preserve, and a coordinator for the annual Senior Citizens Day gatherings every summer that celebrate the county's centenarians for the past 30 years, thinks Faulkner held the honor of being the county's oldest resident.

"Off the top of my head, I don't think I've ever heard of anyone in Lake County living that long," Hawkins said. "We ask nursing homes and residences every year who their oldest residents are, and for the past few years of the Senior's Day, Estelle has been the oldest."

Hawkins said usually 10-15 people over 100-years-old show up annually.

Representatives of the county clerk, vital records office and coroner said they believe Faulkner was Lake County's oldest resident.

According to Hawkins, the title of the county's oldest living resident now goes to Kalliope Avgerin, who also resides at Winchester House, who is 106. Avgerin was born on March 15, 1896. Faulkner and Avgerin were roommates at Winchester, See said.

Calls to Libertyville Manor, Winchester House, Rolling Hills and Victory Lakes, some of the larger senior residences in the county did not reveal anyone with knowledge of someone living here past age 108.

Faulkner was to be buried Friday at Warren Cemetery in Gurnee.

'Buddy Walk' at Lambs Farm set Benefit for Down syndrome awareness this Sunday

By DENYS BUCKSTEN
Staff Reporter

The Down syndrome Development Counsel's "Buddy Walk" has arrived.

On Sunday, Sept. 29, the annual event will be held at Lambs Farm in Libertyville.

The noon to 5 p.m. Buddy Walk is designed to raise funds for the 250-member Lake County agency, and promote awareness and understanding of people with Down syndrome.

A circuitous walk route, on the grounds of Lambs Farm, at Route 176 and the Tri-State Tollway, will not be timed.

The awareness component, say organizers, is having someone other than a parent walk with children and young people with Down syndrome, to promote awareness and acceptance.

In addition to the walk, there will be raffle sales from noon until 3 p.m., the Lambs Farm carousel, train and miniature golf all afternoon, for only $1 per person, sand bottle art, games, a drawing table, face painting, balloon animals, the barnyard animals, Discovery Center, plenty of food and live music.

Also on Sept. 29, the counsel, 25 years in Lake County, will launch its web site: www.downsyndromedevelopmentcounsel.com.

The Buddy Walk concept was developed by the National Down Syndrome Society in 1995, with more than 125 walks planned for this year.

COLLEGE OF LAKE COUNTY SPORTS ROUNDUP

It's soul-searching time for Lancer men's soccer

By JOE PRUSKI
Correspondent

Two losses to conference opponents last week have dropped the College of Lake County men's soccer team down in the standings and further from achieving their goal of a conference title.

The Lancers, now 1-3 in conference and 2-5 overall, lost 2-4 to Moraine Valley last week on the road.

Luis Sierra and Scott Lang scored for CLC, while Drew Jung assisted both scores.

Following the Moraine Valley loss, CLC headed to Oakton, where they again lost in conference play 1-5.

Jorge Centeno scored the lone goal for the Lancers.

"I think (Moraine Valley) scored because we made a lot of mistakes early, and that put pressure on our defense, and they became weaker," said head coach Rodolfo Ruiz-Velasco.

CLC still has two conference games remaining, in an attempt to finish the season .500 in the Skyway Conference.

"We still have two conference games, and we want to win them both," said Velasco. "Our goal is to play good and finish higher in the conference."

According to Velasco, the team has been getting solid contributions from a number of players, including Jordan Brown, Jason Meyers, Jose Castro, Drew Jung, Adam Schuster, and leading scorer Juan Verrera.

"I think we have pretty good individual players, but the difference is that now they are starting to play as a team," said Velasco.

Defenseman Jordan Brown was named athlete of the week last week for his strong defense in a 1-0 shutout against Elgin earlier this month.

Other results Women's tennis

Although the College of Lake County women's soccer team is off to an 0-4 start this season, there is reason to believe improvement will be along shortly.

"Our youth and inexperience is the main thing holding us back right now," said first year head coach Rich Koukol. "We have five freshman and one sophomore, but we have had several very close matches."

Both Lindsay Ferguson and Laura Bach have earned 3-1 records as singles players. Bach along with Sara Schirer have combined as a doubles team to go 2-2, and Ferguson along with Luba Brennan have a 1-3 record as a doubles team.

Going into the year the team's main goal had been to be more competitive in conference, and even with the 0-1 start in the Skyway Conference, Koukol believes the team will have success.

"We've improved every match, and now that we're entering the conference season, we're going to have success," he said. "I think we'll finish in top three of the conference, I'm pretty confident of that."

According to Koukol, the team's lone sophomore, Ferguson, has been instrumental in helping the young team along.

"Lindsay brings leadership as well as consistency to the team, she's a very steady player," he said.

Women's soccer

The CLC women's soccer team turned in an outstanding team effort in shutting out Bethany Lutheran 1-0. The lone goal was scored in the second half when Becky Grinnell knocked in a header past the keeper off of a crossing pass from Nikki Stefani. The Lancers dominated most of the game, keeping the ball on Bethany's side of the field. The win moved the team's mark to 8-1-1 on the season.

Men's soccer

The men's soccer team suffered a 5-1 loss to Oakton in Skyway Conference play. Jorge Centeno's goal in the second half was all the Lancers could manage. Drew Jung did a nice job of controlling the mid-field but unfortunately was limited on his scoring chances. Oakton had tallied two goals in the first half to pull ahead for good. The Lancers then dropped a 4-2 decision to Moraine Valley in another Skyway contest. Luis Sierra and Scott Lang scored the Lancer goals. Jung again played well in the midfield. He distributed important passes throughout.

CLC had scored in the opening minutes of the contest but Moraine Valley tallied three times before half time to take the lead for good.

CLC dropped to 2-5 overall and 2-4 in the conference.

Men's golf

Kurt Kubicek fired rounds of 73-75 (148) to pace the men's golf team to an eighth-place finish in the IVCC Invitational down in Oglesby. As a team, CLC shot rounds of 308-309 in the 36-hole, 17-team event.

Derek Hartman carded rounds of 78-78 (152), Adam Placko 75-80 (155) and Alex Hofeldt 84-76 (160) to round out the Lancer scoring. Shawn Decker finished with a 36-hole total of 163 (80-83).

Hofeldt then fired a 77, Kubicek a 79 and Placko and Hartman 80s as CLC finished second (316) in the latest Skyway meet. Decker carded an 83 while Aaron Kropke an 85 to round out the CLC scoring. With one meet remaining, CLC is currently in third place with 14 points. Moraine Valley leads the way with 17, followed by Elgin (16), Waubesa (9) and Oakton (4).

Athletes of the Week

Men's Soccer

Drew Jung earned the honor this week after feeding teammates with precise passes while patrolling the midfield during two games last week.

Women's Volleyball

Julia Gier led the Lady Lancers defensively during CLC's upset of Moraine Valley. Despite a broken arm, Gier broke a CLC single-game mark with 8 digs in less than two games. She also demonstrated strong passing during the win over Moraine Valley. Unfortunately, she had to leave the game early and is forced to sit out the remainder of the season with her broken arm.

Closest points race in Wilmot history goes to Moulis

By PAUL KUYAWA
Wilmot Correspondent

With the season points championship on the line, drivers and crews were on pins and needles. A season of long hard work was going to be decided at the end of 25 laps. A mere six points separated first and second place in the points at the start of the A-main.

Gurnee's Tony Engels. And Beach Park's Donald Dodd brought the 20-car field to the green flag, with Engels jumping out into the lead. Dodd blasted into the lead on lap nine while Rick Kelsey of West Allis moved into second. A fire on the sprinter of Antioch's Frank Moser brought out the red 10 laps into the race.

On the restart Dodd led with Kelsey right on his rear bumper. But Kelsey took the lead from Dodd on lap 11 and proceeded to check out on the field. Third place running Dave Moulis of Johnsburg hit the starting cone on the restart, penalizing him two positions, which he quickly made back up.

Moulis and Beach Park's Brian Kristan were in a terrific battle for the third place, a battle that Kristan ended up winning. Early leader Engels found himself in fifth place having a spirited battle with points leader Todd Daun of Pleasant Prairie running sixth, one position short of a championship claim.

As the laps wound it was clear that Kelsey had things well in hand. He was able to stretch out his lead to a full straight away as the white flag was flying. Kelsey flew around the third mile oval one last time to take the checkered flag ahead of Dodd, who ran a fabulous race to finish second. Kristan was able to nail down the third place while Moulis came home fourth and Engels maintained his fifth place position.

Kelsey's rocket ship was the class of the field. He could run his sprinter anywhere on the track. It was Kelsey's second championship night victory in a row as he also topped last years event.

After winning the A-main, Kelsey did a Helio Castroneves type of celebration as he climbed the fence and saluted the fans. In turn, the fans loudly returned the salute with a deafening round of applause.

"The car was awesome. I really have to thank my crew they busted their butts all year. We have been real close recently and tonight all the hard work paid off," Kelsey said.

With Kelsey winning by a healthy margin, all eyes were focused on the season long points battle between Moulis and leader Daun. After a season of racing it all came down to the last race and the last lap.

With Moulis finishing fourth and Daun ending up sixth, it allowed Moulis to win the season championship by a single point. Had Daun finished one spot higher in the A-main, there would have been a new champion. It was the closest points war in the 51-year history of the Wilmot Speedway. Points leader Dave Moulis once again suffered terminal drive line failure in his heat race.

Thanks to a superman type effort, Moulis and his crew put the 20M back together. A complete rear end and drive line were also installed, allowing Moulis to make the call in the championship-deciding A-main. It was work that paid off huge dividends, as Moulis was able to claim yet another Wilmot Speedway points crown.

In the IMCA modified main, Genoa City's Mike Simons II jumped out to an early lead with pressure coming from Nick Simons, also of Genoa City. After an early race caution, Simons II continued to lead. Visiting driver Jared Siefert of Green Bay took the lead at the mid-point of the race when Simons II broke while leading. Mike Sullivan of Trevor kept the pressure on Siefert but he came up just a little short finishing second. Rob Olsen of Lake Villa finished third, followed by Green Bay's Jay Schraufnagel of Green Bay, WI and Kansasville's Larry Marshall rounding out the top-5.

It was Siefert's first trip to the Wilmot Speedway. It was a memorable one as he took home the winner's trophy.

Meanwhile, Antioch's Scott Kuxhouse was crowned the 2002 Wilmot IMCA Modified track champion.

In the IMCA Hobby Stock A-main, it was Pleasant Prairie's Brian Hyde scoring the victory in a wild event. Cars were trading positions as well as paint most of the race with Hyde managing to stay out of trouble the most. Zion's Tony Schlei finished second with Jim Scanlon, also from Pleasant Prairie, Genoa City's Lyle Bottlemey and Kenosha's Kris Techert completing up the top-5. Bottlemey earned the 2002 Wilmot Speedway IMCA Hobby Stock Title.

Doug Dean of Zion bounced his No. 2 sprinter off the front straight wall in the third heat race. While it was a wild crash, Dean emerged uninjured.

The next race at the Wilmot Speedway will be Oct. 5-6. The first annual Al Winker Memorial will be run on both days where special guests and surprises will greet fans. The 410 Sprint Cars will be in action along with the IMCA Modifieds and IMCA Hobby Stocks. For up to the minute race and weather information, please call Wilmot Speedway at (262) 862-2446 or keep up to speed on the Wilmot web site at www.wilmotspeedway.com. Times trials start at 4 p.m. on Oct. 5 with races to follow. Sunday's race action begins at 3 p.m. sharp.

TRIANGLE FAMILY RESTAURANT

JOIN US AS WE CELEBRATE OUR 30 YEAR ANNIVERSARY

In 1960 Jimmy Stergiou started out in the restaurant business and is still going strong today. He and his family settled in Grayslake 30 years ago and on October 1, 1972 he became the owner of the Triangle Family Restaurant.

The Stergiou Family would like to take this opportunity to thank its patrons, friends & surrounding Lake County communities who, for the past 30 years have made our family restaurant so successful.

We would also like to thank every one of the hard-working and dedicated members of our staff who have been with us throughout the years. Without these individuals our success would not have been possible.

A special thanks to Ms. Sue Fox who has been with us for 30 years. Her loyalty and service is greatly appreciated. Thank you one and all. The Stergiou Family looks forward to serving Lake County for many years to come.

FAULK, GREEN AND MOSS COMBINE FOR UNDER 30 YARDS

Ahman Green never even dressed. Marshall Faulk played and left the game with an injury. Randy Moss had few passes thrown his way. Any way you cut it, top fantasy picks took a beating this week.

Throw in horrible games from Kurt Warner, Dante Culpepper and Issac Bruce, and you can see the need to start looking for means of scoring from some "lesser" hyped players.

A few you might look at include: Tom Brady, Kerry Collins, Rodney Peete, Lamar Smith, Troy Brown, Hines Ward and Dante Stallworth. Brady, who jumped into the spotlight at last year's Super Bowl, has been rock solid since taking over for Drew Bledsoe. Now it appears Brady is looking at taking it up even another notch after throwing for 400+ yards in week three. Kerry Collins is quietly putting together a group of 10 games in a row throwing over 275 per contest. Rodney Peete, who played college ball against Troy Aikman fifteen years ago, threw for more than 200 yards in each of the Panthers three upset victories.

Lamar Smith wasn't even supposed to be Carolina's starting tailback, but after an injury to rookie DeShawn Foster, Smith has rushed for huge numbers and has two multiple TD games. Troy Brown has played like the Patriot's top gun, last week catching 176 yards in another New England win. Hines Ward had the week off...and still has three touchdowns on the season. And Dante Stallworth is a rookie for the Saints with 3 scores, including the winner against the Bears.

Having players like that make it easier to win when your superstar has a bad game. Entries postmarked before Oct.1 are eligible for the October contest, any that come in after that will be put in the November showdown. Good luck!

Nobody's doormat

Information compiled by John Phelps and Steve Peterson. Photos taken by Sandy Bressner, Lynn Gunnarson Dahlstrom, Candace H. Johnson and Steve Young.

Scoring is up and so are the wins for several Lakeland-Area teams. With the heart of the football season upon us, teams begin to jockey for position as conference play begins. Playoff spots are also on the minds of many.

After a semifinal appearance in the State playoffs a year ago, the Carmel Corsairs look to be headed in a similar direction. Carmel is 4-0 to this point, with monumental wins over Mt. Carmel and Loyola to its credit. Quarterback Mark Venegoni has made great strides since week 1 in Carmel's potent triple-threat offense. Dexter Reid Jr. is sniffing his interception total of 10 from a year ago—he has three picks so far.

But Carmel isn't the only team playing well down in the Rte. 176 area. Upstart Mundelein is off to its best start (4-0) since 1989. The Mustangs are, in theory at least, one win away from its first playoff berth in school history. Quarterback Matt Drecoll, wide receiver Jake Gaebler and the backfield of Matt Heber and Jamie Hawkins have helped the Mustangs average 37 points per contest on offense.

Down the road a piece is Libertyville, which is off to another solid start at 3-1. Kevin Fontana, Santino Panico and John Haas have been running wild for the Cats, who open North Suburban Lake play with always-tough Stevenson this week.

Let's not forget about Vernon Hills. The Cougars, in only their third year, have sent a message that last year's 8-3 mark and quarterfinal appearance in the State playoffs are no fluke. Vernon, off to a 3-1 start, is solid on defense. The offense is guided by speedsters Keith Heerdegen and Matt Leffler. Another date in the quarter's? Don't bet against it.

The most intriguing team is perhaps Warren, who is off to one of its best starts in school history at 4-0. The Devils, who lost several key players from its State quarterfinal team last year, have filled in the holes nicely. Matt Brocki is close to the top in the county in rushing. Ryan Treiber has picked off five passes to lead a stingy defense that has allowed a meager 8 points per game.

Wide receiver MacArthur White and Zion-Benton look to be strong contenders for the Prairie division title. Nate Rodriguez and Grant (3-1) will have something to say about that as division play gets underway this week. The 'Koz' and Wauconda are going through some growing pains, as are sophomore Scott Yingling and Round Lake. Antioch's offense has shown signs of life but giving up big plays have hurt the Sequoits, who slipped to 1-3 to start the year.

How about Grayslake! Vito Andriola has instilled that fire and desire in his troops, especially where the defense is concerned. Ryan Glynn has been one of the leaders anchoring a defense that has allowed just 41 points per game by the opposition.

And over in neighboring McHenry County, Bob Bradshaw has the Johnsburg Skyhawks sitting at 2-2 and poised for another run at the State playoffs.

Should be interesting coming down the stretch. Last year, the area saw eight teams make it to the post-season dance. Chances certainly look good where repeating that is concerned.

Returning to their roots

Former area players now coach at their high schools

By STEVE PETERSON
Staff Reporter

Some familiar names dot the coaching ranks of area high schools.

The alum's have returned to their former sites of two-a-day drills, homecoming games, and playoff thrills as coaches who have "been there, done that" for the greater glory of their alma maters.

Grant coach Mark Barczak commented on former players as coaches, Kurt Rous and Tom Evans. Rous is defensive coordinator while Evans helps out on offense.

The two played for the Bulldogs in the 1980s for Coach Mike Rogowski, while Barczak was an assistant coach.

They are Crista Garza, Walter Alvaranga and Jim Dahm.

"They are doing a great job," said Round

Schild

Nazarene The team for his junior year went 8-2 then played in four playoff games in Hastings, Neb., Sioux Falls South Dakota, and at home before making the national final against Azrhhah State in Savannah, Tenn. Olivet-Nazarene, now known as training home of the Chicago Bears, played a thriller, but lost, 17-14.

"I remember that game. We were ahead, but they got a safety and then drove it down the field," Garza said.

He is working on staff at RLHS as he pursues his teaching degree.

The Warren-Mundelein showdown of two 4-0 teams proved to be interesting. MHS defensive coordinator Kurt Sooley played defense when he was a Blue Devil.

Warren sophomore coach Brandon Schild was a major part of the WTHS quarterfinalist team of 1991.

Rous, Grant's defensive coordinator, has coached the likes of Leo LaBrie (Augustana), Aaron Behm, Tony Romano, Tom Bez (Carthage). The guy that I compare to myself the most is Bez. His first year in football was his sophomore year, and he was our MVP. He played some on the varsity as a junior, and was a captain as a senior," Rous said.

Rous came back to help Grant's staff in 1992, the year after he graduated North Central College in Naperville. He has been a staff member at Grant since 1996, and also is on the track team's coaching staff.

Rous said the secondary is the hardest part of defense for high school players to learn. "If you make a mistake, then everyone knows about it," he said.

Rous played for North Central College at linebacker for four years after Grant. "We saw some great competition, such as Augustana after it won four straight Division III titles," Rous said.

Rous likes the defense the present Bulldogs, led by the likes of Matt Fiordiroso, Nick Fain, Chris Shannon and Eric Horvath, all in the 20-tackle club, and Chris Neumuller, who tops them all with 30 tackles.

The assistants bring youthful enthusiasm plus a not-so-distant feeling of having been there themselves.

On the Sidelines...

Things overheard during the heat of competition

"I got it in the hip."—Carmel running back Brandon Ziemann on a bad hand-off

"That's my ball."—Grant Head Coach Mark Barczak on an apparent fumble recovery in the fourth quarter.

"It's gonna be a long game. We're going to have to fight for it."—A Libertyville player during Zion-Benton's eventual 26-21 victory.

"The guy is so aggressive."—Mundelein Head Coach Jeff Geary on linebacker Derek Schafernak

"Man, that guy can fly."—Vernon Hills player on Warren's Marc Mohr returning a punt 65 yards for a score

"Get up, sidelines! We've got a game out here!"—Vernon players to their crowd after the Cougars scored against Warren to cut the deficit to 14-7

Mundelein High School's Ryan Higgins has always been a big guy. The soft-spoken right offensive guard is definitely one you don't want to meet in a dark alley.

When he first started playing freshman ball for the Mustangs, the now-senior was over 6-foot tall and tipped the scale at 315 pounds.

"It was funny," Higgins recalled. "All of the guys on the team thought I was a coach. They were shocked that I was a player. But they were happy I was on their team."

Well, after playing on the freshman and then the sophomore squad, the varsity troops are certainly happy to have him on their side as well.

"He's always been big," said varsity head coach Jeff Geary. "It's sometimes unfair that he's going against guys that are 250-pounds tops. He's so wide-bodied and has pretty quick feet."

It hasn't been an easy road for him this season, though.

Higgins was sidelined with a re-aggravated broken foot he sustained last year. Then, he was sick and had to sit out one game. When Higgins hasn't been able to play, juniors Rob Ray and Jack Clift have alternated.

But through it all, Higgins has persevered. In the two games he's started, he has been largely responsible for helping open gaping holes for running backs Jamie Hawkins and Matt Heber. The result of his blocking and the running of Hawkins and Heber—Mundelein is off to its best start (4-0) since 1989. Furthermore, the Mustangs are in position to make the playoffs for the first time in the school's history.

"I just try to block them (defenders) in the chest and drive them back," said Higgins. "I also try and use my feet and stay low. It's kind of fun, especially when after I do that to someone, they have the look like they don't want to go against me."

Aside from the obvious production on both sides of the ball, team chemistry has been an important ingredient in Higgins' and the Mustangs success thus far.

"Last year, there were little groups that hung out together," said Higgins. "but this year, we all lift, run and pretty much hang out together. The team dynamics have improved 100 percent."

Higgins is one of the biggest players in Lake County. But he'll have a chance to go up against Libertyville's Jeremy Sheldon in the Cats Homecoming game Oct. 5.

"I won't get to block against him because he's also on offense," said Higgins. "It'll just be fun to see him play because he's a pretty big dude. And Libertyville's a really good team."

Sheldon, also a senior, stands 6-feet, 5-inches and weighs in around 325.

As for Higgins, he does the shot put and discus for track in the spring. He also played volleyball for a brief time before breaking his foot.

LAKELAND MEDIA MIDSEASON FOOTBALL REPORT

Lakeland Area team-by-team capsules

Steve Peterson and John Phelps contributed to this report.

Antioch Sequoits (1-3, 0-0) North Suburban Lake Class 7A

Head coach: Del Pechauer (14th yr.)
Impact players: QB Brad Hoogerhyde (Sr.); LB/RB Scott Gehrke (Sr.); T Ken Barth (Sr.); WR Eric Lear, Jr.; WR Mike Lynn, Sr.; OL/DL Nick Arnold (Sr.); WR/DB Randy Frolich (Jr.); RB/DB Tom Rompella, Jr.
Down the stretch: The team struggled with the offense at times. Hoogerhyde does look like he's getting more comfortable. The defense, anchored by Scott Gehrke, has been stingy at times in forcing turnovers. Rompella provides a solid running attack while Lynn, recovering from an operation due to testicular cancer, have been pleasant surprises and go-to guys for Hoogerhyde. Long, sustained drives are key for this team, which has a tendency to let a big play by the opposition get the best of them. Playoffs are still within reach but the offense and defense need to be on the same page—for 48 minutes. Every week.
Quotable: "We'll try and keep things simple, with a good balance of passing and rushing. We'll definitely be competitive."—Head Coach Del Pechauer
Mid-season grade: D+

Carmel Corsairs (4-0, 2-0) Catholic Metro White Class 6A

Head coach: Andy Bitto (5th yr.)
Down the stretch: Folks; this team is for real. The first big test was Loyola. Check. Next, a date at Mt. Carmel. Check. Letdown against Fenwick in the Corsairs Homecoming game? Didn't happen. Carmel, which has equaled its best start in school history, looks stronger than it was during its State semifinal appearance from a year ago. Venegoni looks a lot more comfortable in the pocket. He's also scrambling and running the triple-threat option, kind of like some guy names Matt Roe. Robinson and Ziemann have given the Corsairs a potent running attack. The defense is solid, having only allowed just over 12 points per game. Reid Jr. already has three picks. Recovering only three fumbles and getting one quarterback sack—does this team have all of the ingredients to win a state title? So far, so good. Time will only tell.
Quotable: "We have great athletes at each and every position. We also have more depth than last year. These are the kind of guys who chew nails and spit rust."—Head Coach Andy Bitto
Mid-season grade: A+

Grant Bulldogs (3-1, 0-0) North Suburban Prairie Class 4A

Head coach: Mark Barczak (10th yr.)
Impact players: RB/LB Nate Rodriguez (Sr.); QB John Gier (Jr.); RB/DB Bryan Pinschke, So.; OL/DE Mike Madlener (Sr.); WR/DB Nick Fain (Sr.); RB/DT Matt Flordiroso (Sr.); WR/DE Chris Heino (Sr.); RB/DB Eric Horvath, So.
Down the stretch: The Bulldogs lost quality players at skill positions. But as Coach Barczak said, others seem to step up to the plate as the season wears on. Except for a loss at Mundelein, Grant goes into Prairie action with a 3-1 mark, largely due to the runnng of Rodriguez, who has almost 300 yards and three scores. Gier has been effective at quarterback. He runs the option well and has a plethora of good receivers in Fain, Horvath and junior Steve Fox. The defense has come up with big stops throughout the first four games. Flordiroso, Ryan Daudellin, Madlener, Jason Neumuller and Heino have all recovered fumbles while Bo McCart, Pinschke, Fain and junior DB Steve Ziegler have picked off at least one pass.
Quotable: "Someone always, whom you don't expect, comes to the forefront in the season opener."—Head Coach Mark Barczak
Mid-season grade: B

Grayslake Rams (2-2, 2-2) Fox Valley Class 7A

Head coach: Vito Andriola (2nd yr.)
Down the stretch: Don't look now, but Lesnak, Glynn, senior linebacker Chris McEllander and Peters anchor a stingy defense that has allowed a meager 11 points per contest. Defense does win ballgames, yes. And there's no better mastermind of intensity than Andriola. But where's the offense? Glynn and junior Nolan Jones lead the rushing attack. The Rams hit the bulk of its Fox Valley schedule with dates against McHenry, Lake Zurich and Prairie Ridge in the next three weeks. Pilibosian is getting better but really needs to get the offense in gear if Grayslake wants a shot at the playoffs.
Quotable: "I know I can go to war now with these guys."—Head Coach Vito Andriola
Mid-season grade: B

Libertyville Wildcats (3-1, 0-0) North Suburban Lake Class 7A

Head coach: Randy Kucyewski (9th yr.)
Down the stretch: With the exception of its only loss to North Chicago, this team is pretty scary. One minute, Fontana is dashing for a single-game school rushing record 218 yards. The next, it's backup running back Haas running for 157 yards in a win over Round Lake. However you look at it, the offensive line, or the 'mules', are doing the job. Holding on to the ball inside the opponents 20-yard line is crucial if the Cats want to repeat as NSC Lake champs. DeRose has really stepped up, having caught three scores in his last game. A big NSC Lake clash awaits Sept. 27 when the Stevenson Patriots come calling at 7:30 p.m. This game has traditionally proved to be pivotal where the crowning of the conference champ is concerned.
Quotable: "We have a great mix of juniors and seniors. Our five returning offensive linemen will lead the way."—Head Coach Randy Kucyewski

Mundelein Mustangs (4-0, 0-0) North Suburban Lake Class 7A

Head coach: Jeff Geary (3rd yr.)
Down the stretch: The Mustangs are trying to make the playoffs for the first time ever. They are conceivably one win away from doing that. The 4-0 start marks the best start since 1989. A potent backfield of Hawkins and Heber lead the way. Junior reserve Manny Cruz has been a nice complement. Drecoll has pinpoint accuracy, especially when it comes to hooking up with Lieberman and sophomore sensation Gaebler. Schafermak and Herry have been monsters on defense, among others. But now the test begins with the big guys of the NSC Lake division. Dates with Warren (Sept. 27) for Homecoming and a road date at cross-town rival Libertyville will let Mundelein know where it stands real quick.
Quotable: "We'll be improved but there are no cake-walks out there."—Head Coach Jeff Geary

Round Lake Panthers (0-4, 0-0) North Suburban Prairie Class 6A

Head coach: Kevin Dempsey (9th yr.)

Down the stretch: Despite an 0-4 start, it's still not too late for the Panthers, who will be fighting for their playoff lives. The team, which lost several key players at skill positions due to graduation, is showing signs of life. Look out for Yingling. For only a sophomore, this guy has really stepped to the plate in tossing for close to 700 yards. Operating out of the shotgun in a five-receiver set, Yingling's favorite targets have been Feltner (409 receiving yards) and Parker (203). Both are speedsters, as is Jon Anderson. But the Panthers, who have a tendency to let the game slip away after the first quarter, need to establish the running attack. The defense needs more intensity. It has allowed whopping 166 points (41 PPG avg.) through its first four games. A win on Homecoming against Wauconda Sept. 28 could turn things around. Or it could snowball. Stay tuned.
Quotable: "We're pretty inexperienced but our practices are going pretty well. We're only going to get better and better."—Head Coach Kevin Dempsey
Mid-season grade: D

Vernon Hills Cougars (3-1, 0-0) North Suburban Prairie Class 5A

Head coach: Tony Monken (3rd yr.)
Down the stretch: Special teams play cost the Cougars its only loss, a 27-13 decision against Warren. But these guys aren't the 'cardiac Cougars' from a year ago. With the speed of Lefler and All-State sprinter of Heerdegen, this team will run right past you in a heart-beat. Borden is looking better but needs to hold on to the ball when under pressure. The defense is stingy, led by Ellis, junior defensive lineman Jose Ruiz, senior defensive lineman Mark Abboreno and junior defensive lineman Zax Foster. Vernon had tremendous success playing at Libertyville's home field the last 2-plus seasons, where they went 6-1. But now they can start a new tradition at their place, Rustoleum Field. The first contest will be Homecoming Oct. 4 when North Chicago comes calling.
Quotable: "We have six guys who have been on varsity for three years. They are a pretty tight group."—Head Coach Tony Monken
Mid-season grade: B+

Warren Blue Devils (3-1, 0-0) North Suburban Lake Class 8A

Head coach: Dave Mohapp (5th yr.)
Down the stretch: Well, some of Coach Mohapp's questions have been answered. The Devils are off to one of their best starts at 4-0. Hard-nose runner Brocki, who has rushed for over 100 yards in the first four games, leads a solid ground attack. When Brocki doesn't have the ball, look for Treiber or junior Rey LaFuerce to run it up the gut. Treiber is also an animal on defense—he picked off four Vernon Hills' passes and now has five interceptions through four games. When Warren isn't running, Schmidt has the accuracy and range to go deep. Offensive lineman Adam Slater, Neil Goheen, John Gidls, Chance Wollbrink and Rob Caselli have opened gaping holes for Brocki and Co., something the Devils will need as NSC Lake battles begin this week.
Quotable: "We're still getting to learn all of the names. But Libertyville and Stevenson will be strong again. The rest will be scratching for what is left."—Head Coach Dave Mohapp
Mid-season grade: A

Wauconda Bulldogs (0-4, 0-0) North Suburban Prairie Class 5A

Down the stretch: Tackling, tackling and more tackling. The Bulldogs have given up the big play time and time again. First-year Head Coach Glen Kozlowski solidly stands by his troops, though. Kopacz has looked good at times but the Bulldogs haven't found that big-play, go-to guy yet. Wide receiver Mookie Kroepfl caught a 70-yard scoring strike from Kopacz in a loss to Mundelein last week. It takes big plays like that, consistently, if Wauconda wants to turn this thing around. Koz is proud of his team no matter what. But to finish strong would make it an even more memorable first season for the former Bear receiver.
Quotable: "I just want our guys to play tough but fair. Our goal is to not be anybody's Homecoming game."—Head Coach Glen Kozlowski
Mid-season grade: D

Johnsburg Skyhawks (2-2, 0-0) Big Northern Red Class 4A

Head coach: Bob Bradshaw (7th yr.)
Down the stretch: It'll be a tough road but the playoffs are still well within range. A big game at Richmond-Burton Sept. 27 starts a difficult stretch run.
The Skyhawks were able to nearly match a high-powered Byron team point-for-point before falling 39-28 for a 2-2 start. The Skyhawks split against Lake County teams, beating Round Lake 56-12 before falling to Grant 13-7. The other win came against Oregon.
"They were pretty explosive with a lot of speed," Head Coach Bob Bradshaw said of Byron. "Our QB, Freund, can throw to a lot of different receivers."
George Solomon has emerged as one of them, catching a 10-yard TD strike against Byron. Stefka rumbled for 140 yards against Byron and has 400 for the season. Freund's 150 yards passing, 50 percent completion percentage and 6 scoring strikes help balance out the attack on offense.
Quotable: "We're bigger, stronger and faster and looking to definitely bring our level of play up a notch."—Bob Bradshaw

Zion-Benton Zee Bees (3-1, 0-0) North Suburban Prairie Class 7A

Head coach: Gary Beretler (7th yr.)
Impact players: QB Kyle Grimes, Sr.; OL Nate McBride, Sr.; OL Nick Peroutka, Sr.; WR MacArthur White, Sr.; DB Marcus Denham, Sr.; DL Steve Slocumb, Sr.; DL Mike DeGrazio, Sr.
Down the stretch: MacArthur White has become the go-to guy. In a 26-7 victory over Lake Forest, the speedy wide receiver caught scoring strikes of 52 and 53 yards. This team can score points in bunches. Through its first four games, it's averaging 30 points per contest. Only thing, the defense has given up a lot of points in return, and in a hurry. Only thing, they give up a lot of points (88). Grimes will have good protection with McBride (6-4, 300) and Peroutka (5-9, 205) returning to the offensive line. Speed and depth are strengths for the Bees. On offense, Grimes will have the speedy White (6-1, 165), who caught 17 balls for 286 yards and four TDs last year.
Defensive back Denham (5-9, 160), defensive lineman Slocumb (6-0, 225) and DeGrazio (5-11, 205) bring size, speed and experience—the trio started every game as juniors in 2001.
The match-up Sept. 27 at home against North Chicago will be interesting: It's the opening game of Prairie Division action. The game will feature junior All-conference running back Torris Childs (700 yds. in 2001), who played at Zion the last two years before transferring to N.C. The Prairie is loaded this year with Vernon, Grant, North Chicago and Zion all eyeing the top prize.
Quotable: "The juniors and seniors are going to have to mesh together well talent wise. But we're strong at the skilled positions. I expect a lot out of this group."—Head Coach Gary Beretler
Mid-season grade: B

They know what you're thinking

Area cheerleaders provide pep, spirit and even psychiatry

Sports Editor

Your team is losing. A deafening silence overcomes the crowd in the stands.

Where do you turn? Your local cheerleaders.

It's no secret that today's cheerleaders draw obvious attention at sporting events. From the short skirts to the pretty smiles to the 'rah-rah' spirit they try to instill in their loyal fans, cheerleaders can brighten the day even if the home team is getting pounded.

"It's kind of rough sometimes especially when our team is losing. But we always seem to keep the crowd into the game, keep their spirits up," said Round Lake junior cheerleader Sarah Meyer.

These girls, and on some squads fellas, are in remarkable shape.

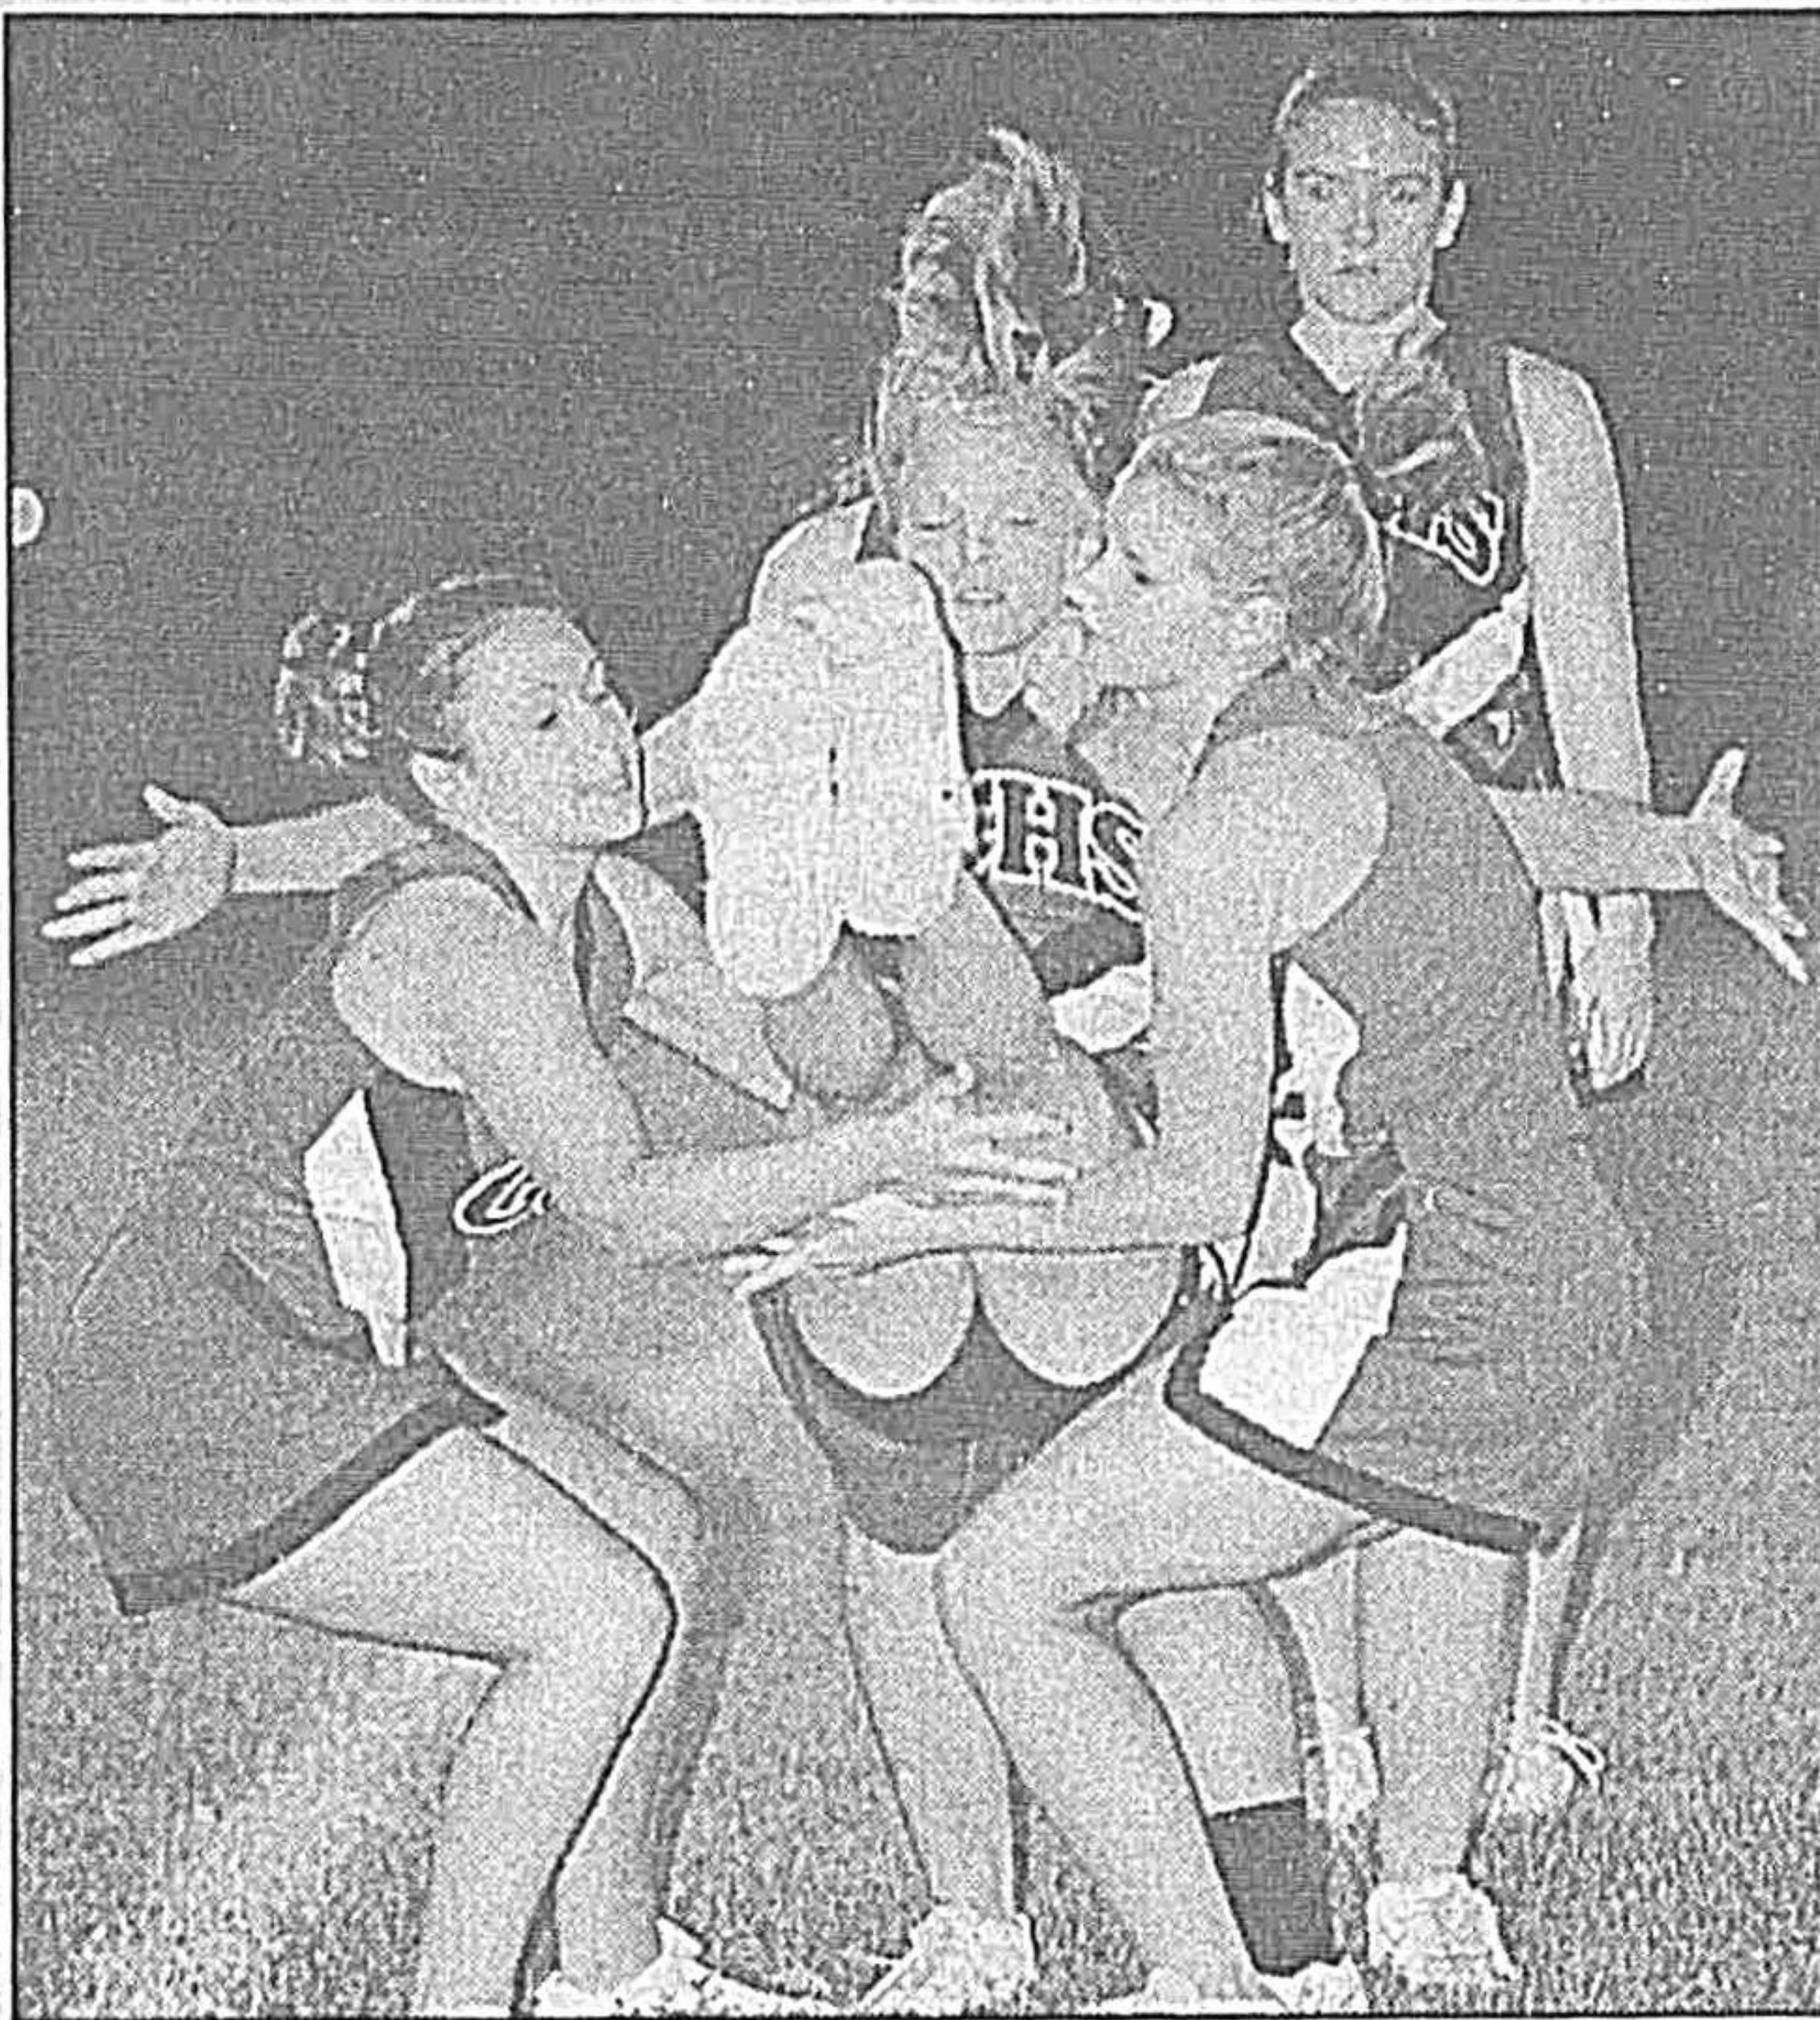

Take Grant, for instance.

The Bulldog cheerleaders, like many others in the area, practice four days a week.

"Three of those days, we work on stunting. Then, one day a week, we'll go to American Eagle Gymnastics in Round Lake to work on tumbling," said Grant varsity cheerleading coach Pam Bonnevier.

Warren practices for two hours a day, four days a week. Again, they get a good workout with simply practicing. But the conditioning outside of practice is crucial.

"It (conditioning) really helps with your strength, endurance and flexibility," said Devils' senior co-captain Jaclyn Emerick. "We also do a lot of running, push-ups and sit-ups. A lot of us also lift weights as and willing to try anything new where their routines are concerned."

And speaking of competition, most area squads compete in regional action in December. The State tournament is usually in March of every year. Up until then, the squads root for their team. They also compete and participate in various invitational during the summer and fall months.

Dedication, desire and being in shape have been the ingredients that have made our area cheerleaders exceptional athletes, and people, in their own right.

well."

Which basically means these cheerleaders are, and pretty much have to be, in excellent shape.

"A lot of everything we do involves upper body strength," said Antioch head varsity cheerleading coach Robin Gwinn. "The girls have to be physically fit. If they aren't physically fit, safety can become an issue because you're lifting and catching quite a bit."

Many schools, like Zion-Benton, have required courses that cheerleaders must take.

"We require all of them to take gymnastics," said Zee Bee head varsity coach Moya Hill.

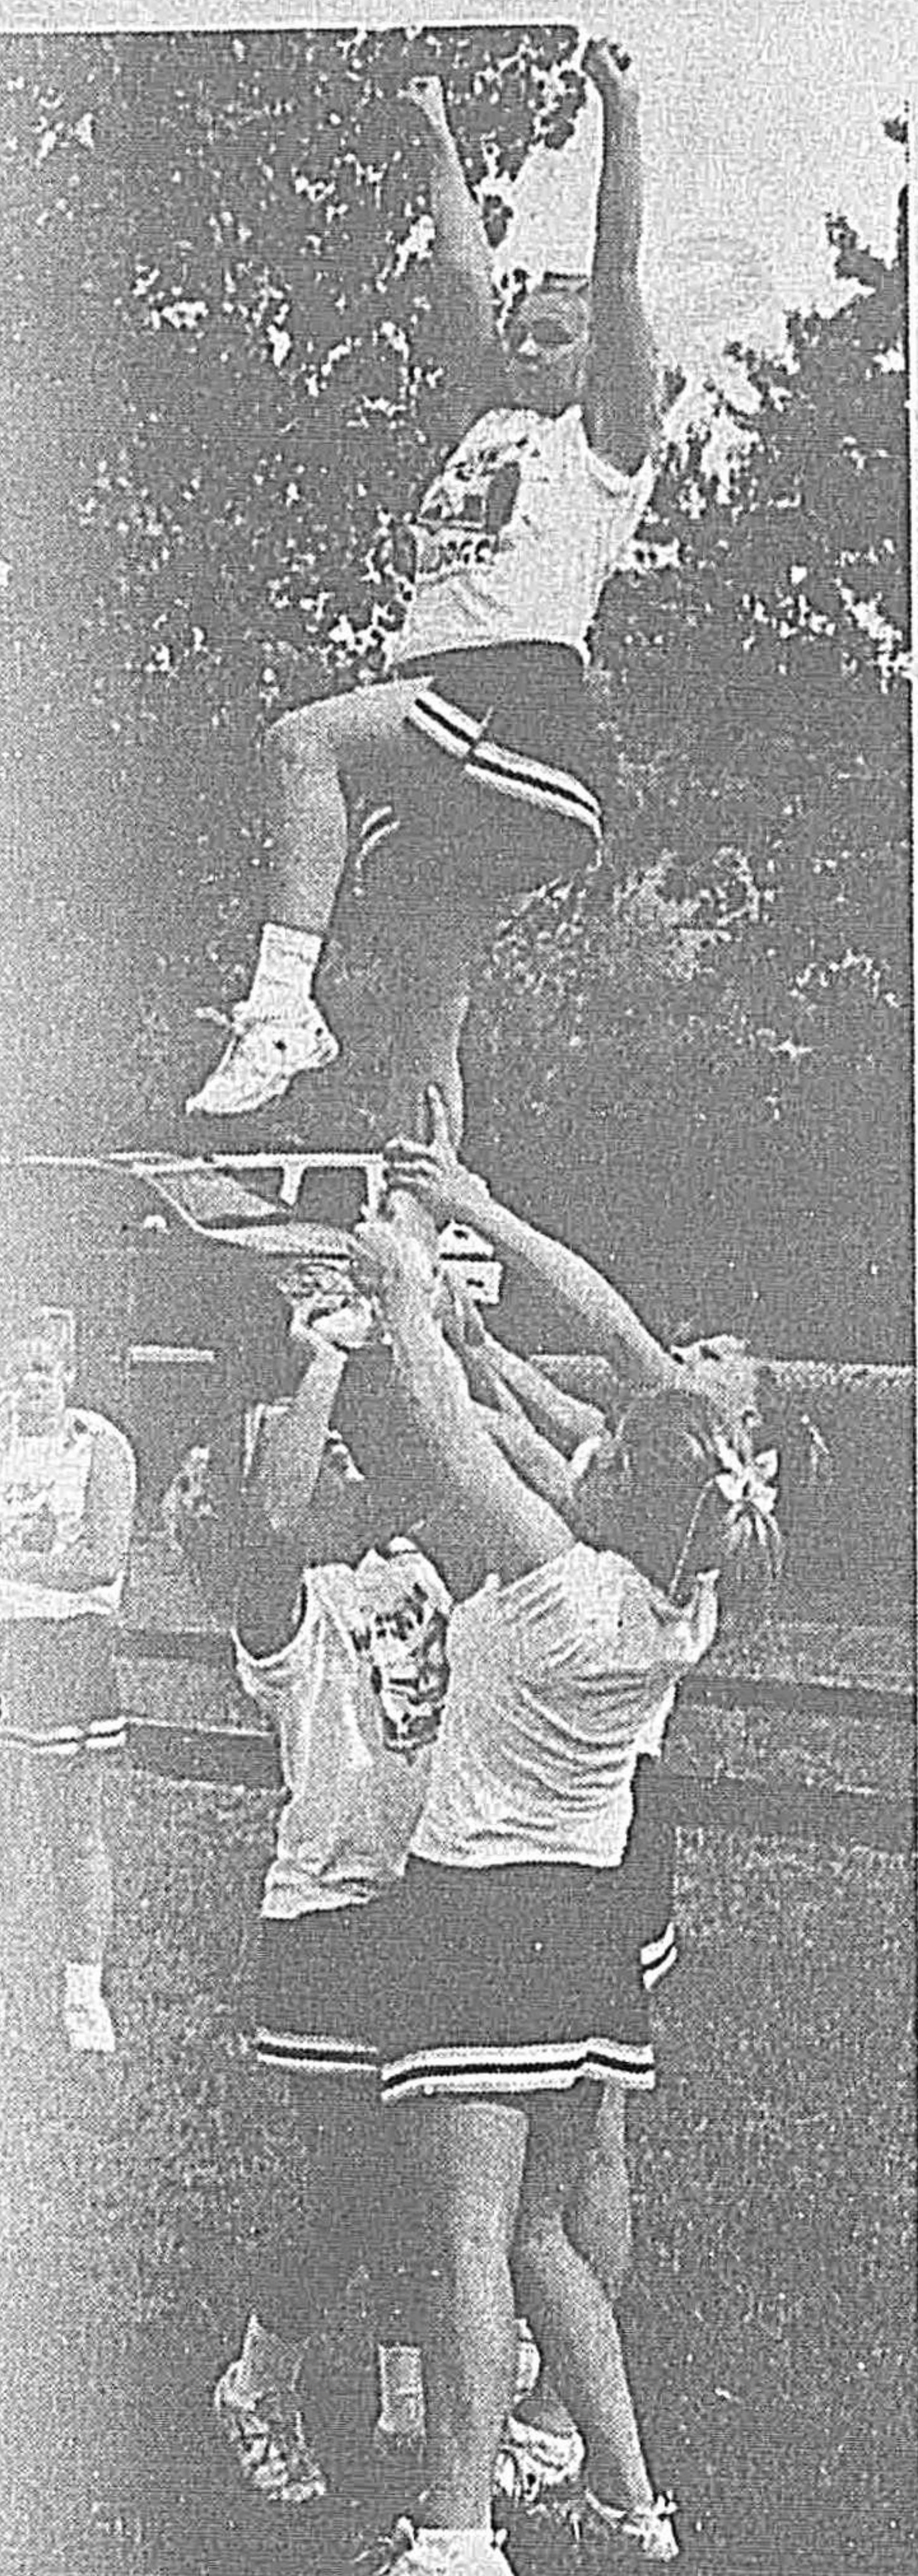

Antioch also requires its cheerleaders to take Physical Best, a physical education course.

"We also spend a lot of time in tumbling class," added Gwinn.

"We also lift weights twice a week."

Spirit and attitude are also vital to having a close-knit group that is able to perform effectively.

"The girls are working their butts off," said Johnsbury head coach Lynn Sennett. "This truly is a team. They want to cheer for their team first. Thinking about the competition side of things comes second. The discipline is well-received. The girls are open

Antioch Sequoits

Team captain(s): Antioch doesn't elect team captains because by the time the members are on varsity, all of them are strong leaders by that point.

Highlights: Last year's varsity had a solid routine but didn't make the cut for the State competition. That'll change this winter when the state competition starts. According to Gwinn, this is the strongest group she's had in 10 years. The junior corp went to state as sophomores and finished 12th out of some 300 teams. This is the first year the Sequoits will be competing in the co-ed division, with Watson and Liebolt aboard. Antioch has won the state A-Attitude Sportsmanship Award by the ICCA the last two years. Several members also earned All-Star status by the UCA (Universal Cheerleading Association) at camp this past summer.

Carmel Corsairs

Head coach: Lori Michalak (5th yr.)

Team captain(s): Rachel Dezellan, Sr.; Erin Dowdall, Sr.

Team members: Nicole Meyer, Sr.; Jen Hamlet, Sr.; Tammi Ravenscraft, Sr.; Liz Duffy, Jr.; Rachel Leman, Jr.; Deanna Cairo, Jr.; Denise Fesik, Jr.; Annie Goshgarian, Jr.; Natalie Greene, Jr.; Kimmi Krauss, Jr.; Jamie Steiner, Jr.; April McDonnell, So.; Danielle Lapenta, So.; Kym Forsythe, So.; Vanessa Hart, So.; Tynan Kraft, So.; Patria Lincoln, So.; Jenny Lorenz, So.; Megan Stride, So.

Highlights: Last winter, the Corsairs finished in the middle of the Medium Varsity division at the State meet in Springfield. Look for that to improve as Michalak has combined her squad, making it a larger group.

"We still have a junior varsity squad but with adding more girls to the varsity, I think we have an excellent chance of doing well (at State)," she said. "The girls on JV last year went to state, so we have some quality experience as well as depth."

Michalak certainly has her share of experience having served as cheerleading coach on the grade school, JV and varsity levels for 25 years combined. For the first time, the coach has brought in someone outside of Carmel, to serve as choreographers. As part of their rigorous training routine, the squad works out at Ultimate Gymnastics in Gurnee, under the guidance of Dereck Rahmill.

Grant Bulldogs

Team members:

Shannon Brophy, So.; Julie Achtor, So.; Jenny Alaimo, So.; Allison Hansen, Sr.; Angela Kowalczyk, Jr.; Sarah Patterson, So.; Mandy Peczkowski, Jr.; Vanessa Ramos, Jr.; Kate Schwartz, So.; Autumn Wigutow, So. Note: Senior Travis Robillard and junior John Arango join the squad during basketball season.

Highlights: The Bulldogs have a nice mix of experience and depth as it looks to return to the State competition for the third consecutive year. Last season, the squad qualified for State after taking second-place at the Lockport regional. The team solidified their qualifying by winning the Downers Grove South regional.

Grant had a successful summer. Clagett, one of the senior leaders, was voted Best Female Base while Travis Robillard earned Best Tumbler at the Super CDA (Cheer and Dance Assoc.) in Tinley Park over the summer.

Bonnevier cheered for two years while attending Harper Junior College. She was also a member of the dance team at Wheeling High School. With Arango and Robillard on the team starting for basketball season, Grant will be competing in the Co-ed division come regionals.

Grayslake Rams

Highlights: Experience is a big plus for the Rams. The sophomores from last year finished ninth at State in the freshman-sophomore-JV division. Now juniors, this group has qualified for state in each of their first three years. The seniors add depth and experience, having placed fourth in their sophomore year. According to Coach Woolard, the girls have already accomplished several things that will help in the push for a state berth.

"We've started heel stretch twist downs and we also have now quite a few tumblers," she said. "It's also a rarity that all of our 11 seniors have been cheerleading for all four years. We're just hoping for an injury-free season."

Put all of those ingredients together and we'll see you in Springfield come March.

A. Carmel fans have plenty to cheer about as the Corsairs are off to a 4-0 start. B. The Libertyville marching band and Pom Pon squad perform during half-time of the Wildcats game. C. Grant's marching band draws the attention of its fans during halftime of the Bulldogs game with Antioch.

Libertyville Wildcats

Highlights: The Cats have excellent leadership with six returning seniors to help guide a strong corp of juniors. Last year, Libertyville finished 12th in the State in the Medium Varsity division. The team made the most of its second chance, finishing first in the Stevenson regional to earn the trip to Springfield.

Over the summer, the Cats were invited to compete in the 3-day Elite summer camp held in Tinley Park in August.

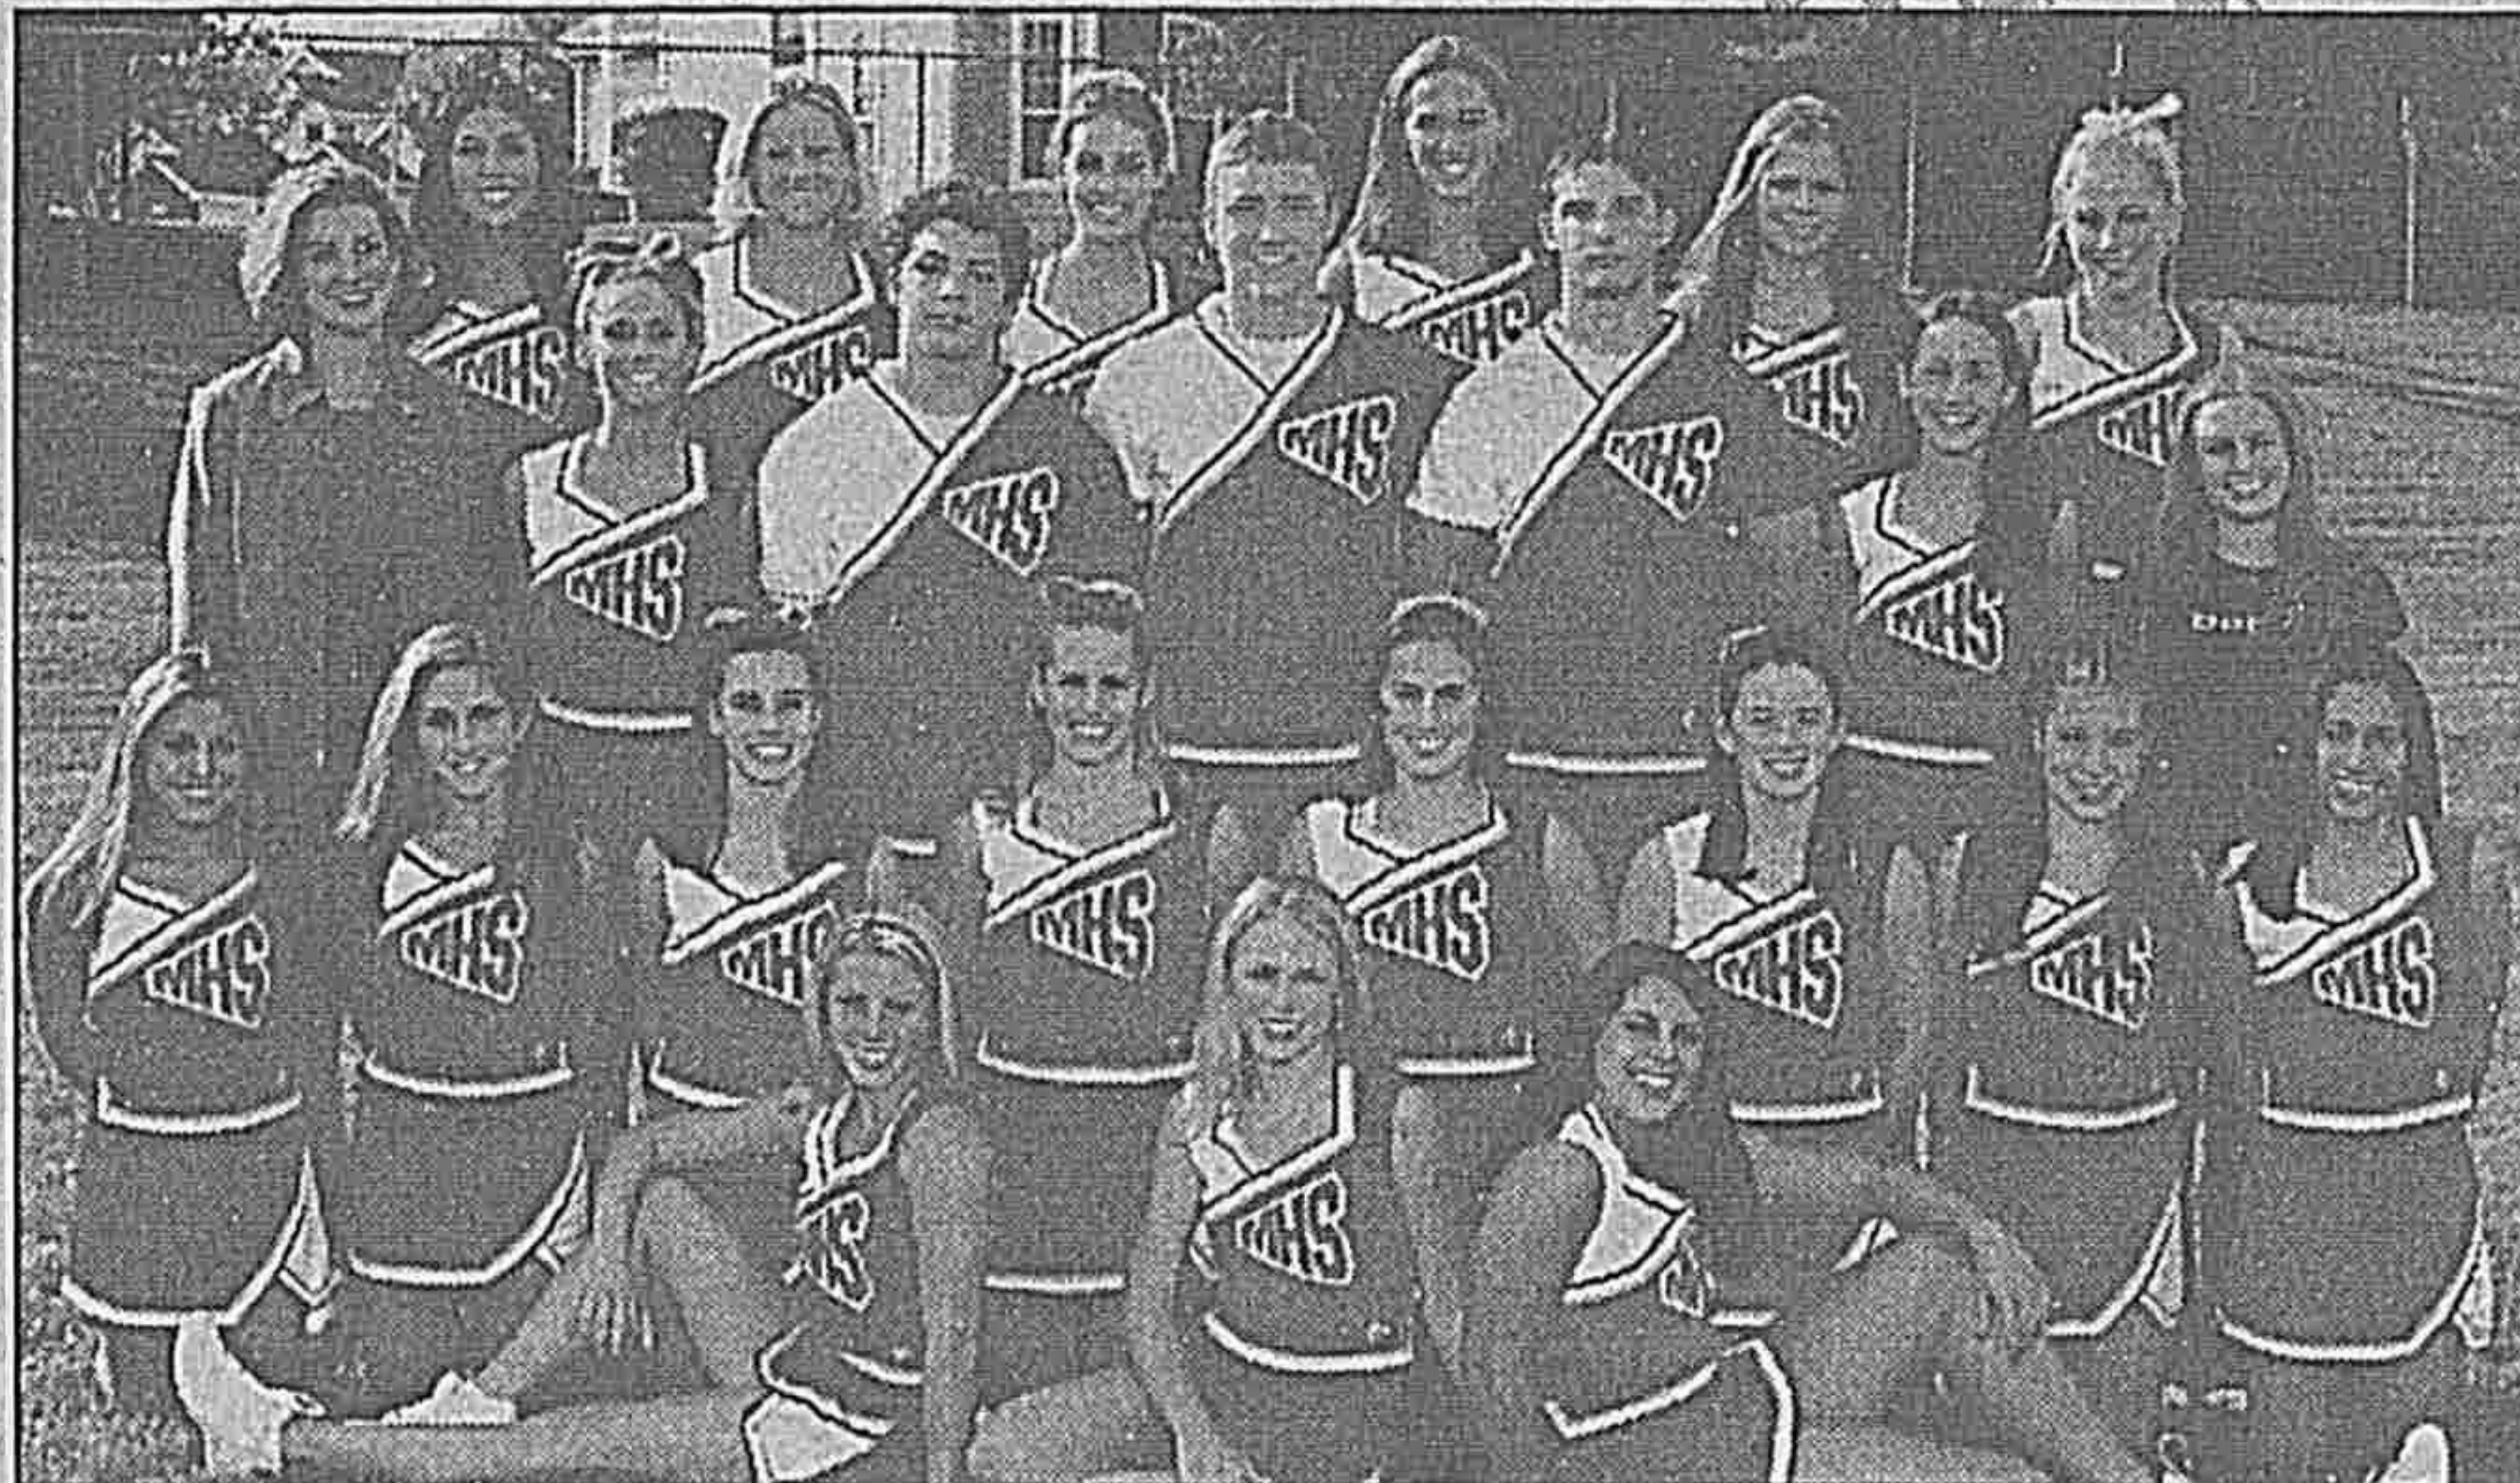

"We're building up," said Coach Schnobel. "We only have six seniors but we're hoping their leadership will mesh in with the incoming juniors."

Schnobel, who has been with the LHS cheerleading program for five years overall, was a 4-year cheerleader at Rolling Meadows High School.

According to the coach, the team has a little different look during the winter season, when basketball starts.

"We basically go from 17 girls down to 14," she said. "Two JV members will move up to varsity at that time. We'd like to have strong showings at our invitational as well as at regionals."

Mundelein Mustangs

Team captain(s): Jessica Giangorgi, Sr.; Ashley Bowes, Sr.

Highlights: A good mix of senior leadership and experience are the trademarks for the Mustangs cheerleaders. It showed last year when the squad took fifth place in the Co-ed Varsity division at the State competition. Mundelein earned the trip to Springfield by virtue of its fifth-place effort at the Stevenson regional. The Mustangs also captured the title at the Libertyville invitational.

The summer was also good for the Mustangs, who were the champs in the cheer and extreme routine categories at the UCA Camp hosted by Northern Illinois University. At that camp, Giangorgi, Battaglia, Zeman and Franco earned All-Star status.

In addition, Zeman and Franco were invited to try out for the UCA staff for next year.

"We have some high goals but they are very attainable," said Flanigan, a former cheerleader and Pom at Illinois State University. Flanigan is also a former staff member for the UCA and UDA (Universal Dance Association). The UDA is the dance division of the UCA.

"We would love to qualify for State and also the UCA Nationals," continued Flanigan. "But we're focusing more on school and bringing back some of the old traditions. We just want to try and get the community more involved with the activities here at MHS."

The Mustangs will get a good tune-up for the State and National qualifying will be at a UCA competition at Navy Pier Oct. 6. That will give the girls some good feedback on exactly where they stand and what they need to work on.

The National qualifier will then be held Nov. 10 at Joliet Township High School.

Round Lake Panthers

Team captain(s): Monica Davenport, Sr.; Tracy Kujawinski, Sr.

Team members: Sarah Meyer, Jr.; Kelly Schwarz, Jr.; Shannon Kelly, Sr.; Jenney Conrad, Sr.; Kellie Cleaver, So.; Gina Cundari, So.; Evelyn Caballero, Jr.; Brooke Smith, So.; Brittany Case, Jr.; Allison Fuller, Jr.; Jen Chapman, So.; Heather O'Mara, So.; Brianna Sehr, So.; Nicole Olibe, Jr.; Chelsea Parnell, Sr.

Highlights: With having lost only two seniors to graduation, the Panther girls are looking for even greater success in competition come winter time. Last year, the team finished third at the Libertyville tournament and qualified for the State competition by taking first at the Stevenson regional with a final score of 375.5. The team also finished second in the Downers Grove South regional but it didn't matter since they had already qualified for state by virtue of its finish at Stevenson.

The team also did some fund-raising on its own, earning over $1,000 at a car wash benefit over the summer.

Vernon Hills Cougars

Team members:

Amanda Romeo, Jr.; Amanda Gentile, Jr.; Megan Deering, Jr.; Kim Gray, Jr.; Kyle Gehrke, Jr.; Jordan Guillen, Jr.; Kelly Maher, Jr.; Lauren Paulson, Jr.; Alina Bogdanov, So.; Irene Roytman, So.; Ashley Guerrero, So.; Kelsey Seidler, So.; Katie Foster, Fr.; Chelsea Marvin, Fr.; Ashley Amidei, Fr.

Highlights: The Cougars are coming off of a seventh-place effort at State in the Co-ed Varsity division. The summer also yielded some nice results as the team earned the championship at the UCA camp held at Illinois State University. Gray and Dawn Epstein, who cheers during basketball season, earned All-Star status at ISU. Coach Kenny, who was a cheerleader at Peoria Notre Dame High School for two years, likes the mixture of experience and depth on this year's squad.

"We conditioned over the summer and will soon hit the ground running where preparation for State competition is concerned," she said. "We have a lot of tournaments and invitationals. We should do pretty well this year but with several of the girls having been on varsity for 2-3 years, the future also looks very bright."

Warren Blue Devils

Highlights: The Devils will look for a return trip to the state tournament over the winter. Experience and depth are key ingredients for this team, which earned five Superior ribbons at the NCAA camp at Purdue University over the summer. In addition, the team has also earned a bid to the National tournament.

"We've been working really hard this year," said Coach Anderson. "The girls balance each other well."

Anderson herself is no stranger to success, having been a cheerleader for four years at Rich East High School down on the southside of Chicago before cheering for four years at Eastern Illinois University. While at EIU, Thompson was Captain her senior year when the squad qualified for the National tournament.

Wauconda Bulldogs

Team captain(s): Aubrey Geddis, Sr.; Leslie Koratka, Jr.; Sarah Daly, Sr.; Lindsey Coots, Sr.

Team members: Sandi Aguilar, Jr.; Chandel Christensen, Jr.; Josh Patterson, Jr.; Gia Lindsey, So.; Katie Schlaffer, Fr.; Trisha Houser, Jr.; Brittany Frazier, Jr.; Jackie Turner, So.; Kacey Culver, Jr.; Vanessa Radez, Jr.; Kaite Prudhomme, Jr.; Courtney Faczek, Jr.; Katrina Polen, Fr.; Kelly Spence, So.; Erin Grimm, So.; Nicole Boyko, Jr.

Highlights: This is only the second year of real competition for the Bulldogs. If it's anything like the first, this squad could earn more top-5 finishes as well as a possible State berth when winter rolls around. Last year, the team finished second in the always-competitive Libertyville Invitational.

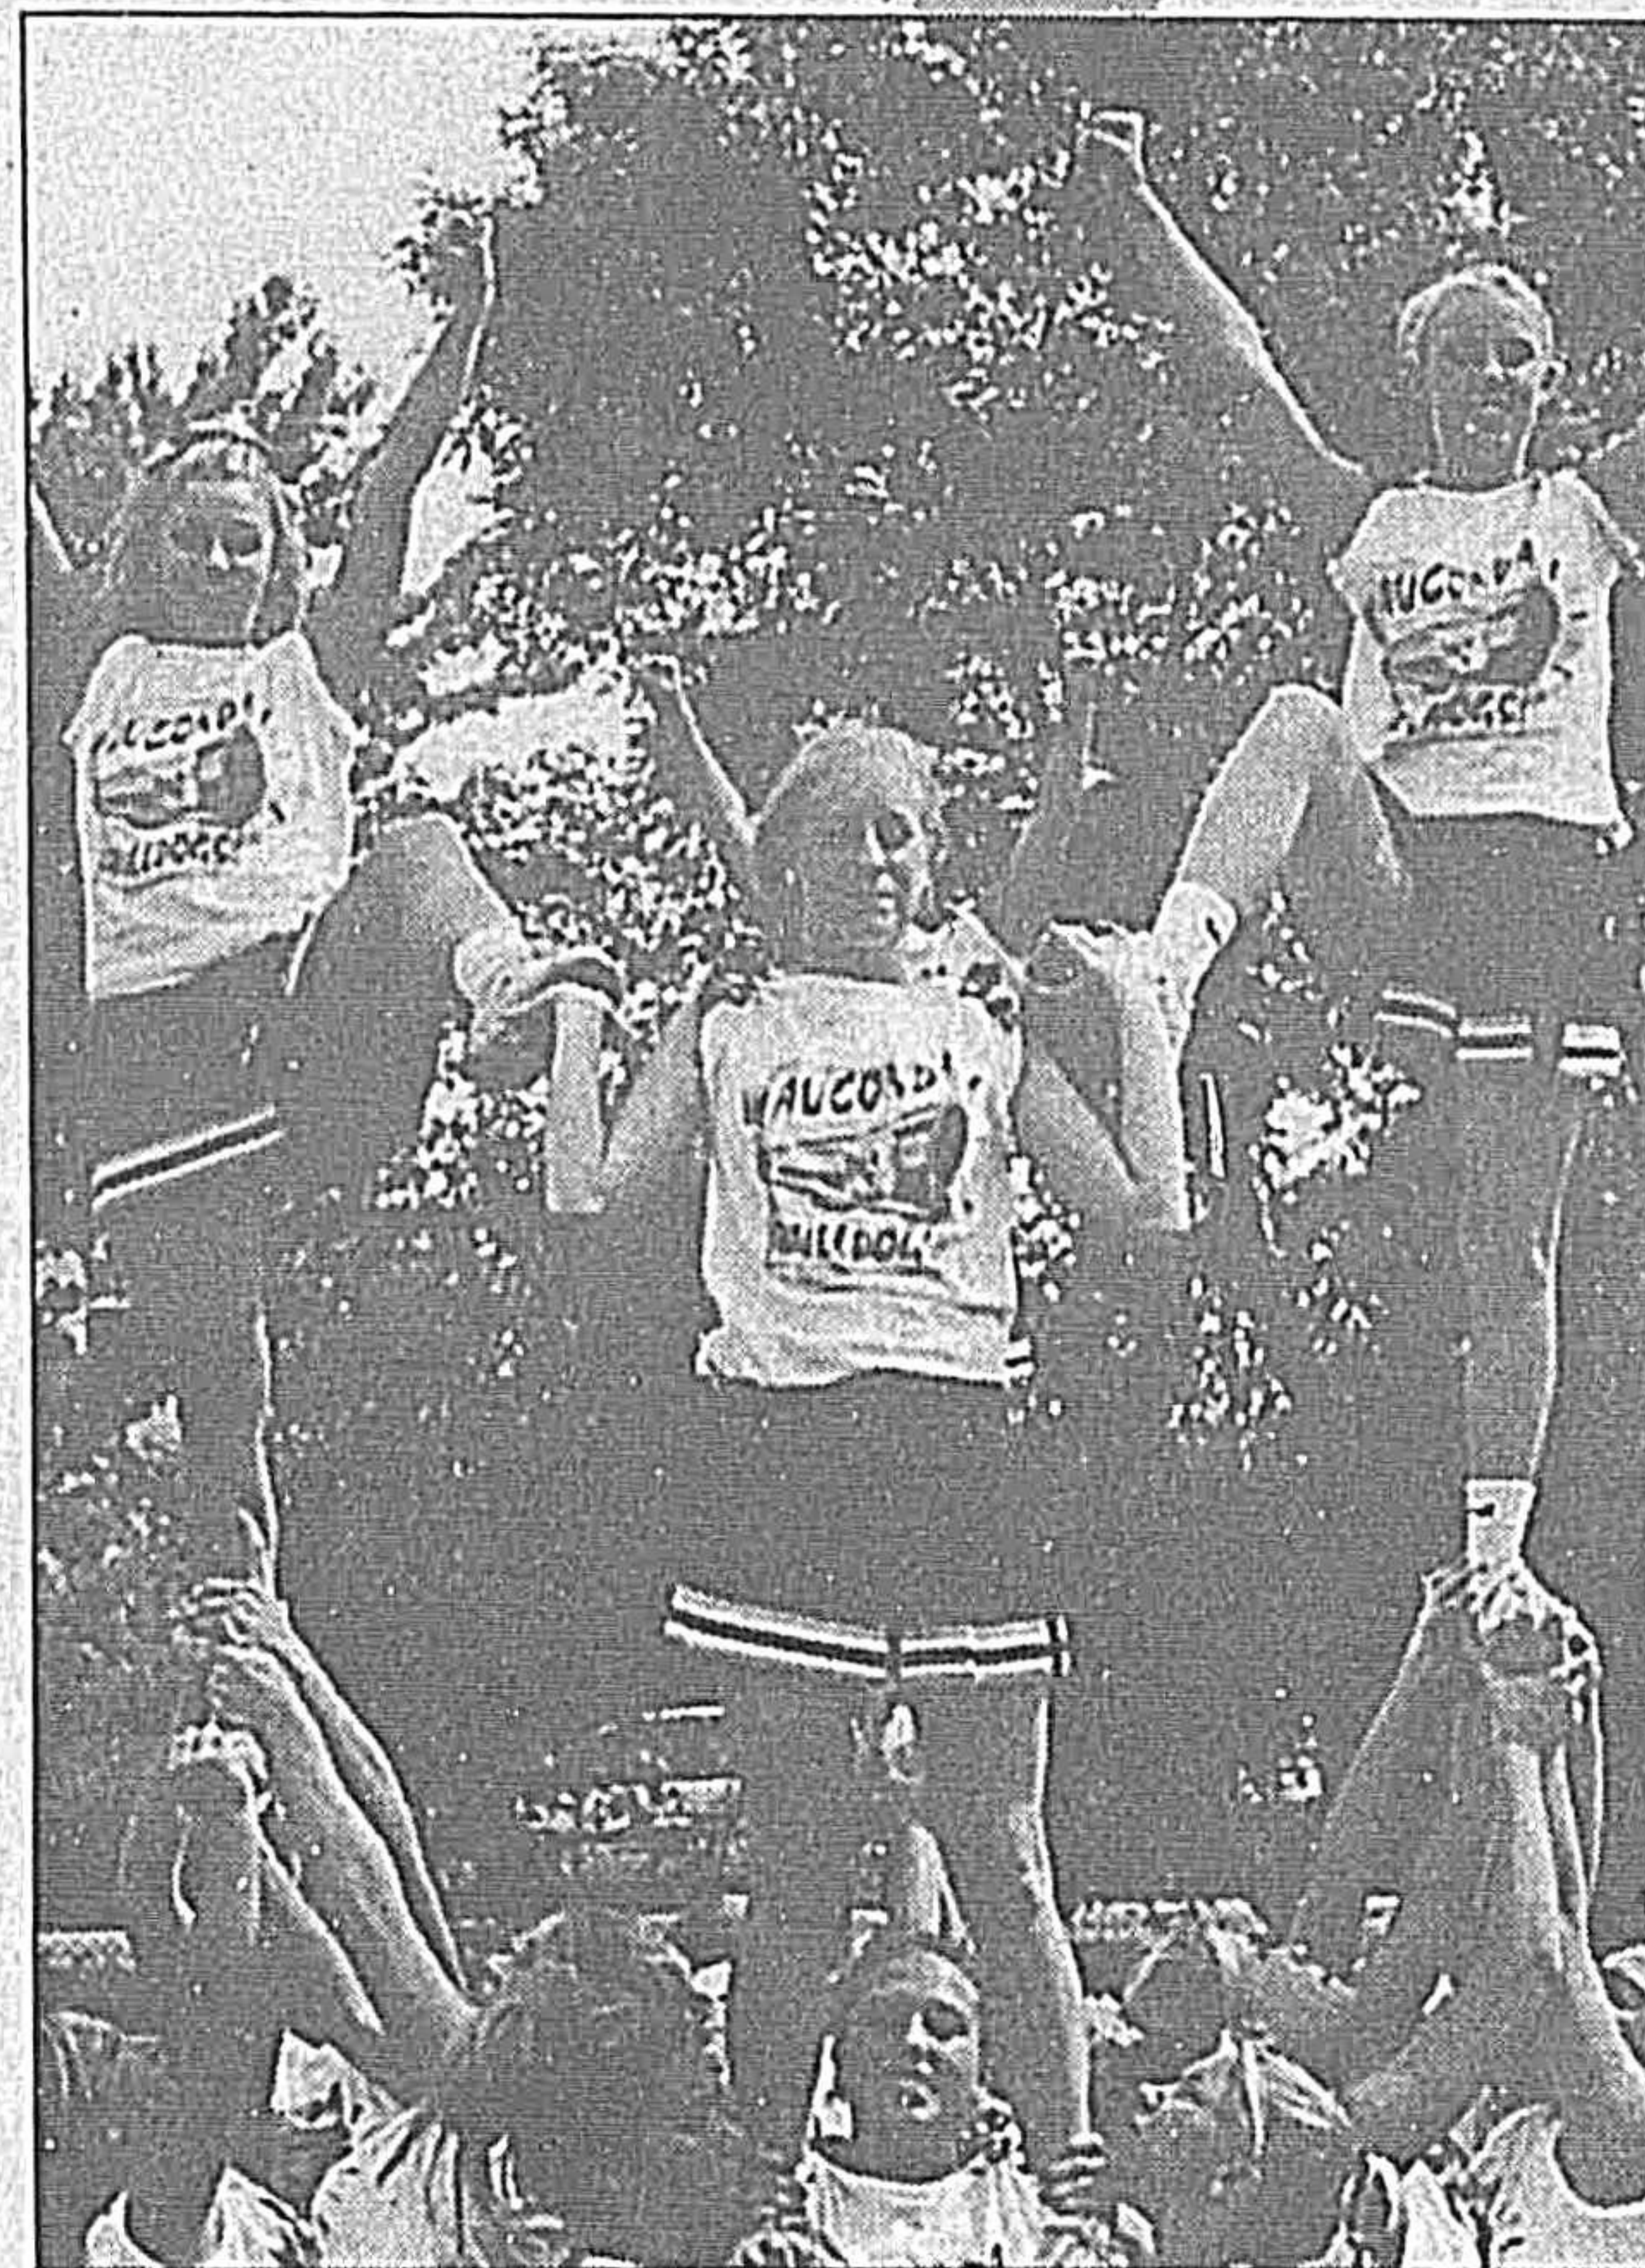

The girls attended a private camp over the summer, operated through the COA (cheerleaders of America), where they earned a Superior rating.

"We're really looking forward to competition this year," said Coach Garrod. "We just want to keep building on things."

Garrod and the Bulldogs have aspirations of becoming the first team in the school's history to earn the distinguished green sign upon entering town.

"If we can avoid injuries, we could get our name on one of those signs," the coach said.

Of course, the infamous green sign you see when entering a nearby town signifies state championship recognition. And it's not out of the question where the Bulldogs are concerned.

Johnsburg Skyhawks

Head coach: Lynn Sennett (9th yr.)

Team members: Tish Jones, Jr.; Dominique Moro, Jr.; Ashley Grundy, Jr.; Christine Plett, Jr.; Samantha O'Connell, Jr.; Mandy Smith, Jr.; Jenny Nelson, Jr.

Highlights: Dedication, respect for their coach and having plenty of fun are the ingredients that help make Lynn Sennett's job very enjoyable. The Skyhawk cheerleaders are young, with only one returning girl (Leppien) to the varsity squad. Freund does return but was sidelined her junior year with a knee injury. Both provide solid leadership for a group that consists of predominantly juniors.

Johnsburg had not competed in three years up until last winter. The girls went to the Andrew regional and basically got their "feet wet," according to Sennett. They then polished their act and came back to take fourth at the Lockport regional.

"There was some really great competition (at Lockport). So to finish fourth, I was ecstatic," the coach said. Improving has been key to the gelling of this young team. They are willing to learn any routine. They've also improved immensely in tumbling, stunts and jumping.

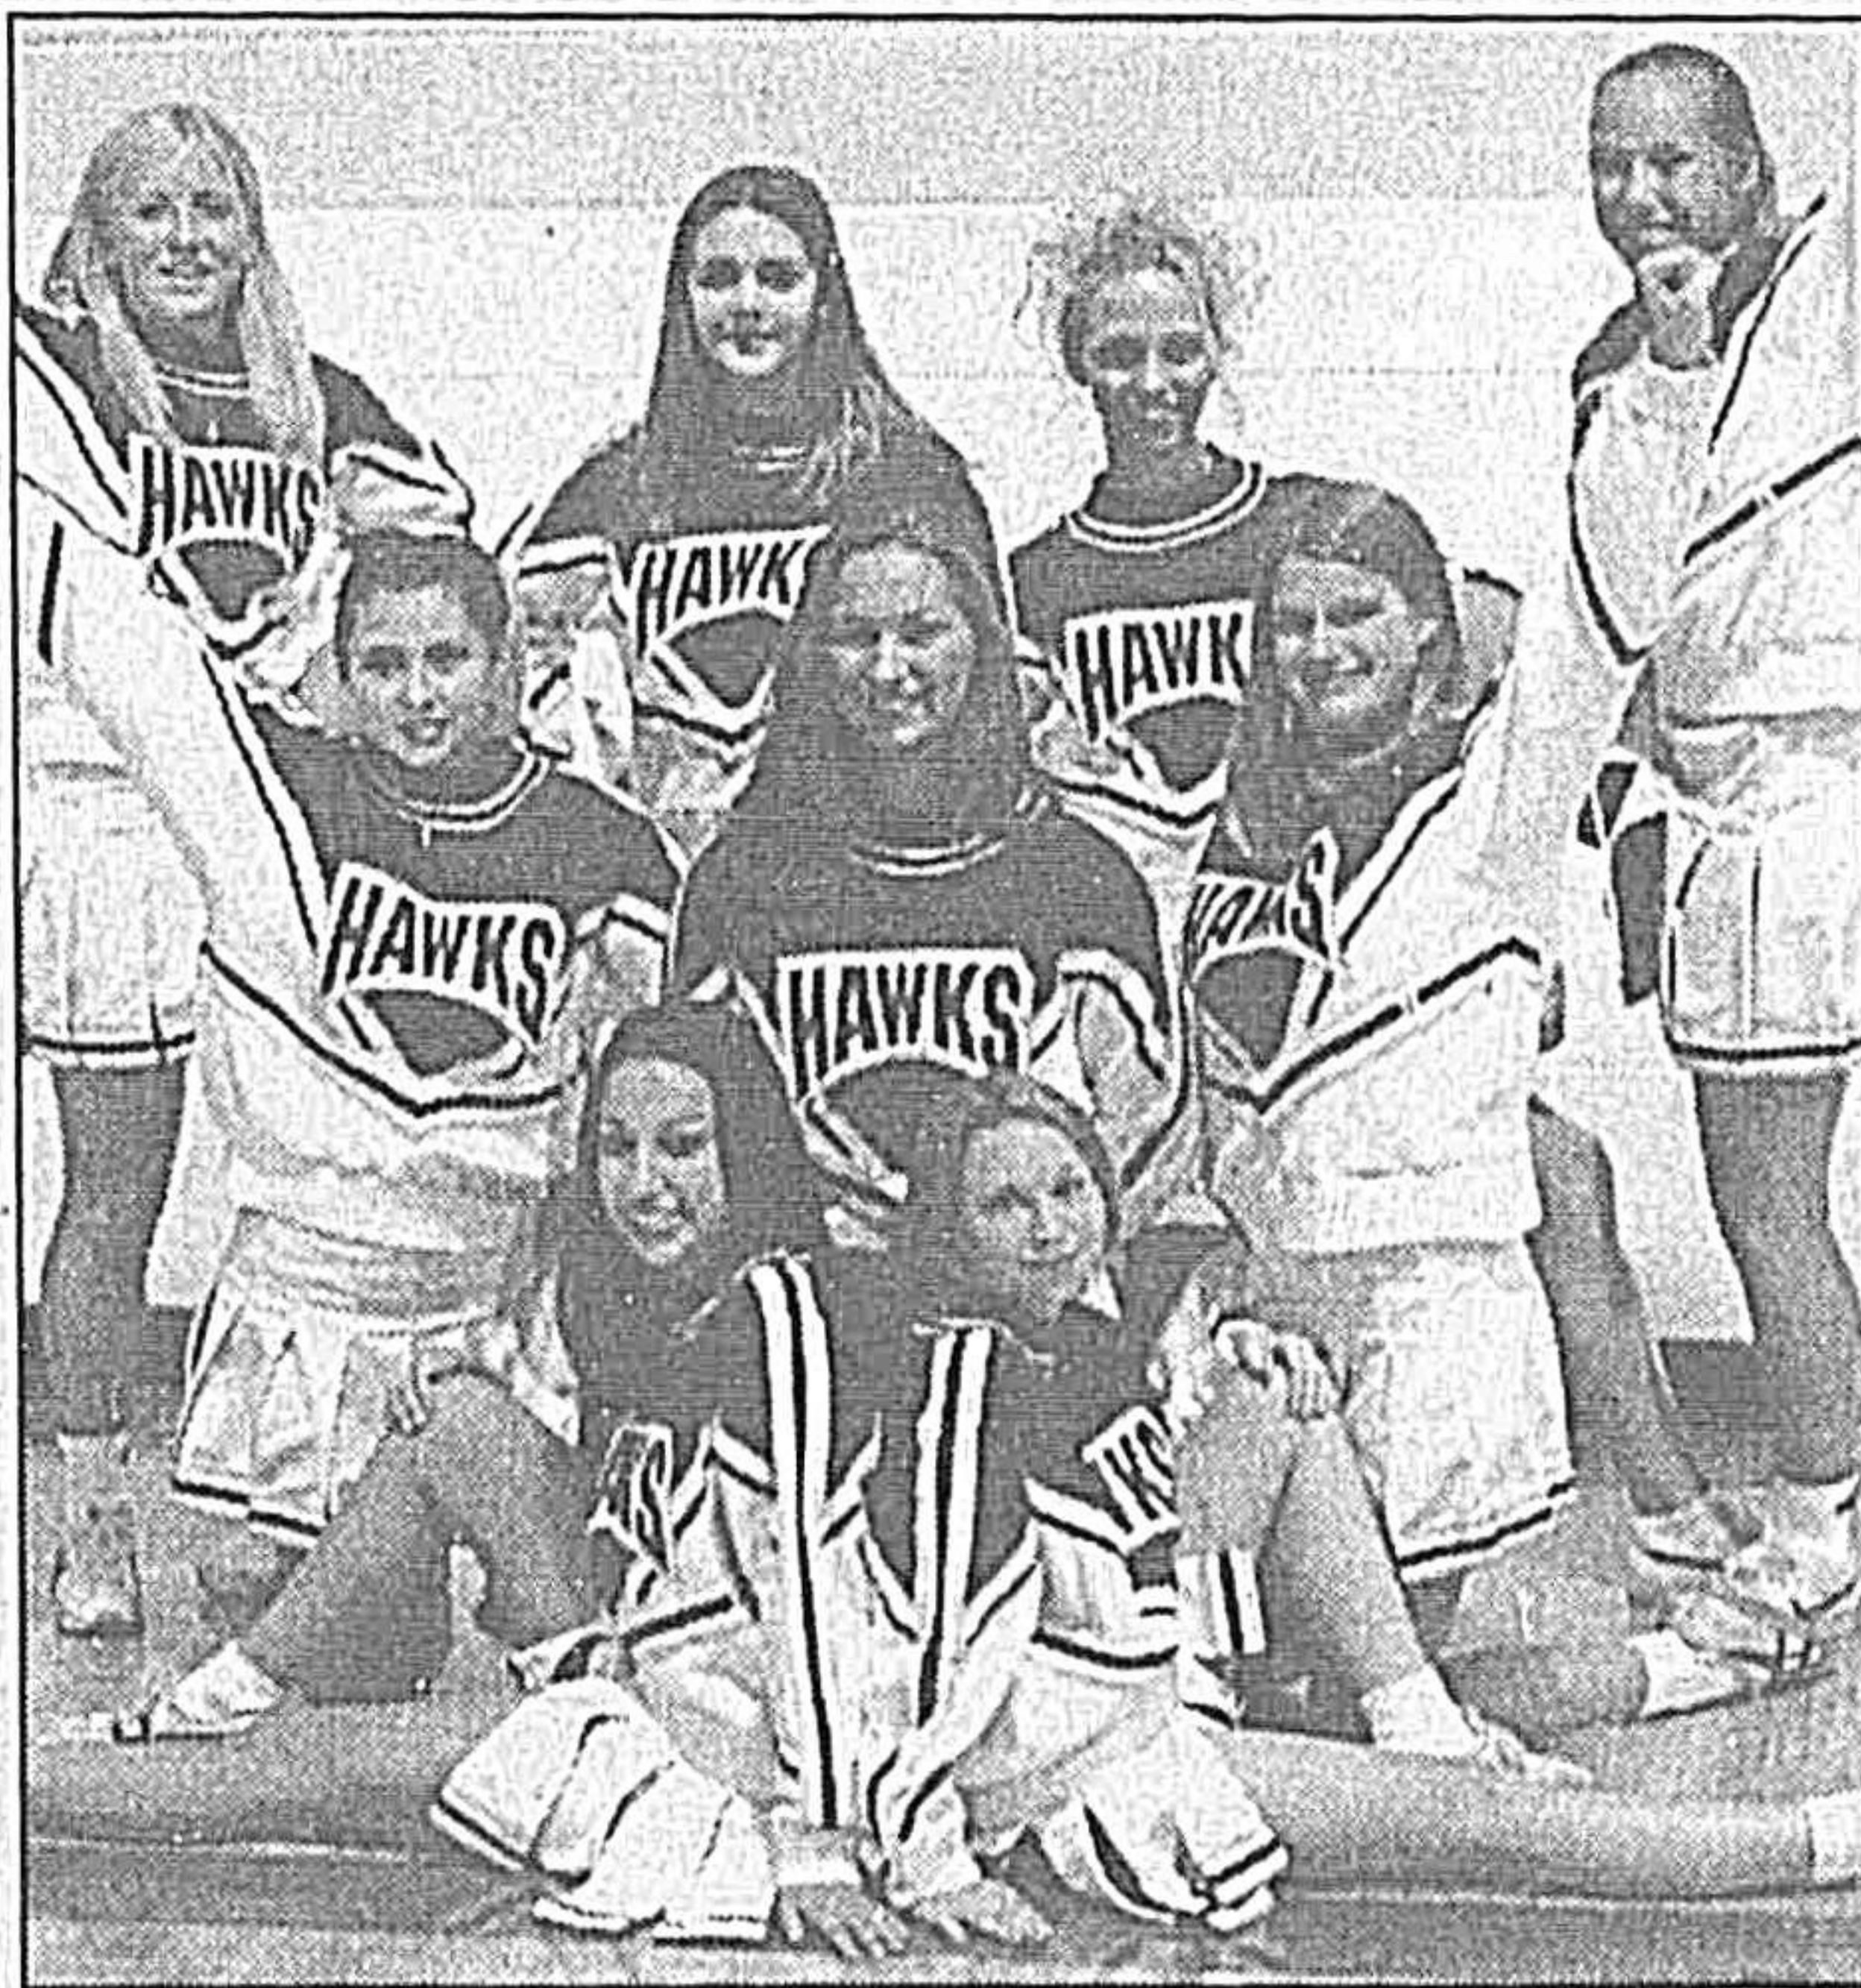

"I'm so impressed that the girls have decided, 'this is how good we want to be. They really work their butts off. It takes a lot of pressure off of me and it's just a great feeling seeing them working so hard.'"

Sennett also said one of the keys to becoming a good, well-rounded team is teamwork and putting school spirit, not competition, first on the list.

"This is truly a team," said Sennett. "They want to cheer for their team first. Competition comes second. Chemistry has also been great. There's no dissension, no bickering—all of the girls are eager to come to practice and work hard to improve."

The Skyhawks had a banner summer while attending a UCA Camp at the University of Wisconsin-Whitewater. That's where the squad came away with numerous ribbons, including outstanding cheer and superior squad.

"They did tremendous," said Sennett, a former cheerleader for two years at Eisenhower High School in Blue Island and then Illinois State University for one year. "They really learned and progressed a lot."

Zion-Benton Zee Bees

Highlights: It's amazing what push-ups and running laps can do for the morale. In the beginning of the season, the intensity was minimal and the Zee Bee cheerleaders had some trouble clicking as a unit.

But now, it's a different story altogether. Having a good coach in Moya Hill also helps. Hill, a former cheerleader for Zion and then Alcorn State University, has instilled the enthusiasm needed as Zion has their sights set on making a run at a State berth this winter. Last year, the Bees finished sixth at the Downers Grove South regional and narrowly missed qualifying. It's something Hill would like to improve on.

"It's definitely one of our goals (to qualify for State)," she said. "But one of our main goals is to have fun and lead our crowd. I have to commend the girls because that's what they've been doing. They are definitely a lot more into it. One of our motto's is 'no excuses, just results.'"

The Bees gained plenty of confidence, as well as ribbons, at the UCA Camp held at Northern Illinois University over the summer. The team won Superior ribbons in categories such as Cheer, Spirit and Stunting.

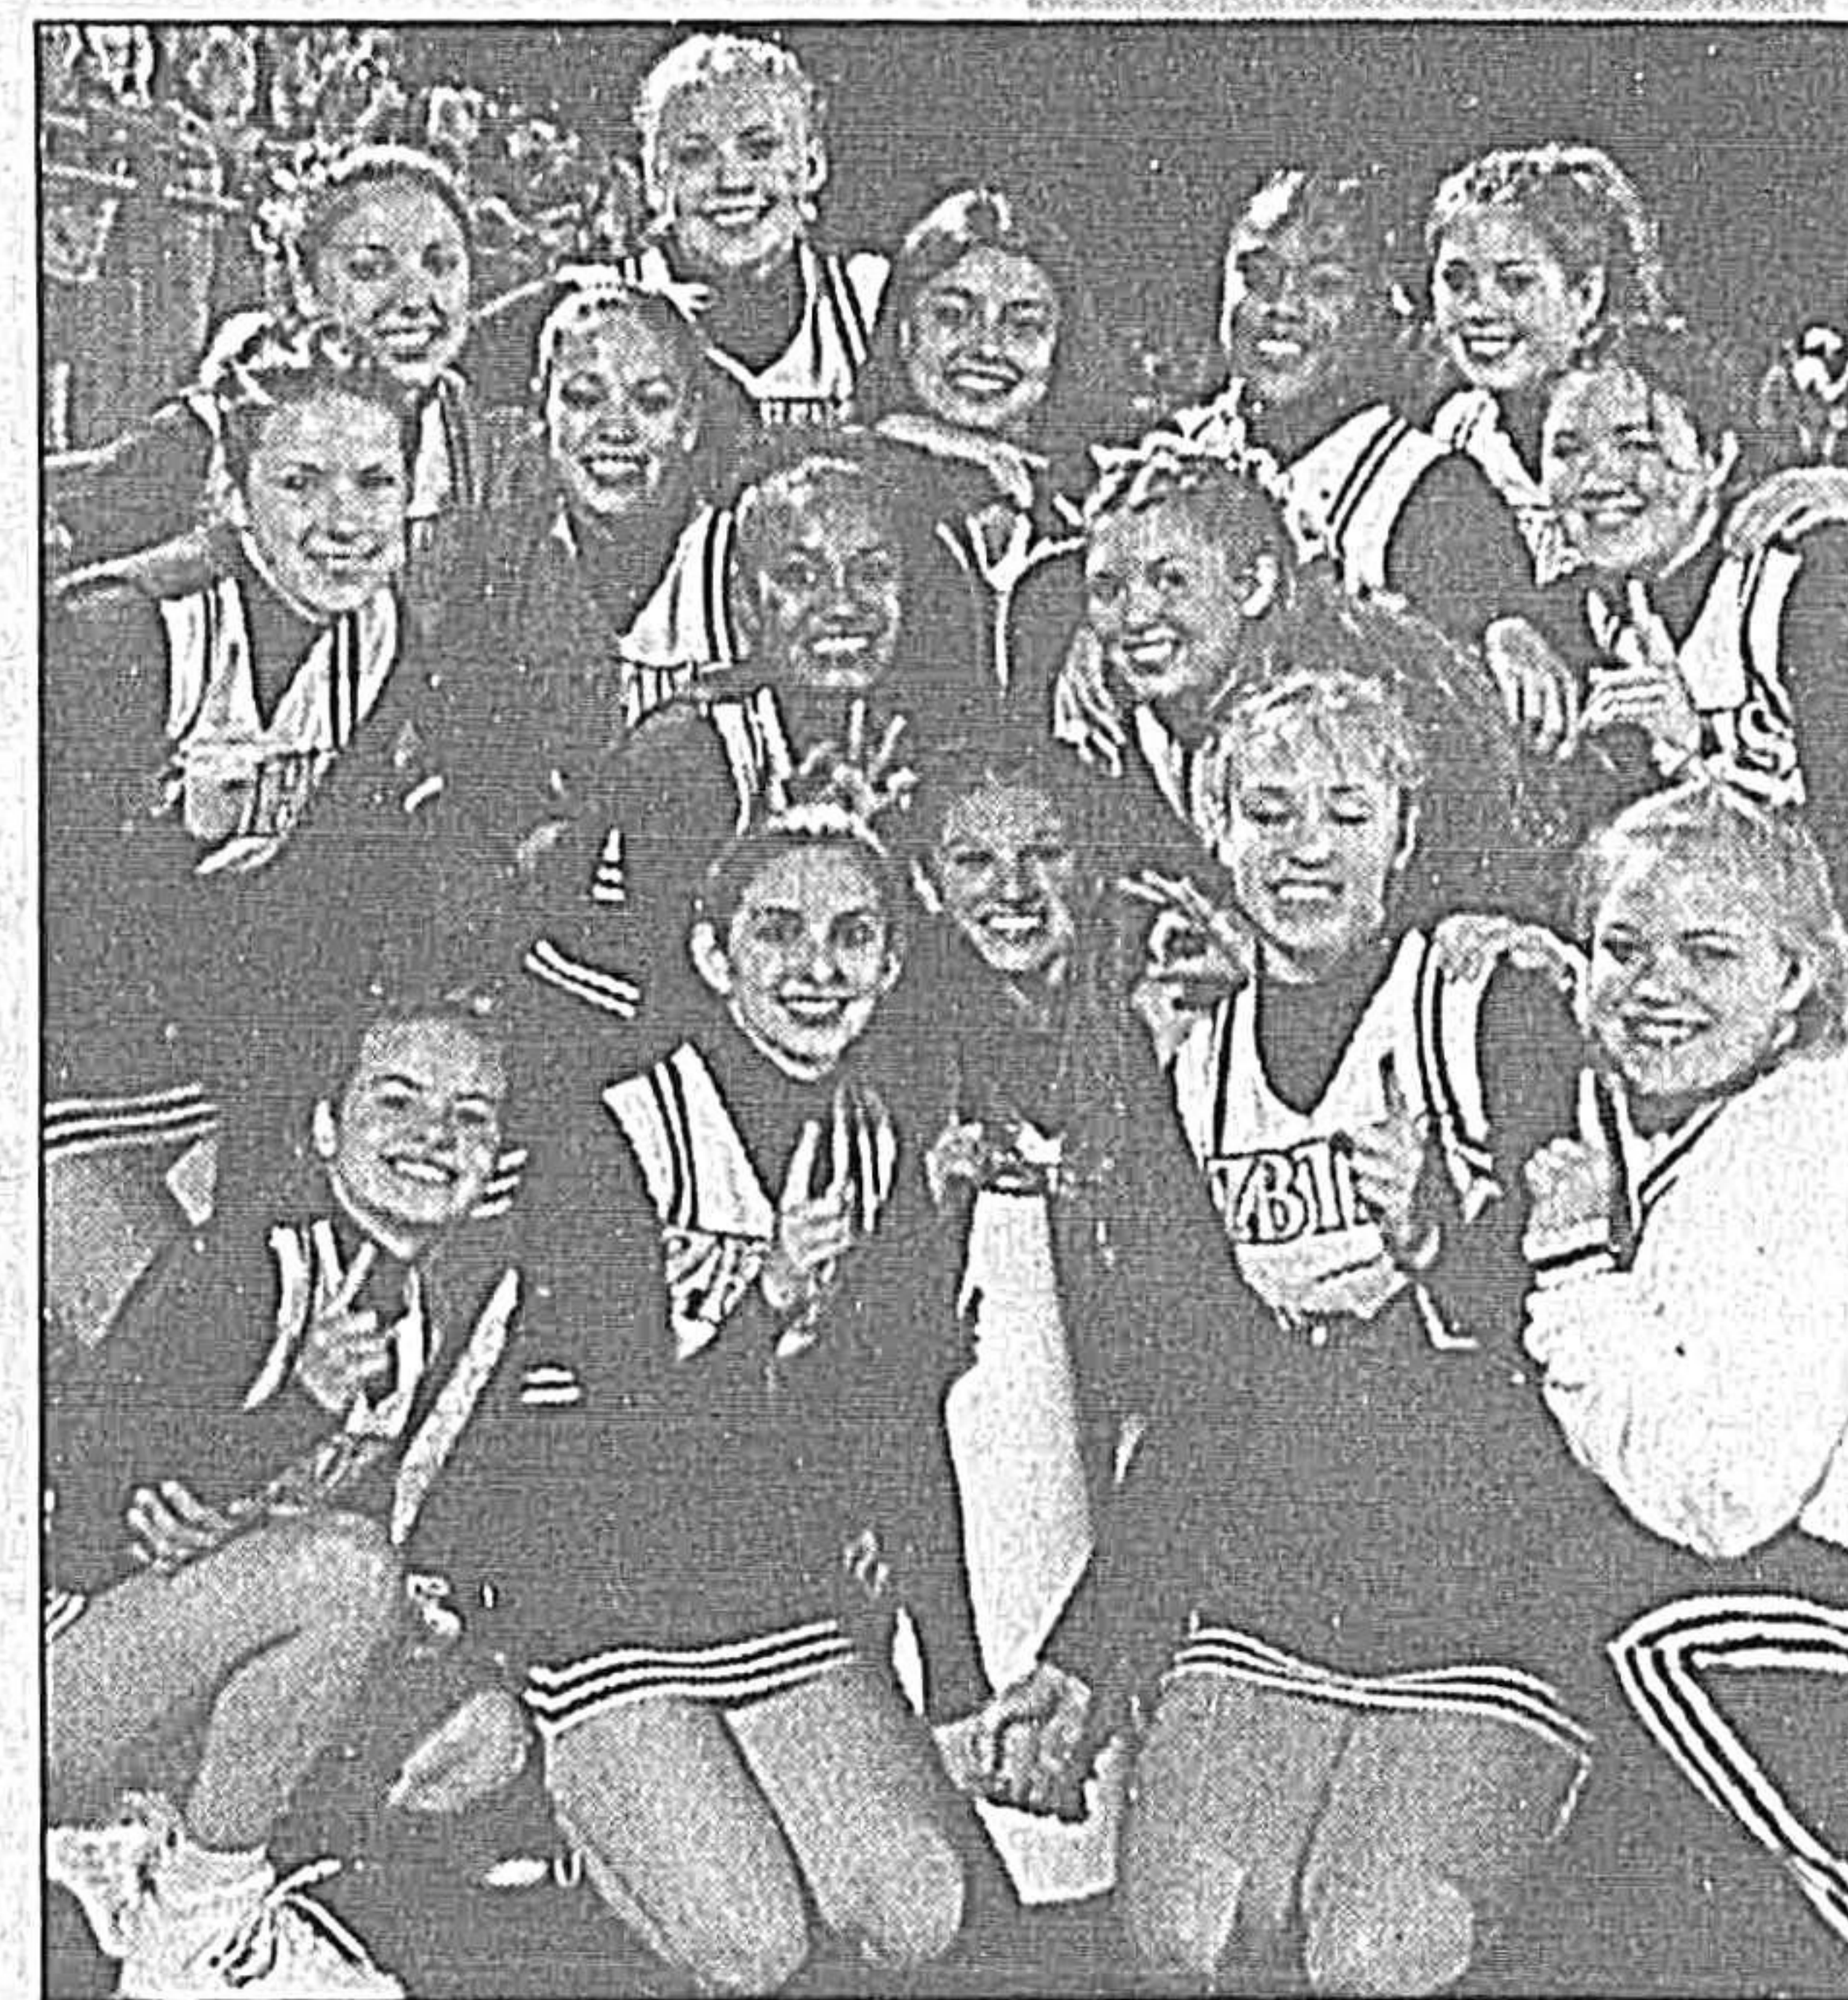

New to Zion's training regimen is a required gymnastics course, which helps with flexibility, stamina and coordination.

Last year, the sophomores finished sixth at regionals, so the experience of competing in big meets is there.

And for the first time, Zion held a youth cheerleading camp over the summer.

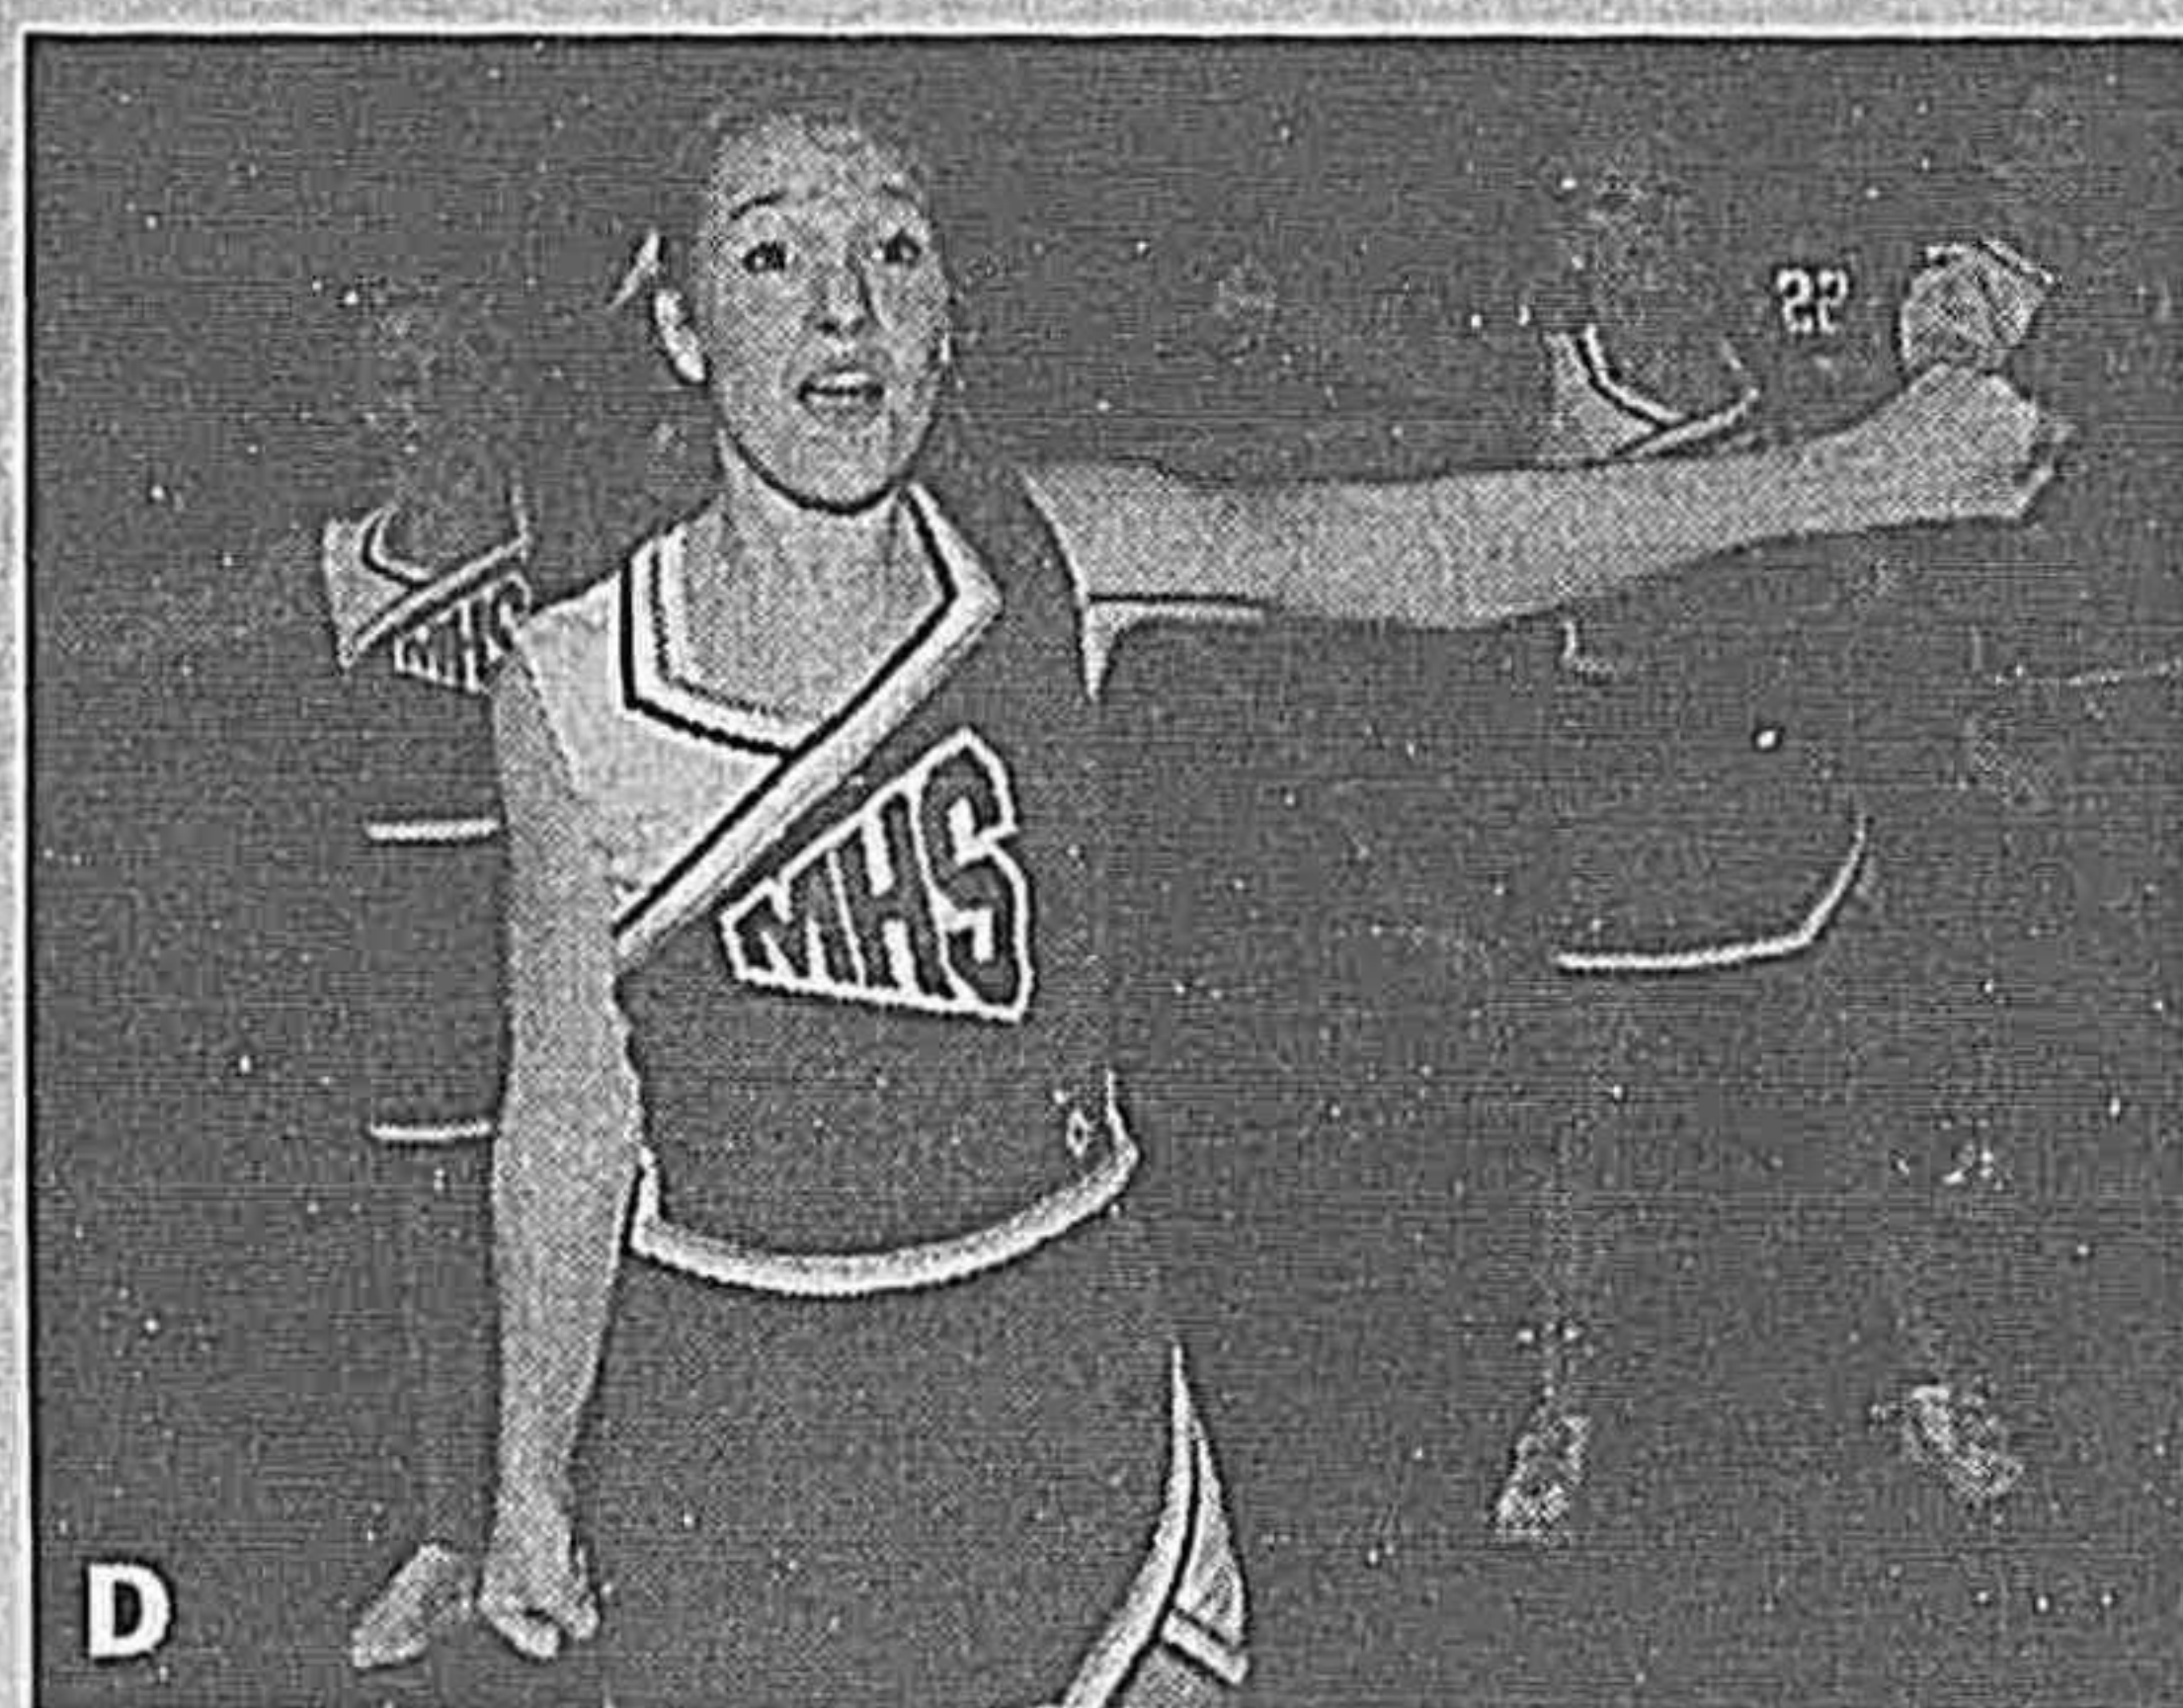

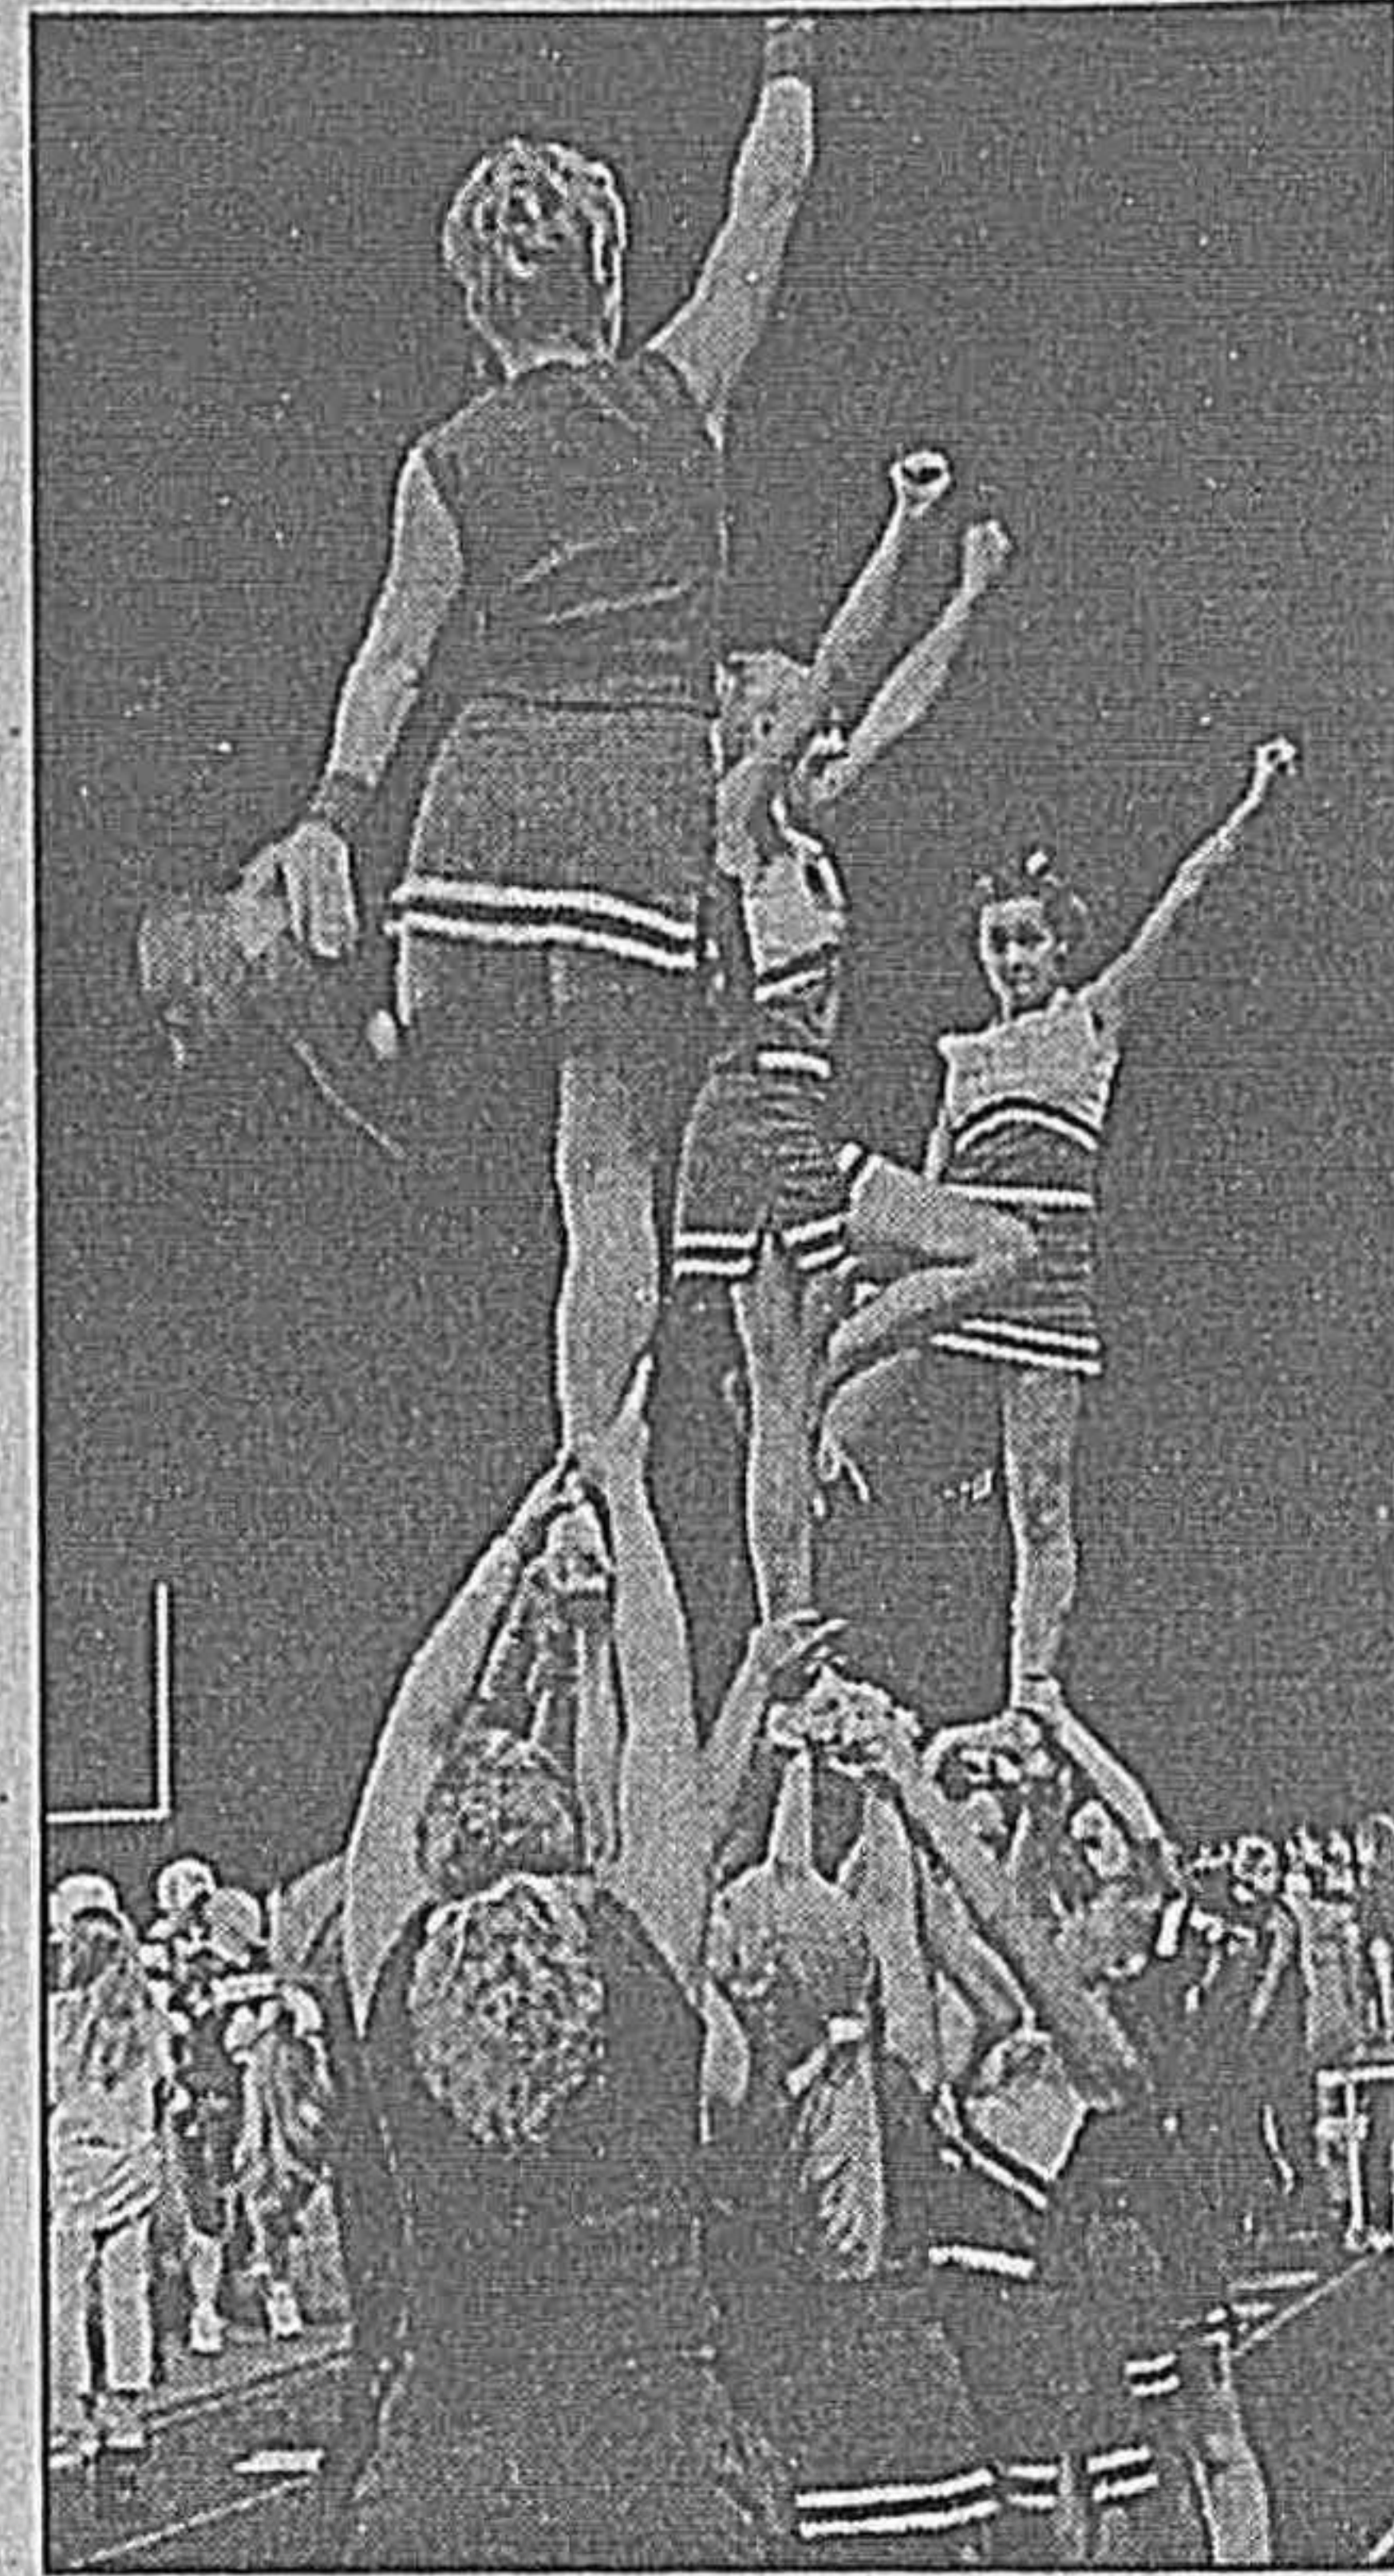

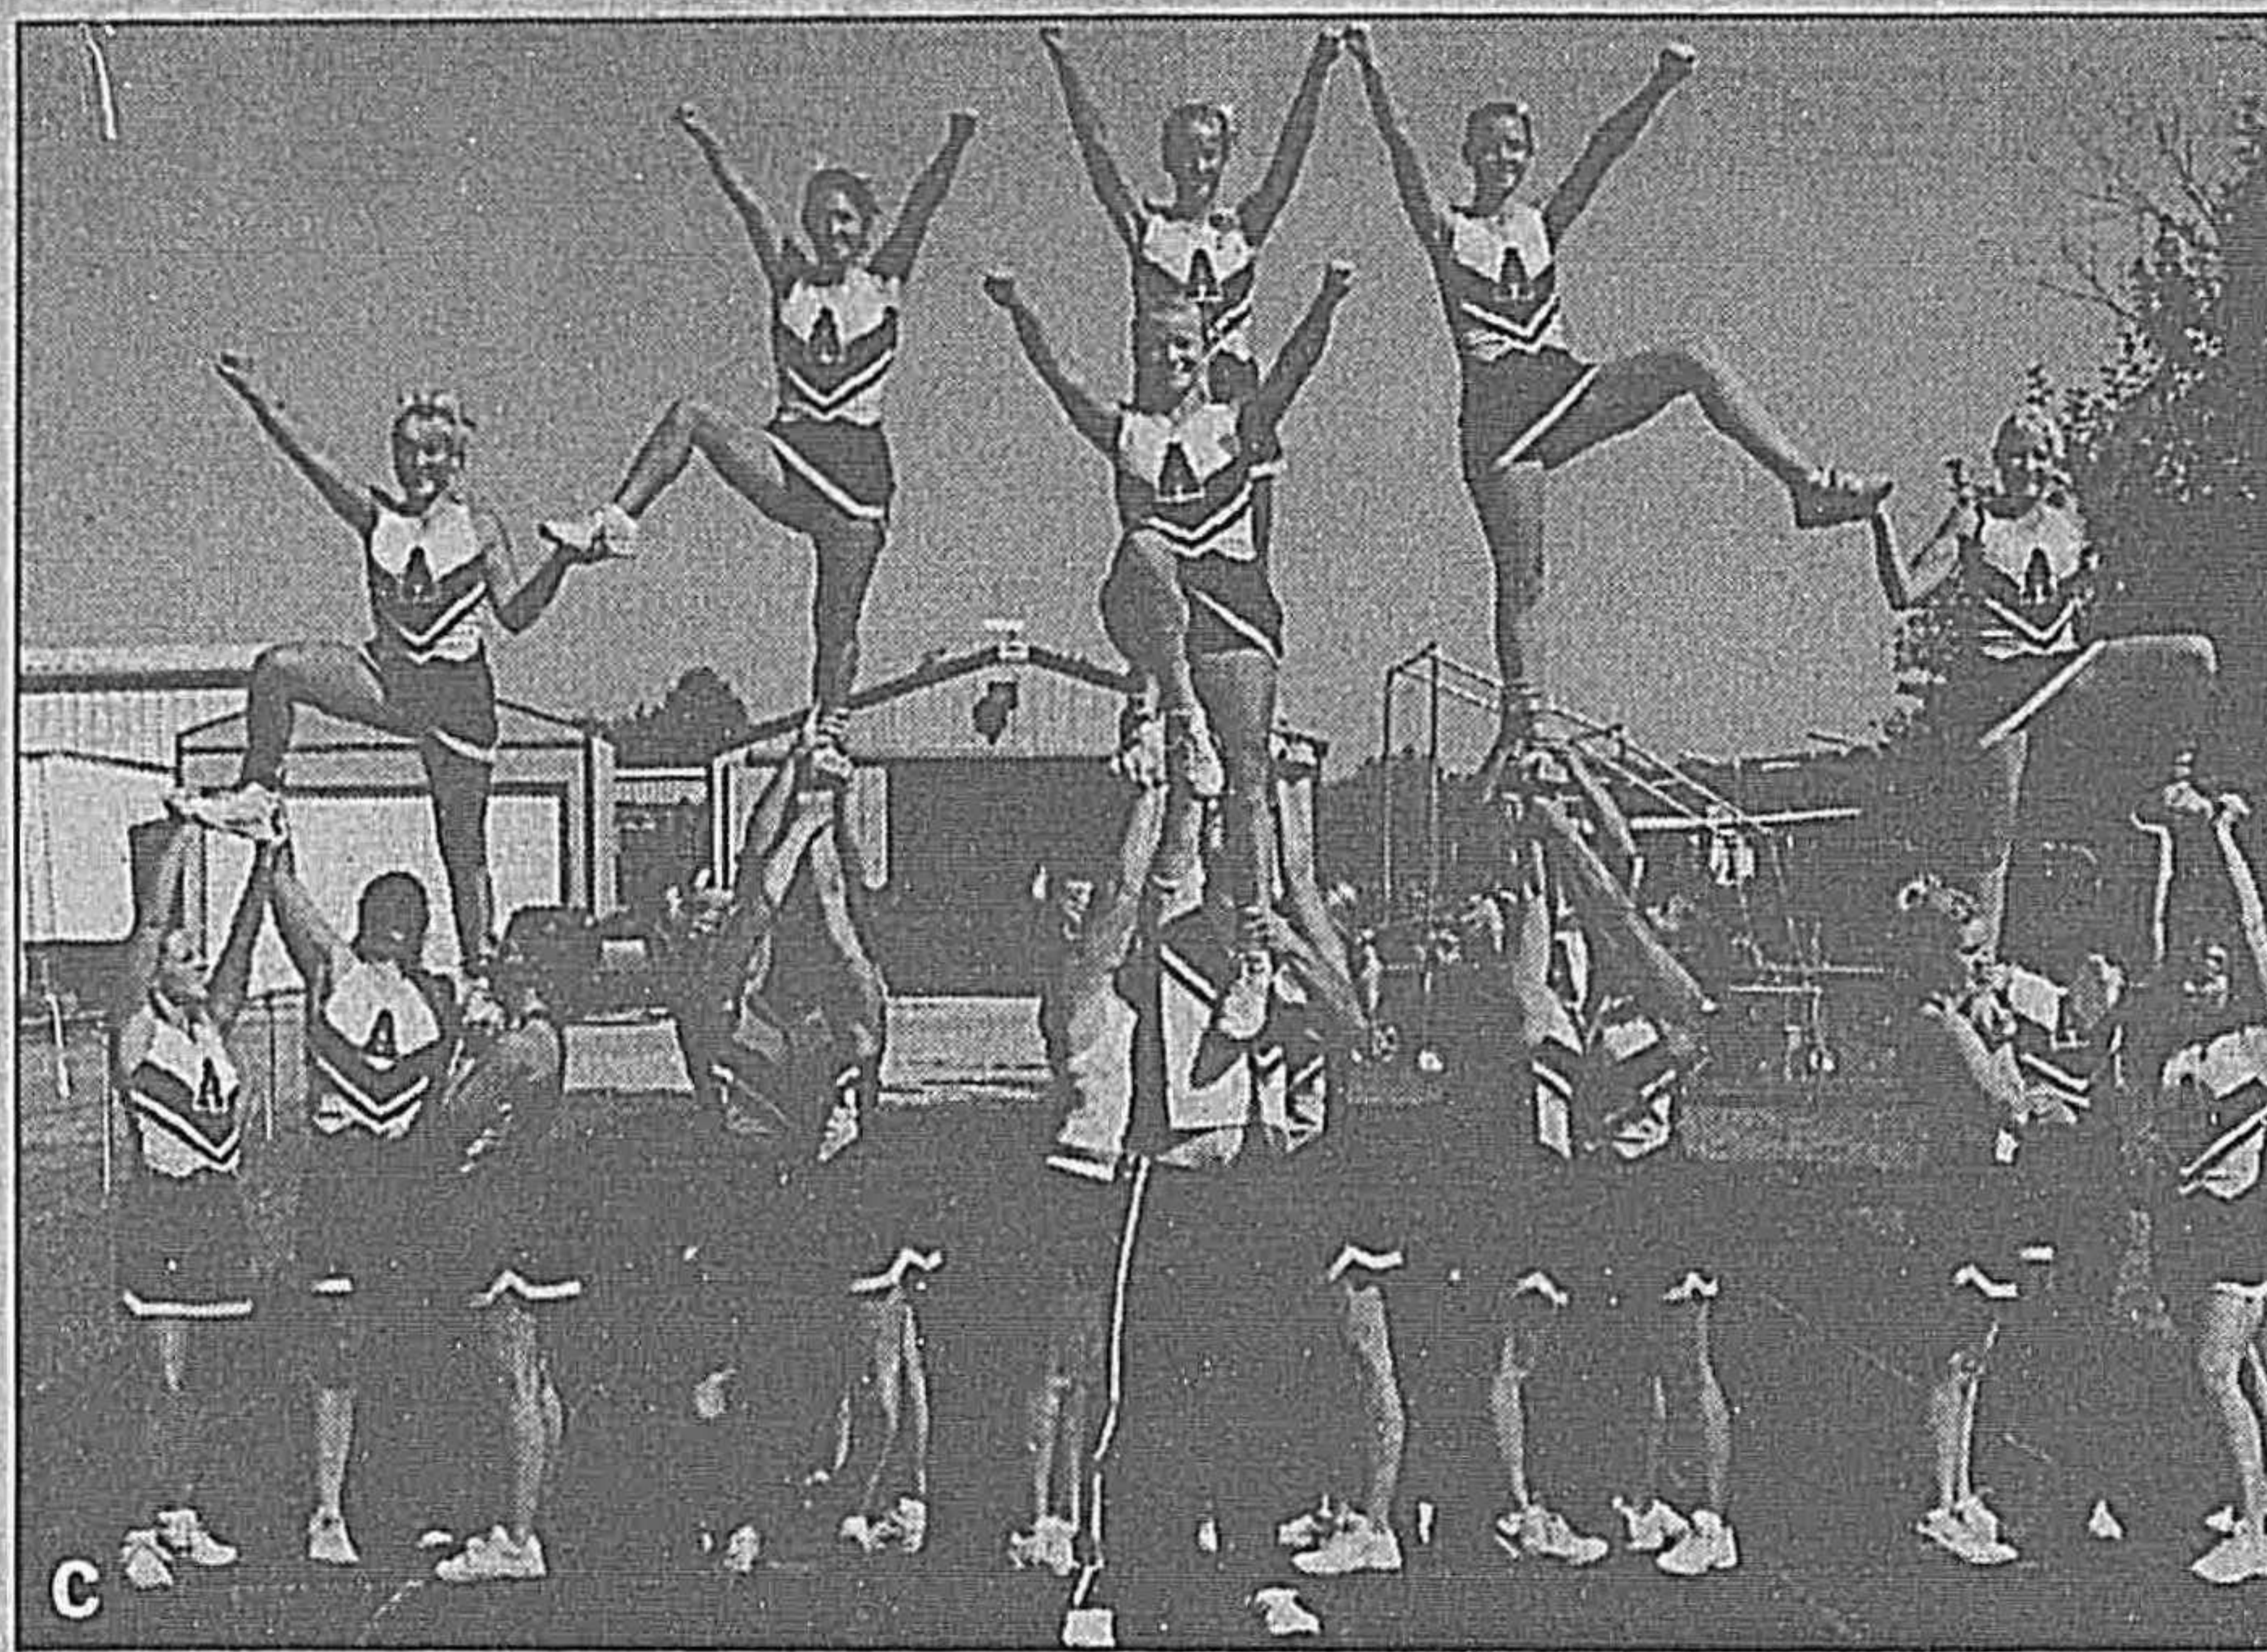

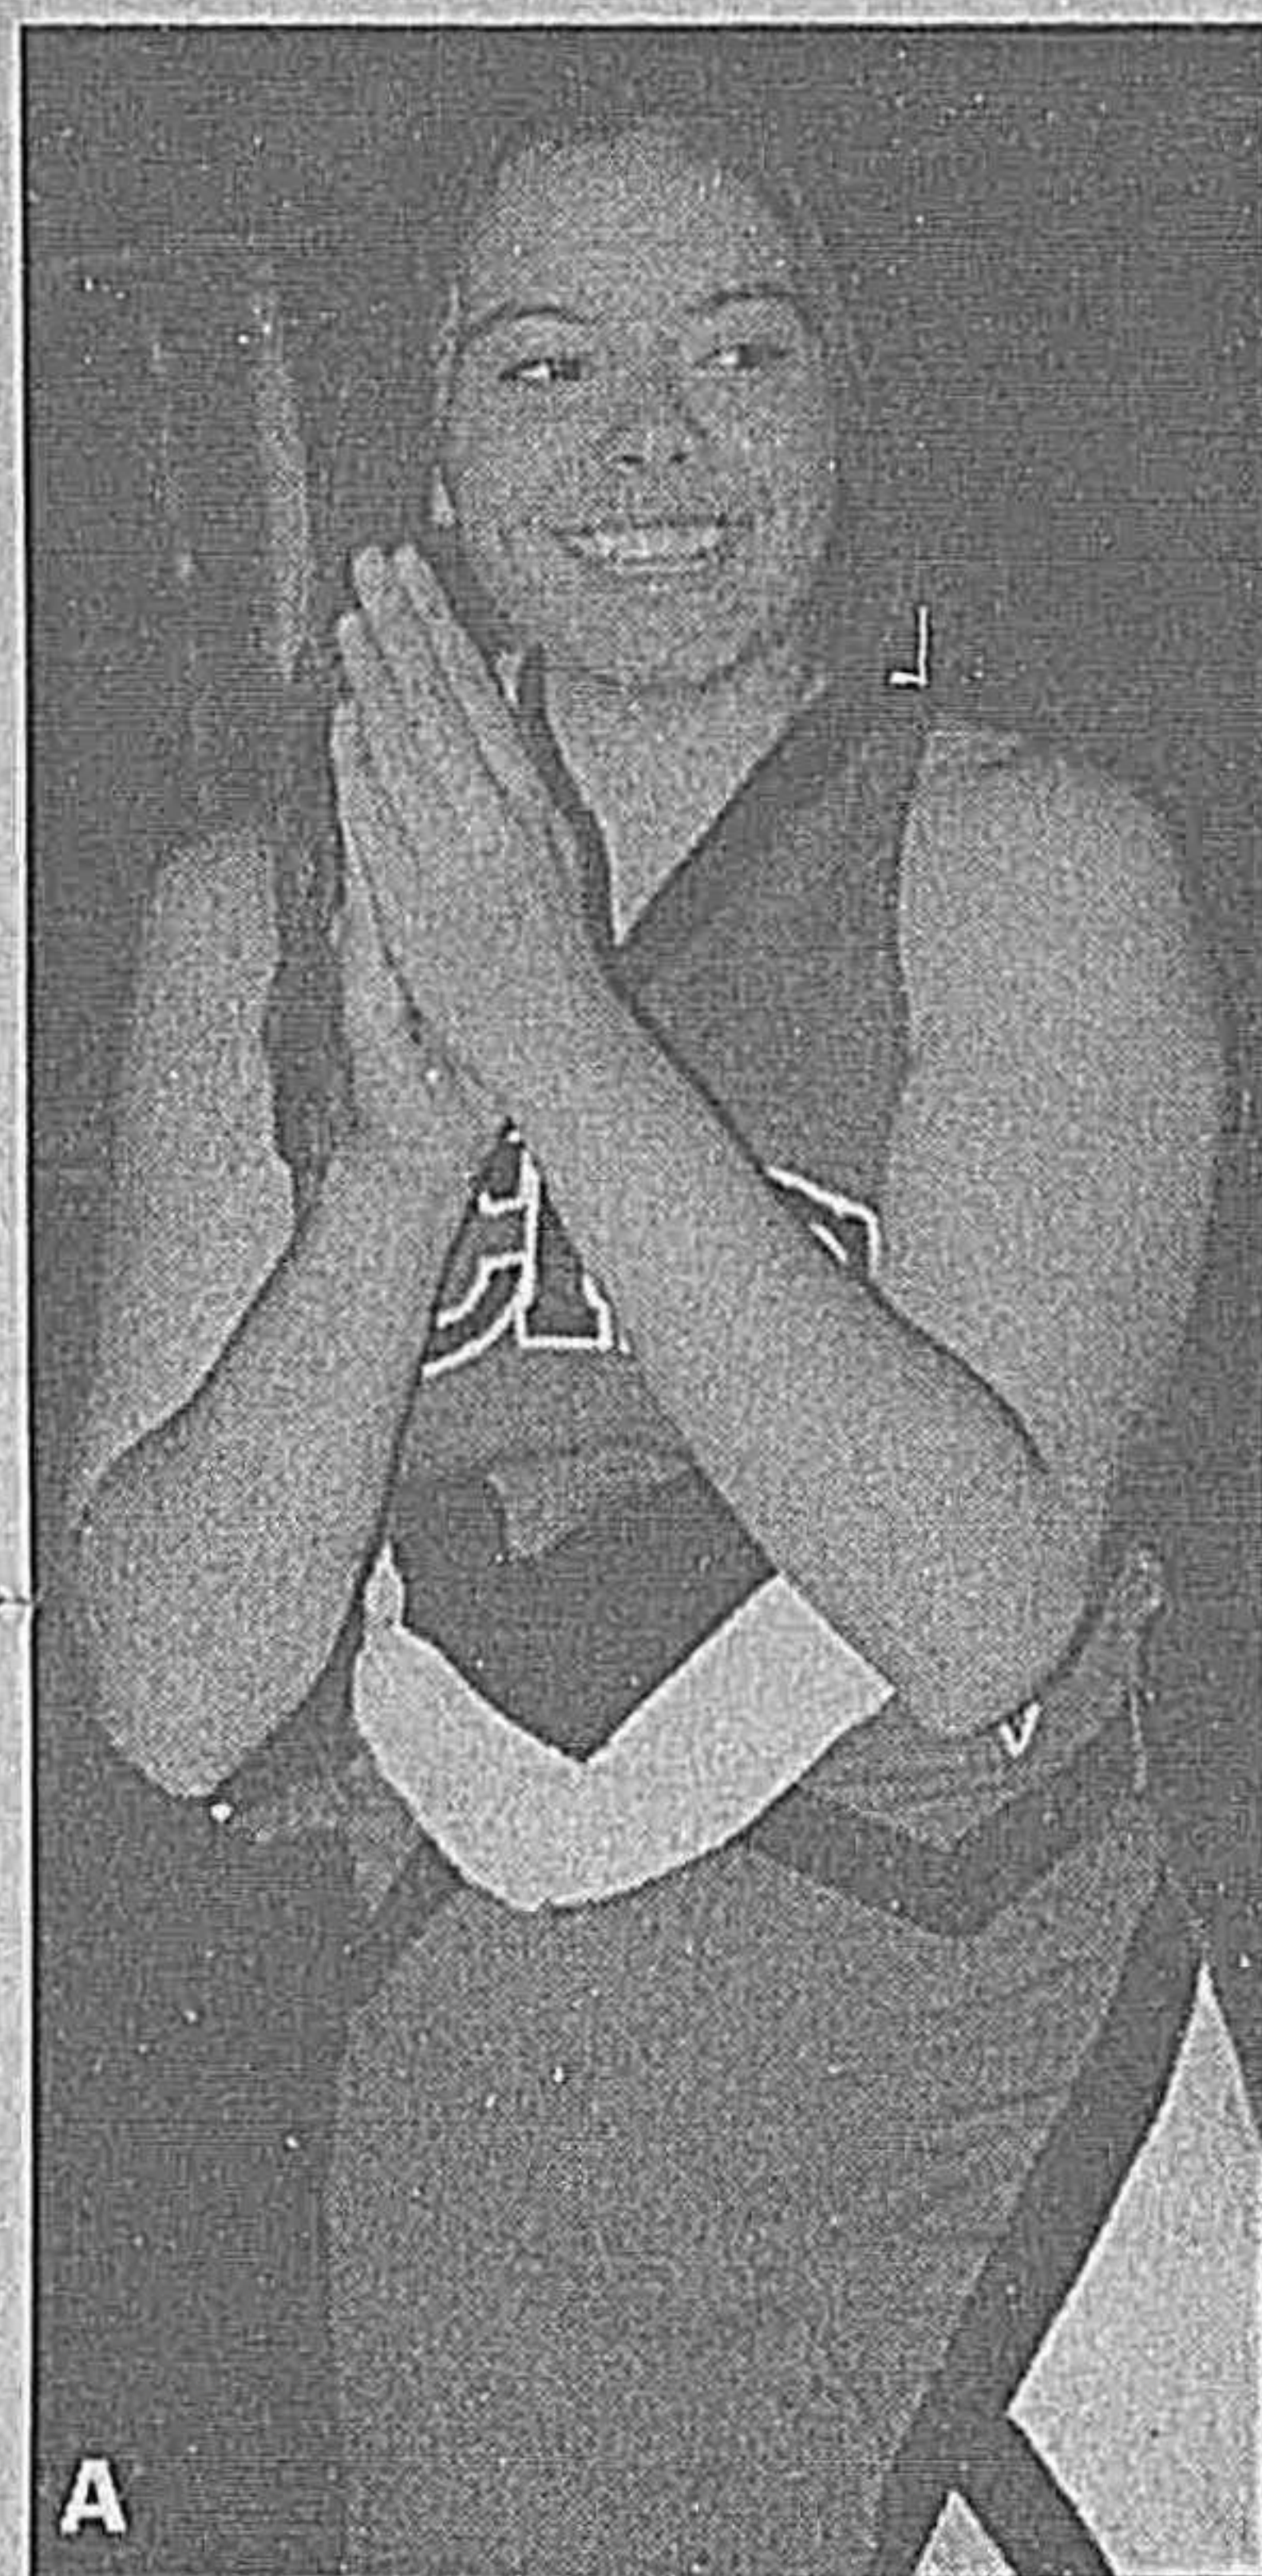

"The girls from that camp will perform at the freshman Homecoming game," said Hill. "We wanted to have the clinic for the community. We're planning on having another one during basketball season."

Things seem to be falling into place for the girls. Just remember, pushups await. But only now, it's a positive thing because your football team has been scoring points in bunches.

Corsairs firing on all cylinders for state title drive

By STEVE PETERSON
Staff Reporter

When a team has such a balanced and effective offense as Carmel High does, a talented offensive line is always a key factor.

Such is the case for the Corsairs, who marched through Fenwick to the tune of a 41-13 homecoming romp. The win gives Carmel a 4-0 start in the Metro Catholic Conference White.

"We have the best offensive line that we have ever had here. And Mark Venegoni is maturing as a young quarterback," said Carmel coach Andy Bitto.

Preparing for a Sept. 27 home clash with rival Notre Dame include the line of: Dan Osterhout at split tackle, Mike Krombach at split guard, Mitch Krombach at center, Drew Cairo-Gross and Andrew Horner at tight tackle.

"We played well in all three phases of the game, offense, defense and special teams. The kicking game was excellent. We are averaging 250 yards rushing and Mark has passed for 300 yards, four touchdowns and no interceptions," Bitto said.

'We have the best offensive line that we have ever had here. And Mark Venegoni is maturing as a young quarterback'

Andy Bitto
Carmel Head Coach

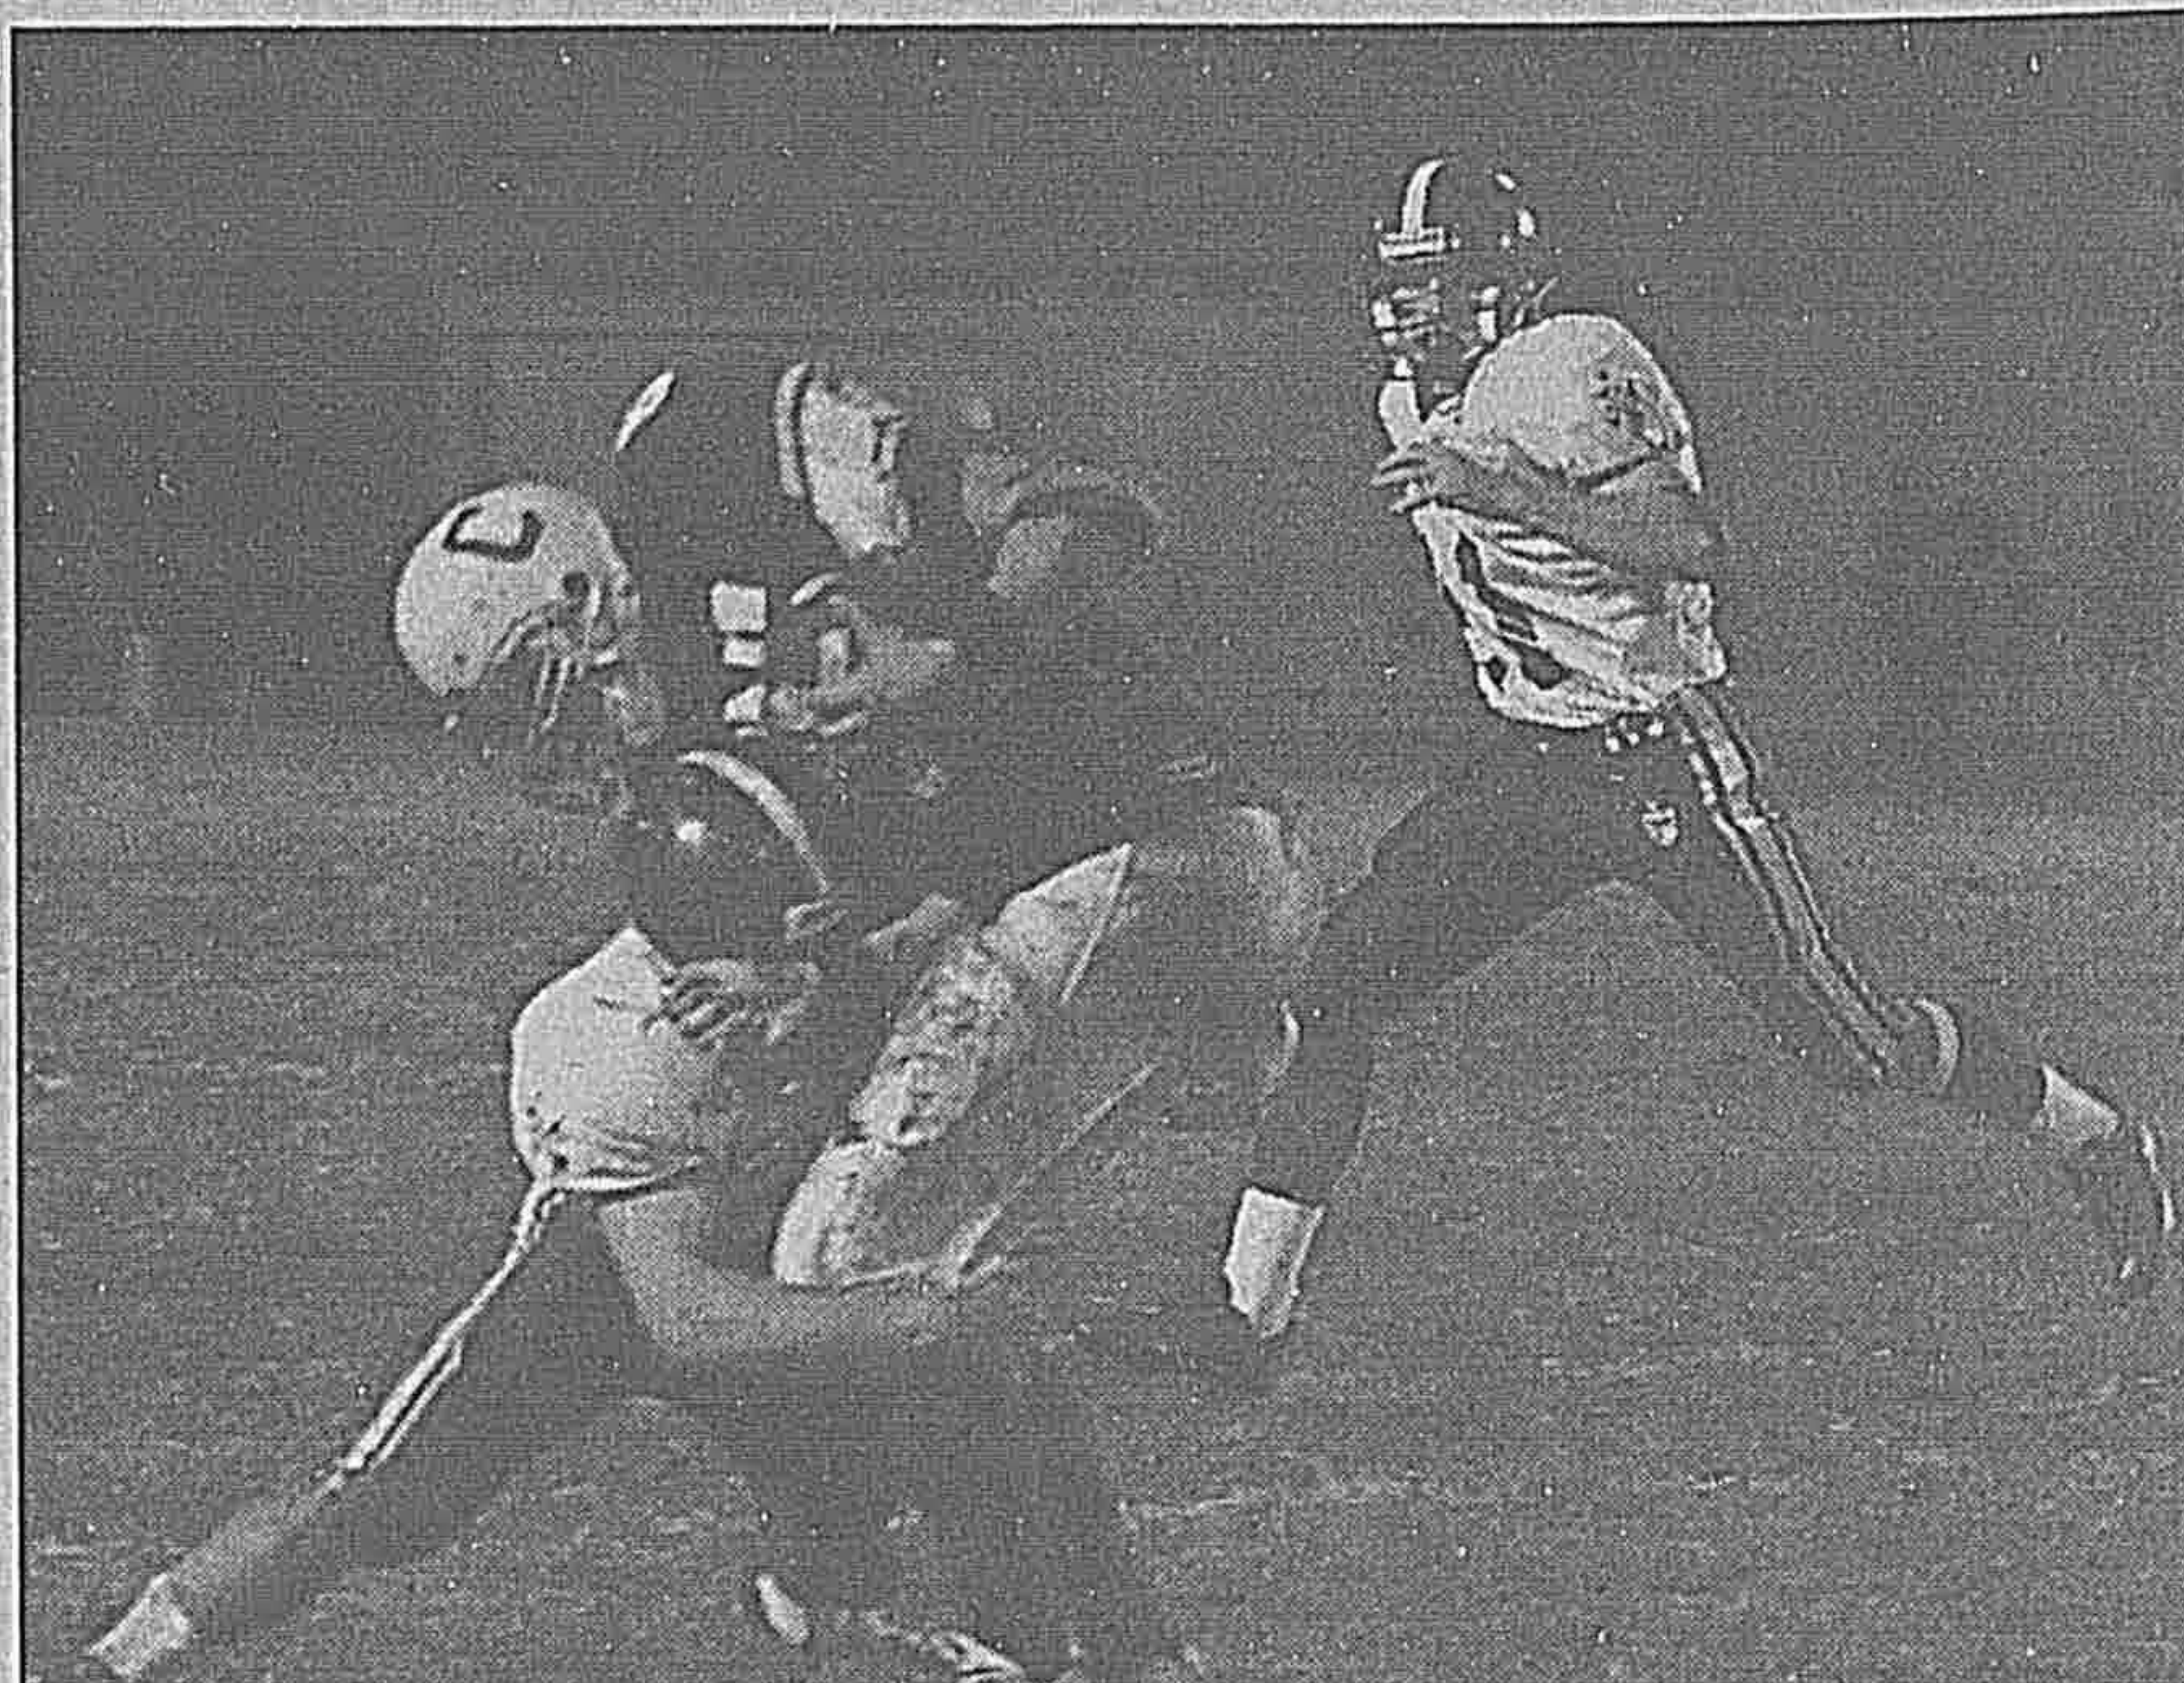

Venegoni, a junior, thrilled the homecoming crowd with a 48-yard TD run for the first score, added 1 and 23-yard runs and completed TD passes to Mike Serio of 56 yards, and 35 yards to Chris Miller. After a 7-6 score in the first quarter, Carmel dominated 34-6 the rest of the way.

The 48-yard TD scamper that got things started was right out of the Carmel playbook.

"It is a 35 option to the split side. They all went for Ziemann's back. Josh and Mitch threw some good blocks downfield, and Venegoni got into the end zone," Bitto said.

Ziemann rushed for 95 yards to set up many Carmel scores. He has 356 yards through four games, an average of 6.5 yards a carry.

The Corsairs also have a weapon in punter Chris Miller. The junior, Carmel's second punter for the season, regularly booms 50-yarders.

Then there is the defense. Carmel has leaders at linebacker, Sean Walker and Nathan Duprey, who can bring players up a couple of notches in their ability, Bitto said.

Notre Dame comes in at 2-2.

"We always have had good, close games against Notre Dame. They always have had a good defense."

The area-rated Corsairs already have a win over Mt. Carmel to their credit, 24-21 a week earlier.

The defense is led by Duprey with 40 tackles and Walker and Jeff Wulf have 34 each. Dexter Reid Jr. has 26, who has three interceptions. Jack Simmons has one pick and three tackles for loss.

Venegoni has accounted for 38 points, Miller 24 with 12 extra points, Ziemann 18 on three touchdowns. The Corsairs have 16 TDs total.

Ziemann has 353 yards to Venegoni's 227. Robinson has 170 and Serio has topped the 100 yard mark as well. This week, Carmel will go over the 1,000-yard rushing plateau.

Jean-etics to fight breast cancer

By BRENDA BALIN-BEITSCHER
Staff Reporter

A number of years ago, some companies brought "casual Friday" to the workplace, allowing employees to "dress down" one day a week.

Nevertheless, in most upscale, white-collar businesses and institutions, "casual" has its limits. While suits were traded for jackets without ties and khakis, certain clothing items, such as t-shirts and denim jeans, remained taboo.

Vista Health is asking companies and their employees to bend the rules for a good cause. Lakeland Media is the media sponsor for the event.

"When we heard the cure for breast cancer could be found in the genes, we decided to ask everybody to wear them," says a flier.

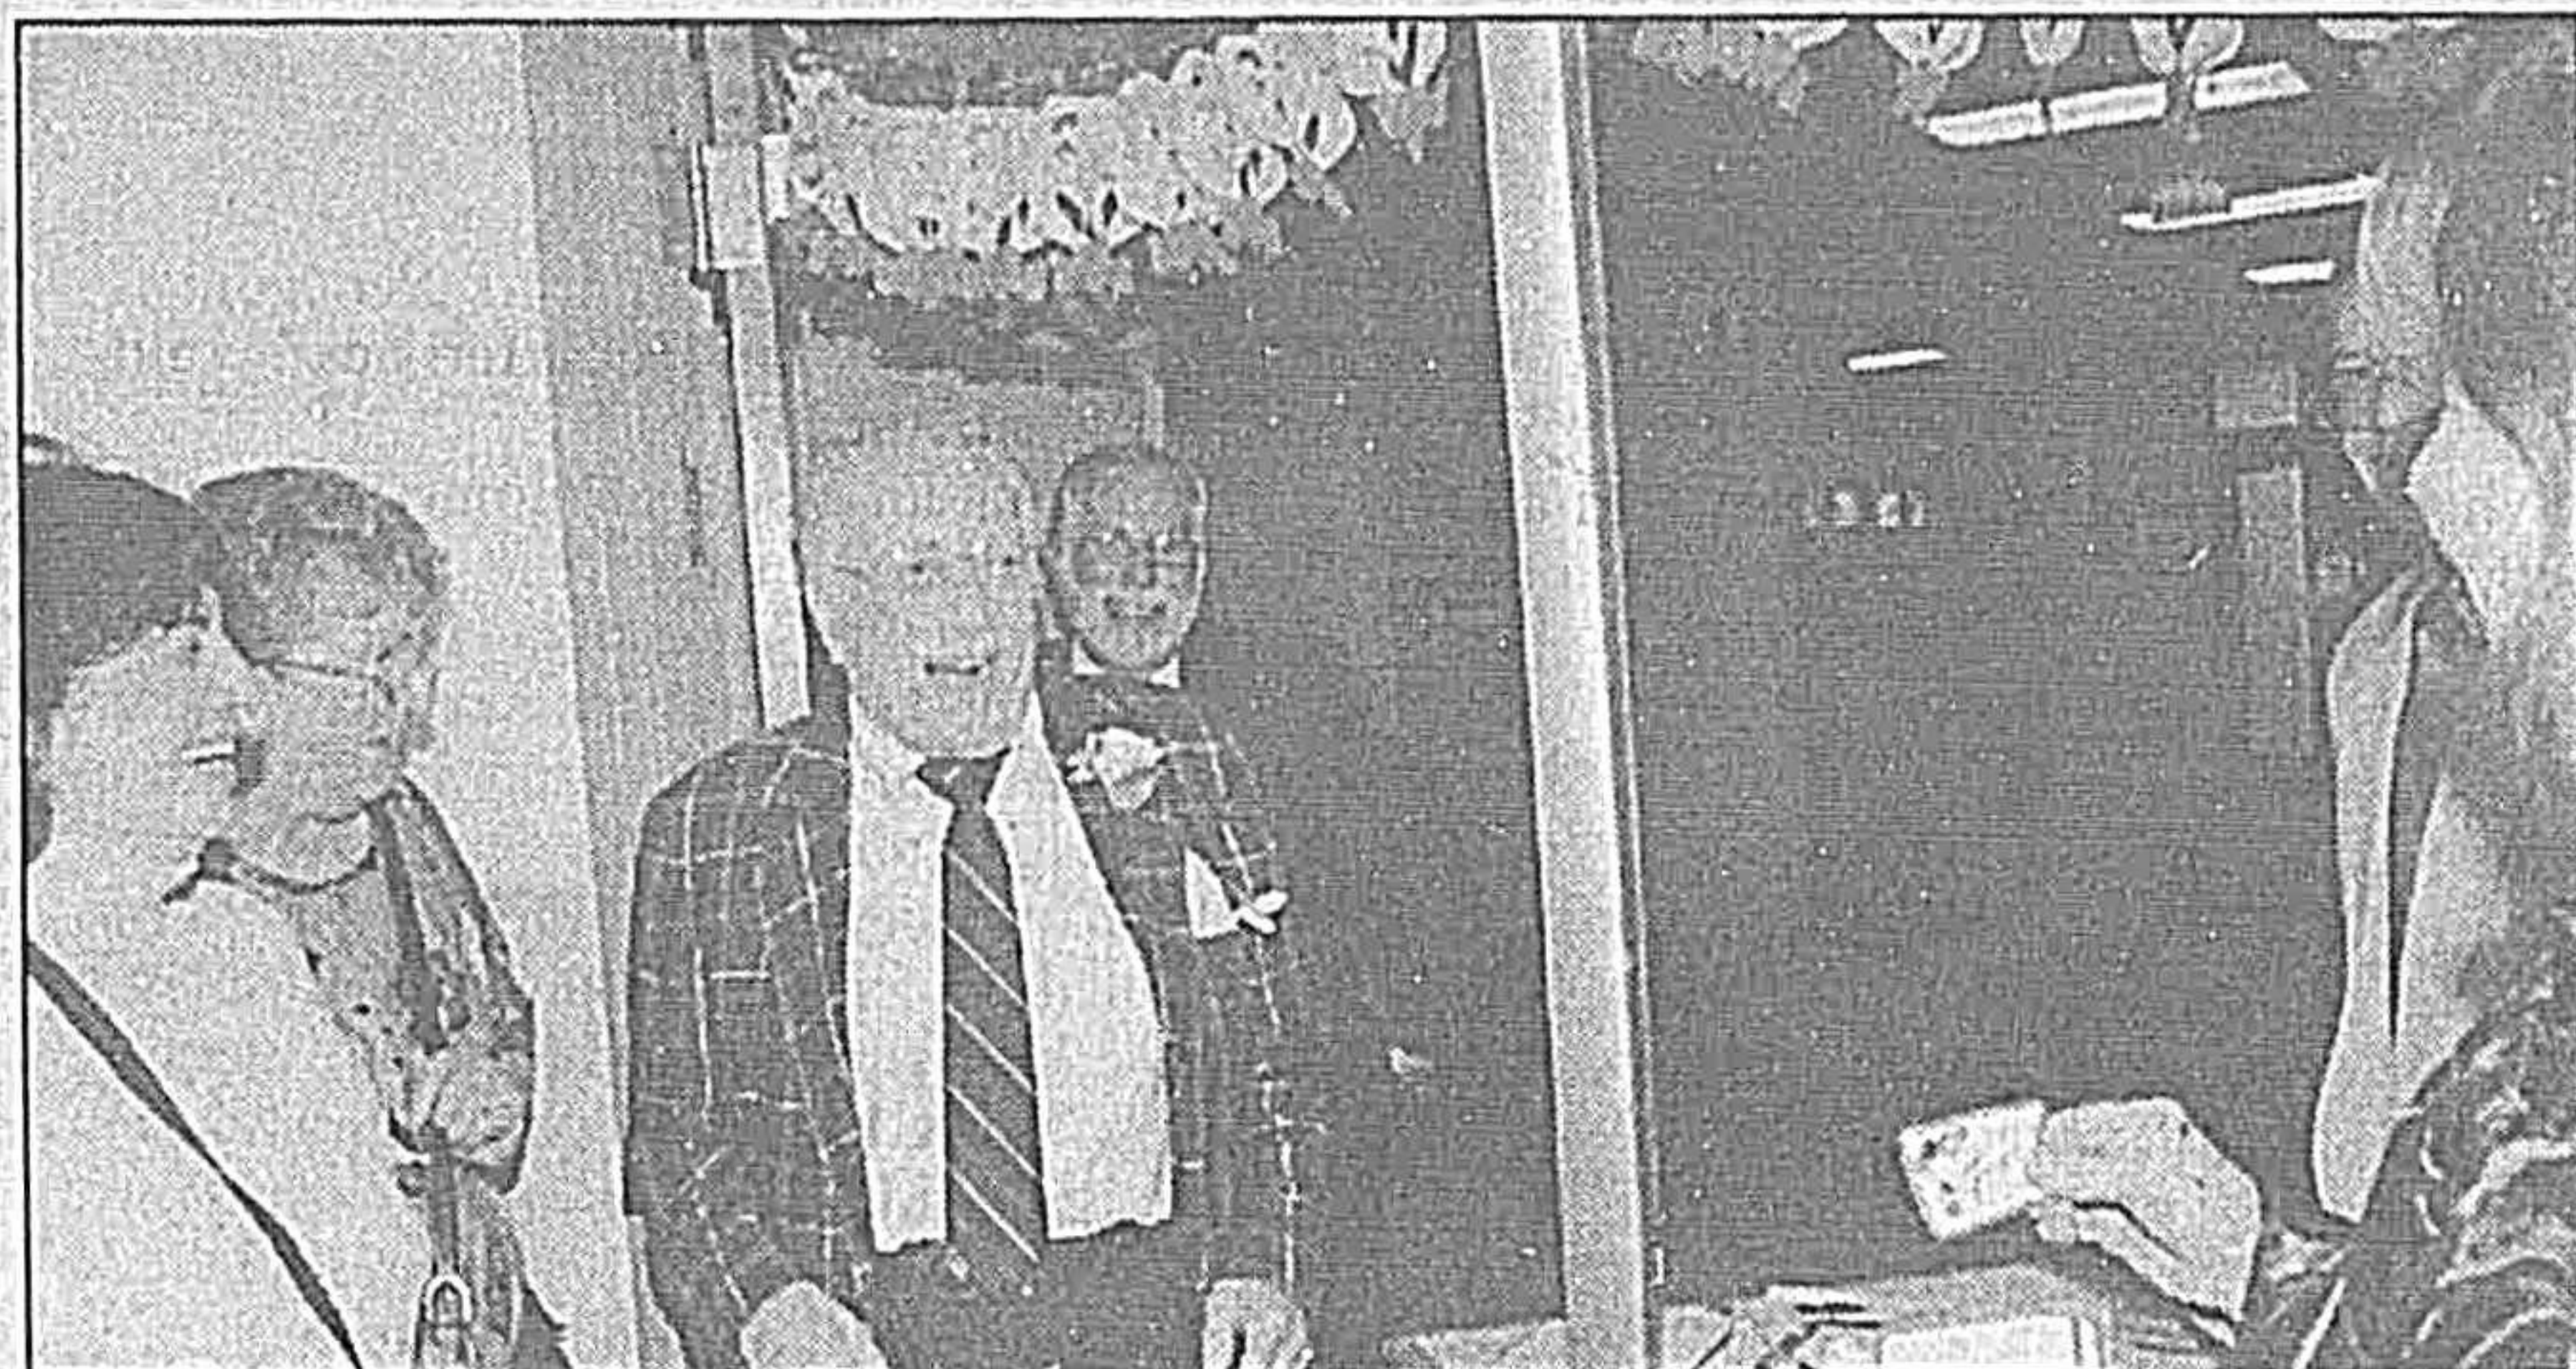

The flier promotes Friday, Oct. 4, as Vista's Second Annual "It's all in the Jeans Day." Employers are asked to cooperate by allowing employees to wear denim on that day (or any other during the month of October) in exchange for a $2 contribution.

The money will stay in the community, going to Vista's oncology and diagnostic departments, specifically for use in diagnosis and treatment of breast cancer, as well as for community education programs about breast cancer and mammography.

Some of the sponsors of "It's All In The Jeans Day" include: Air Con Refrigeration, Amerigraphx, DB Aviation, Eirich Machines Inc., Enterprise Rent-a-Car, Greenwood Dental Associates, Keller-Williams Realty Sunshine, Manpower, Rockenbach Chevrolet, Warren-Newport Library, Waukegan Savings and Loan, WKRS/WXLC and (of course) all Vista Health facilities, including St. Therese and Victory Memorial Hospitals, Vista Surgery and Treatment and Victory Lakes Residential facilities.

Schools are also invited to participate, involving both staff and students. For more information regarding individual contributions or sponsorship opportunities, call 847-360-4248.

As November elections near, clerk looking for more judges

By JEFF ZACHARY
Staff Reporter

At an impressive turnout of Avon Township Republicans at the Round Lake Beach Village Hall, Lake County Clerk Willard Helander talked about the need for more election judges.

"We are still probably 260 election judges down," said Helander, to the audience, which included among many, State Sen. Adeline Geo-Karis, District 62 State Rep. candidate Bob Churchill, Lake County Board District 6 candidate Don Bauer and Lake County Board District 16 candidate Bob Powers.

She added that she will be training 60 students from Grayslake High School to be election judges, in a couple of weeks.

"But we still need to see some of our adult citizens joining up," said Helander.

The county clerk then took an idea from the David Letterman show and read the "Top Ten" reasons to be an election judge.

"The number 10 reason is you will get up in time to see the sun rise; number 9—you will work with a friendly panel of four other judges; number 8—you will have absolutely free training; number 7—You will earn your stars and stripes and still get home in time to watch Letterman; number 6—you'll see all your neighbors that you don't want to have over for dinner; number 5—there is nothing more American than voting; number 4—you'll get to have breakfast, lunch and dinner out of the house; number 3—you'll remain impartial on election day; number 2—you'll know you've done your part to preserve the American Way and the number one reason is—You will be the judge," said Helander as she pointed to a smiling Judge James Booras.

According to Helander, election judges are responsible for the proper and lawful conduct of the election. Election judges are commissioned as officers of the Circuit Court and must take an oath to uphold the constitutions of the United States and the State of Illinois in the performance of their duties. Election judges ensure that every person qualified to vote is permitted to vote, and that every person permitted to vote is qualified to vote.

What a lot of people don't realize is that election judges are paid.

Untrained judges earn $85 for each election served. Judges who maintain a trained status (every two years and attend the Pre-Election Update Class receive $115. Additional pay can be earned for taking on extra responsibilities before and on election day.

To serve as an election judge, you must be a citizen of the United States and entitled to vote at the next election; be of good reputation and character; be able to speak, read and write the English language; be skilled in the four fundamental rules of arithmetic; not be a candidate for any office at the election and not be a precinct committeeman.

The judge must also reside in the precinct in which he/she is selected to serve.

Election judges at each precinct-polling place represent the two major political parties. When five judges are required, three persons of the same political party serve. When three judges are required, only two of the same political party serve.

October candidate forums on tap

The League of Women Voters of Highland Park will be holding two Candidates Forums in October in Highland Park. These events are free and open to the public, and co-sponsored with other area Leagues.

The first forum, focusing on local offices, will take place on Sunday, Oct. 13, from 2-4 p.m., at Highland Park's Heller Nature Center located off Ridge Road, north of Route 22. The program will be co-sponsored with the Leagues of Women Voters of Deerfield-Lincolnshire area, Lake Forest-Lake Bluff area, and the Lake County League of Women Voters. Candidates in contested races for County Clerk, County Sheriff, and County Board candidates for districts 13, 21, 22, and 23 will appear.

In addition, candidates for the County Regional Superintendent of Schools (uncontested), County Treasurer (uncontested), North Shore Sanitary District Ward 4 and Ward 5 will be invited to attend and make campaign materials available, but will not be speaking.

Candidates expected to appear at the Oct. 13 forum include: Lake County Clerk candidates Willard Helander (R), Patrick Patt (D); Sheriff candidates Gary Del Re (R) and

A second candidates' forum, on Sunday, Oct. 27, from 1-4 p.m. at the Highland Park Country Club on West Park Avenue, will focus on election for state and federal offices. Co-sponsors are the Leagues of Women Voters of Deerfield-Lincolnshire area, Glenview, Glenview, Lake Forest-Lake Bluff area, and the Lake County League of Women Voters.

This will be a forum for the candidates for the 10th Congressional District, the 29th State Senate District, and the 58th State Representative District.

Candidates expected to appear at the Oct. 27 forum include: 10th—Mark Kirk (R), Henry "Hank" Perritt (D); 29th—Susan Garrett (D), Kathleen Parker (R) and 58th—Marc Brown (R), Karen May (D).

The moderator for both events will be Suzanne Calder of Evanston, who is a past president of the State League. For information, contact the LWVHP at (847) 433-8855 or online at www.highlandpark.org/lwvhp.

ATTENTION PET OWNERS We Do Not Knowingly Accept Ads For Free/Giveaway Animals

If you must give up your beloved pet, please consider these suggestions.

*Free animal ads suggest that there is something wrong with the animal, or that it has no value.

*Some people who respond to these free animal ads are impostors and are only concerned about making a profit and not the animal's welfare.

*Charging a fee to a potential pet owner confirms the responsibility of pet ownership for an entire lifetime of that pet. For more information, please contact the Humane Society.

Diversity Hiring Gains Support By Scott T. Fleischmann

This past week I did a keynote speech to open a local job fair. This job fair was specifically for workers who were over 50 years of age. In doing the research for this presentation I discovered some encouraging news for those who are concerned about employment discrimination.

First, some background. I believe that intentional discrimination is relatively rare. Yet, we all share an affinity with those who look like us, act like us, and participate in the same hobbies as we do. Recruiters and hiring managers are no different. However, by law, they need to take care to overcome those biases. They also need to understand that diversity is in the best interest of their company. Companies that hire people from a variety of backgrounds have divergent views on developing products, solving problems, marketing, etc.

That being said, it would appear that the value of this diversity is now understood by more organizations than in the past, especially as it pertains to older workers. Starbucks is looking to hire older employees. Jo Davidson of Starbucks said, "Over the next ten years and upwards, the labor pool is going to come from the older workers."

The Bureau of Labor Statistics concurs, stating they "expect the labor force age 55 and older to grow by 32 percent by 2010 while those between 35-44 will shrink by 10.2 percent." Why this turnaround? The primary reason is that companies are putting more value on experience. I believe that we learned two great lessons in the 90's that contribute to this change. The first, a mistake, was the early retirement programs that were used to reduce costs. Rather than contributing to the Gross National Product, these elderly folk are now enjoying golf, needlepoint and time with the grandchildren. Few of us would have passed on these opportunities to start enjoying our retirement years a little early. But the loss to the knowledge base of corporate America was significant.

The other 90's experience was more positive. As we approached the year 2000, the computer programs of the past needed to be modified. Identifying a labor shortage for the amount of work that needed to be done, recruiters called out to retirees to help attack this short-term problem. Many of them returned to work for a year or two before retiring.

The pending doom that we heard about prior to 2000 never materialized. The success of the program modifications is well documented. We can be thankful to those who accomplished those tasks, including the elder workers who returned to teach us that they were still a viable alternative in the workplace.

Unfortunately, we cannot say that employment discrimination has disappeared from the face of the earth. But it is encouraging to know that some employers realize that a more diverse work force will create a more productive America.

Pet OF THE WEEK

PRINCE

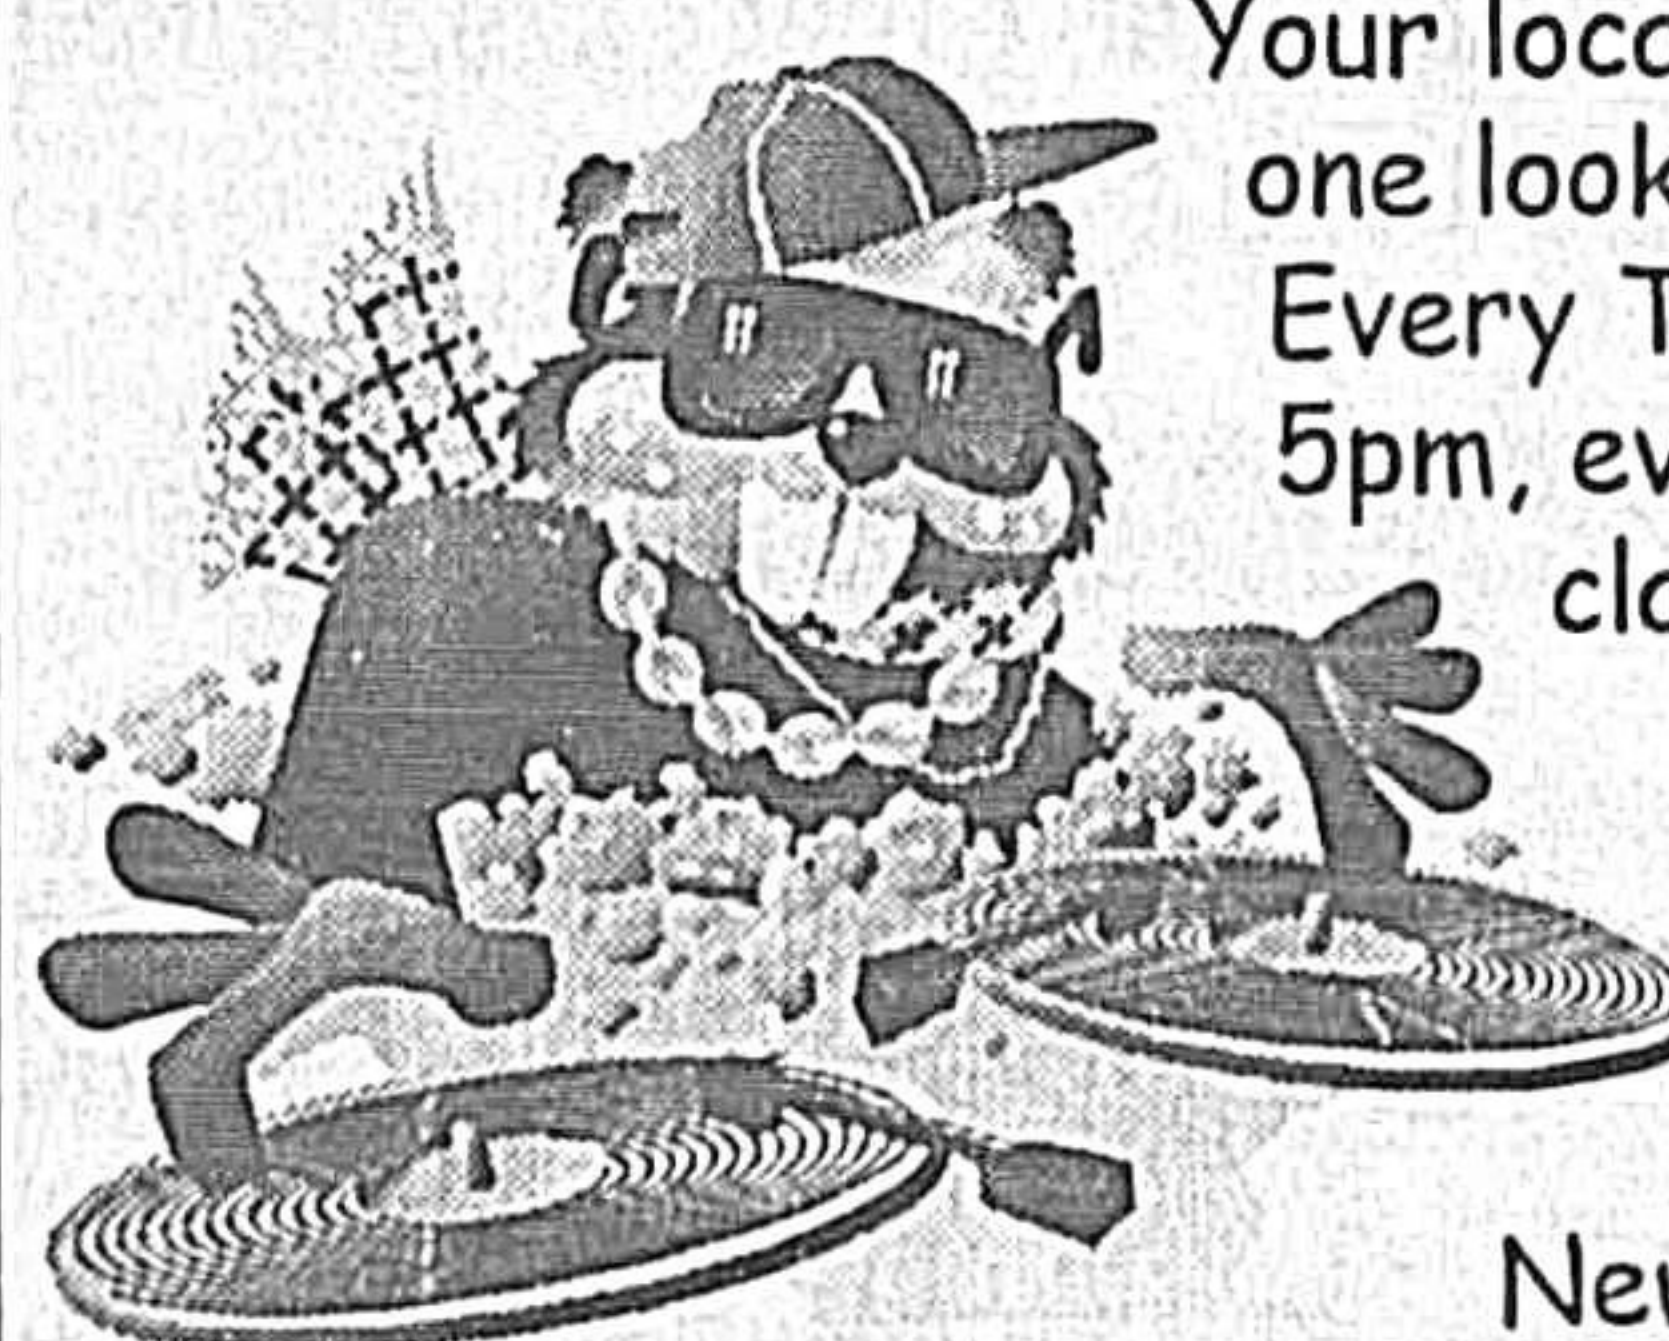

Hello Everyone! My name is Prince (I'm the one on the left) and I guess my name might give you an idea of how I am treated by Mom and Dad Hamil. Mom rescued me from a shelter eight years ago this month, and she does not really know my age. Boy, did I find great parents! You might see me walking about town, on a leash of course, with Mom or Dad pulling a red wagon behind. This is for when I just cannot walk anymore, or at least that is what they think! I am definitely looking forward to cooler weather. Happy Autumn.

The physical location of the property is located at the intersection of Della Drive and Liberty Street (State Route 176), Wauconda, IL.

Petitioners are requesting a MAP amendment to the Zoning Title rezoning the property from the Residential 3 (R3) Zoning Classification to the Residential 4 (R4) Zoning Classification of the Village of Wauconda.

Said Petition is available for examination in the Village Clerk's office at the Village Hall, 101 North Main Street, Wauconda, Illinois.

All interested persons are invited to attend said hearing and be heard.

PUBLIC NOTICE ZONING BOARD OF APPEALS/PLAN COMMISSION WAUCONDA, ILLINOIS

Public Notice is hereby given pursuant to a Petition on file in the Village Clerk's office of the Village of Wauconda that a public hearing will be held on October 14, 2002, at 7:00 p.m. in the Village Hall, Wauconda, Illinois, to hear the Petition of CHARLES AND AMY WHITESELL, as Petitioners and MICHAEL AND MARY WHELAN, as Record Owners, of the territory described below:

That part of the Southeast 1/4 of Section 27, Township 44 North, Range 9, East of the Third Principal Meridian, described as follows: Beginning at a point on the North line of said Southeast 1/4, 1594 feet East of the center of said Section; thence East on said North line, 200 feet; thence South parallel with the West line of said quarter Section, 950.7 feet to the center line of State Bond Issue Road, No. 176; thence Northwesterly along said center line, 209 feet; thence Northerly 880.6 feet to the point of beginning, in Lake County, Illinois.

The physical location of the property is at the Northeast corner of the intersection of Forest Gardens Road and Illinois State Route 176, Wauconda, IL.

The common address is: 27174 W. Highway 176, Wauconda, IL.

Petitioners and Record Owners are requesting annexation of the territory into the Village of Wauconda, a Map Amendment rezoning the territory from the Residential 1 (R1) to the General Business (GB) Zoning Classification of the Village of Wauconda. Text Amendments to the Zoning Title to permit (i) a vehicle storage yard and (ii) bulk materials storage as conditional uses in the GB Zone, Issuance of Conditional Use Permits for (i) a contractors equipment storage yard or plant and (ii) vehicle storage yard and (iii) bulk materials storage yard, and the following variations from the Zoning Title:

1. Variation to allow the existing metal pole barn to remain upon the property as an accessory building of a size in excess of the accessory building requirements of the Zoning Title; and,
2. Variation from the requirement that the property be served by municipal sewer and water

Said Petition is available for examination in the Village Clerk's office at the Village Hall, 101 North Main Street, Wauconda, Illinois.

All interested persons are invited to attend said hearing and be heard.

Respectfully submitted, STEVEN MADSEN, Chairman Wauconda Zoning Board of Appeals/Plan Commission Dated at Wauconda, Illinois this 24th day of September, 2002.
